OUTLOOK FOR 2022 ■ BRIGHT FUTURE AHEAD

The Georgia Bulldogs had been crowned 2021 national champions 45 minutes earlier. Celebratory confetti stuck to the players' cleats as they entered the locker room. Teammates, coaches, and support staff shared ardent hugs. The goal, some four decades in the making, had been realized.

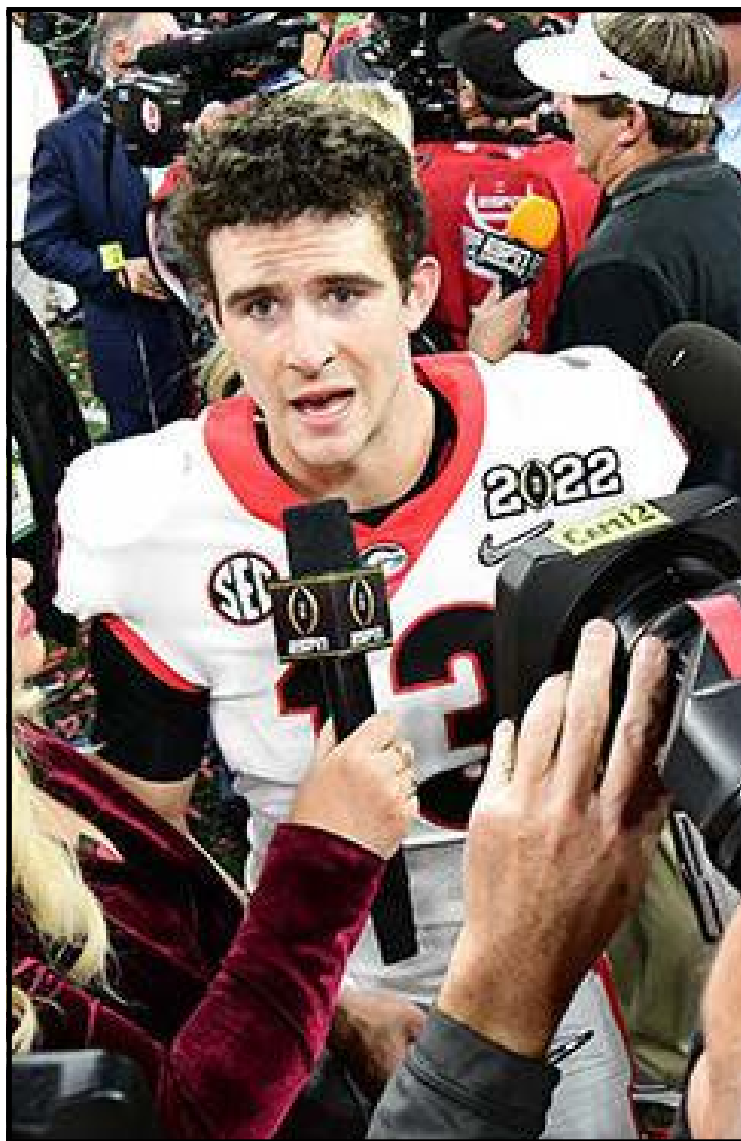

And then, just moments later, the theme shifted. After Coach Kirby Smart thanked the seniors and the juniors who had delayed their NFL announcements, he put the returnees on alert. While embracing the 2021 title, begin focusing on how to do it again in 2022.

"I know all of the players will remember this feeling, but I also want the men coming back to stay hungry," Smart said. "It's special to win, but it takes blood, sweat, and tears. It takes connection and toughness. Our job now changes as coaches. We have to do a tremendous job of explaining to our kids how the wind blows at the top. I've seen it first hand and it is not easy. As you climb that mountain, it is windy up there. There are a lot of kids to replace off last year's team who were tremendous leaders, and hopefully that will carry over to the younger ones."

That process began with offseason workouts and continued through 15 practices last spring. Smart and his staff enter pre-season camp with a good working knowledge of their latest team's makeup and Smart, for one, likes what he's seen so far. We were really talented last year, and not that we're not talented now, but we're going to have to win in different ways."

"I've been concerned about the void in leadership and how we can create leadership opportunities," he said. "From Day One (in the Spring), they were pushing each other, cheering each other on the sideline. It's almost like they wanted to emulate the guys before them. They can emulate what some of those guys did on the field. They can emulate the standard, though, and I think they've done that really well."

What follows is a midsummer, position-by-position breakdown for the Bulldogs:

STETSON BENNETT capped a storybook 2021 season by leading UGA to the national championship.

QUARTERBACKS

The Bulldogs are buoyed offensively by the return of Nolan Smith is the team's returning leader in tackles with 56 and three forced-fumbles.

Georgia's first and last touchdowns were pick-sixes, the first by Christopher Smith (#29) against Clemson.

Stetson Bennett, the Offensive MVP for both the CFP National Championship Game and the Capital One Orange Bowl. Bennett threw for 2,862 yards and 29 touchdowns last season and checks into 2022 as the Bulldogs' third-leading returning rusher with 259 yards and a score. Carson Beck appeared in four games as a reserve last season, throwing for two touchdowns, and Brock Vandagriff took limited snaps in two contests. Early enrollee Gunner Stockton set Georgia state records for passing touchdowns (177), total touchdowns (254), and total yards (18,024) during his prep career. The Bulldogs also have at their disposal Jackson Muschamp, and Collin Drake.

RUNNING BACKS

Kenny McIntosh and Kendall Milton are Georgia's top returning rushers with nearly 600 yards and four touchdowns combined. McIntosh added 242 yards and two touchdowns receiving and even threw a scoring pass in the Capital One Orange Bowl. Daijun Edwards was an effective late-game battering ram, rolling up 210 yards and three scores a year ago. Two highly-rated freshmen have arrived in the summer to fortify the Bulldog backfield: Branson Robinson from Mississippi and Andrew Paul from Texas. Georgia also has available Sevaughn Clark, Cash Jones and Lorenzo Stephenson.

TIGHT ENDS

Brock Bowers logged an All-America and Freshman All-America season with in 2021, with team-high totals and Georgia tight end records for catches (56), yards (882), and touchdowns (13) in 2021. Darnell Washington battled through an early-season injury to become an effective weapon down the stretch for the eventual national champions. Arik Gilbert is a considerable talent who combines the size of a tight end with the athleticism of a wideout. With Bowers and Washington out of spring practice, Gilbert saw substantial time at tight end, and he caught two TD passes in the G-Day game. Early enrollee Oscar Delp, the nation's top-rated tight end prospect as a high school senior, caught a team-high seven passes at G-Day. Also available are Ryland Goede, Brett Seither, Drew Sheehan, Davis Day, and Samuel Johnson.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Passing game coordinator Bryan McClendon, who is returning to the Georgia staff after a 6-year gap, inherits a deep and talented room. Ladd McConkey ranked second in catches (31), yards (447), and touchdowns (five) a year ago. Adonai Mitchell followed closely with 29 grabs for 426 yards and four scores, including the go-ahead touchdown in the CFP National Championship Game, while Kearis Jackson had 16 catches for 194 yards and a touchdown. Veterans Dominick Blaylock, Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint, and Arian Smith continue to improve following injuries. Early enrollees De'Nylon Morrissette and C.J. Smith, as well as fellow freshman Cole Speer, will get serious looks in the fall. Georgia also has Jackson Meeks, Mekhi Mews, Logan Johnson, Braxton Hicks, Nathan Priestley, and George Vining on the roster.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Stacy Searels is back as Georgia's offensive line coach after an 11-year hiatus. The line he inherits — which paved the way for 442 total yards and 39 points per game in 2021 — is anchored by the return of starters Sedrick Van Pran at center, Warren Ericson at guard, and Warren McClendon at tackle. Broderick Jones was a spot starter at tackle last year and earned Freshman All-SEC recognition, while Amarius Mims also filled in regularly for the Bulldogs. Tate Ratledge started the 2021 opener vs. Clemson at guard but was lost for the season with an injury. Xavier Truss, Devin Willock, Austin Blaske, and Chad Lindberg were key reserves a year ago who will look to crack the rotation. Early enrollees Aliou Bah, Earnest Green III, Jacob Hood, and Griffin Scroggs, will also throw their hats in the ring.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

It can be argued that Georgia's defensive line in 2021 was its finest ever. Gone from that group is an astounding trio of first-round NFL Draftees: Travon Walker (first overall pick), Jordan Davis and Devonte Wyatt. Their departures created perhaps the biggest void across the roster. Jalen Carter returns for his junior season as the anchor of the Bulldogs' new unit. Carter racked up 37 tackles, including 8.5 for loss, 33 quarterback pressures, and a team-high two blocked kicks. Tramel Walthour and Zion Logue appeared in every game and had 14 and 11 stops, respectively, while Nazir Stackhouse and Warren Brinson each made nine tackles. Georgia also has veteran players in Bill Norton, Jonathan Jefferson and Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins. Early enrollees Bear Alexander, C.J. Madden, Shone Washington, and Mykel Williams, as well as summer enrollee Christen Miller, will impact the depth chart as well.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

First-year outside linebackers coach Chidera Uzo-Diribe has a veteran presence with Nolan Smith and Robert Beal back. Smith is the Bulldogs' returning leader in tackles after ranking fifth a year ago with 56. He also registered 27 pressures, nine tackles for loss, a team-high three forced fumbles, an interception, a fumble recovery, and a blocked kick. Beal rolled up 23 stops, including a team-best 6.5 sacks. Chaz Chambliss had 11 tackles and made an impact on special teams, while MJ Sherman posted eight tackles.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

The exit of linebackers Nakobe Dean, Quay Walker, and Channing Tindall (and their 200-plus tackles) creates an opportunity for the returning players. Jamon Dumas-Johnson tallied 22 tackles and returned an interception for a touchdown, while Smael Mondon picked up 12 stops. Xavian Sorey logged key plays in a reserve role, and Trezmen Marshall and Rian Davis are returning from season-ending injuries last year. Graham Collins is back as well. Early enrollee Jalon Walker got valuable reps during Spring and should contend early for playing time.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The 2021 title season began with a pick-6 by safety Christopher Smith and ended with a pick-6 by corner Kelee Ringo, and each player is returning for first-year secondary coach Fran Brown for 2022. Smith had 35 tackles and three interceptions, including the only touchdown in the 10-3 opening win against Clemson. Ringo added 34 tackles and two picks, highlighted by the knockout punch against Alabama in the CFP National Championship Game. The Bulldogs also welcome back veterans in Dan Jackson at safety and William Poole at star. Jackson rolled up 40 tackles and blocked a punt, while Poole picked up 14 tackles. Tykee Smith, a 2020 All-American sidelined by injuries last season, will factor into the secondary rotation as he returns. Kamari Lassiter was a reserve in all 15 games a year ago with 11 tackles and an interception. Javon Bullard saw action in 14 contests with 12 stops. David Daniel-Sisavanh and Nyland Green gained valuable experience as backups. Early enrollees Malaki Starks, JaCorey Thomas, and Daylen Everette got experience in the Spring and should contribute as freshmen. Georgia additionally has Drew Southern, Patrick Taylor and Payton Bowles.

SPECIALISTS

Kicker Jack Podlesny was the Bulldogs' leading scorer a year ago with 137 points. He converted 71-of-72 extra points and 22-of-27 field goals. Georgia also returns Jared Zirkel and Matthew Sumlin at kicker. To replace punter, holder, and kickoff specialist Jake Camarda, the Bulldogs will take a look at early enrollee Brett Thorson of Australia, Noah Jones, and Sumlin. Snappers Payne Walker (placement kicks) and William Mote (punts) are back, along with Jonathan Washburn. McIntosh and Jackson have experience as kickoff returners, while Jackson, McConkey, and Blaylock have experience as punt returners.

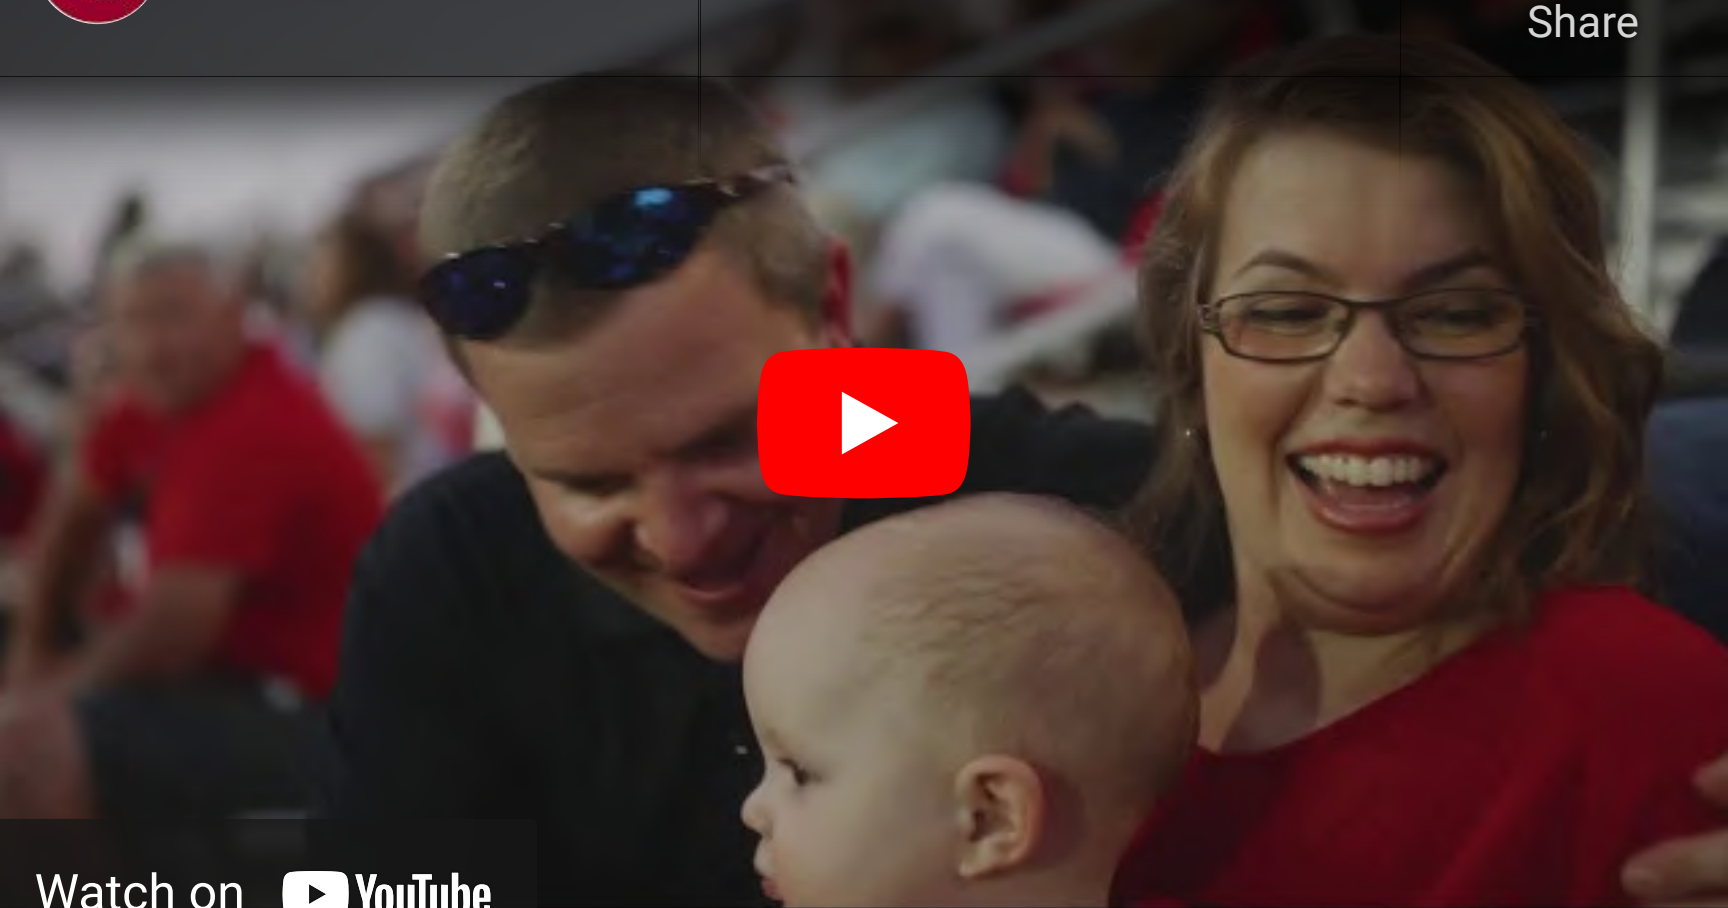

Jamon Dumas-Johnson [#10] and Nazir Stackhouse [#78] aim to make their share of defensive highlights in 2022.

HEAD COACH KIRBY SMART ■ 7TH SEASON AT GEORGIA

A 2021 College Football Playoff national championship, a 2018 CFP title game appearance, 2017 Southeastern Conference Championship, four SEC Eastern Division titles, 66 wins and six bowl victories are more than respectable rewards over a six-year period. That's what Georgia got when it hired former Georgia player and Alabama defensive coordinator Kirby Smart to head the program in December of 2015.

His impact, along with a stellar coaching staff, players, and a passionate fan base has put Georgia on the national stage six years running.

2021 - His 2021 team became UGA's first national champion since 1980, the first since 1982 to go undefeated in the SEC regular season, a No. 1 national ranking by all the major polls and the first ever to win 14 games. It marked the fifth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings. The team set 21 school records, highlighted by the nation's top-ranked defense. The third-ranked Bulldogs defeated No. 2 Michigan, 34-11, in the Capital One Orange Bowl in Miami and then No. 1 Alabama, 33-18, in the championship game in Indianapolis. The senior class also set the mark for most career wins by going 45-8. After the regular season, Smart was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in five years.

Georgia's championship season enjoyed a fitting exclamation mark at the 2022 NFL Draft. The Bulldogs set a Draft record with 15 players taken, including five defenders in the first round, led by the first overall selection, junior Travon Walker.

2020 - The 2020 Bulldogs became Smart's fourth consecutive team to earn a New Year's Six bowl game appearance. With a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2021, the Bulldog seniors tied the record for the most wins by one class in school history (44).

2019 - Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a third straight season. Georgia defeated three teams in the final Top 15 CFP ranking — Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished fourth in the final polls. The Bulldogs capped their season with a dominant victory over Baylor in the Allstate Sugar Bowl game.

2018 -- Georgia in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the CFP poll. Georgia landed in the Allstate Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic.

2017 -- Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC title, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (CFP semifinal) and advancement into the CFP National Championship Game. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.

2016 -- In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015, but he had unfinished business as defensive coordinator at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled two jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of ten head coaches at schools from Power 5 leagues that are coaching at their alma maters.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one CFP national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC West titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 the last eight years in a row.

Smart was one of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators. During his time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), DBs coach at LSU (2004), grad assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/LBs coach (2001) and DBs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at Georgia (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach for Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. His unit averaged 162.2 rushing yards per game, third in the SEC. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a First-Team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA annals, and paced the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season. Smart also scored two points as a collegian. He was the first player in UGA history — and one of just two Bulldogs since the rule was introduced in 1988 — to return a blocked PAT for two points, having brought one back 88 yards against New Mexico State in his freshman year of 1995.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his bachelor's degree in Finance from Georgia in 1998 and his master's in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003.

The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letterwinner and 2-year starter, on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-03. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at Georgia, when Lycett — then working in the UGA Athletic Association Business Office — helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (born Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (born May 25, 2012).

Kirby and Mary Beth Smart also oversee the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting needy children and families facing adversity.

BULLDOGS IN THE NFL DRAFT ■ COMPETING AT THE NEXT LEVEL

The University of Georgia set an NFL Draft record when five of its defensive players were taken in the first round in 2022, led by Travon Walker, (right) who was drafted first overall by Jacksonville. The other first round picks were Jordan Davis (Philadelphia), Quay Walker (Green Bay), Devonte Wyatt (Green Bay) and Lewis Cine (Minnesota). RULES ■ SEC FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

SEC DIVISIONAL TIE-BREAKER

In the event of a tie for the division championship, the following procedures will be used to break all ties to determine the SEC Football Championship Game representative.

1. TWO-TEAM TIE

(If two teams are tied for a division title, the following procedures will be used in order.)

- A. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams;
- B. Records of the tied teams within the division;
- C. Head-to-head competition against the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference record, and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
- D. Overall record against non-divisional teams;
- E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
- F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional or non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division;
- G. Best cumulative Conference winning percentage of non-divisional opponents; and
- H. Coin flip of the tied teams.

2. THREE-TEAM (OR MORE) TIE

(If three teams or more are tied for a division title, the following procedures will be used in order. If one of the procedures results in one team being eliminated and two remaining, the two-team tiebreaker as stated above will be used.)

- A. Combined head to head record among the tied teams;

- B. Record of the tied teams within the division;
- C. Head-to-head competition against the team within the division with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through the division (multiple ties within the division will be broken from first to last and a tie for first place will be broken before a tie for fourth place);
- D. Overall Conference record against non-divisional teams;
- E. Combined record against all common non-divisional teams;
- F. Record against the common non-divisional team with the best overall Conference record (divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based on their order of finish within their division; and
- G. Best cumulative Conference winning percentage of non-divisional opponents (Note: If two teams' non-divisional opponents have the same cumulative record, then the two-team tiebreaker procedures apply. If four teams are tied, and three teams' non-divisional opponents have the same cumulative record, the three-team tiebreaker procedures will be used beginning with 2.A.);
- H. Coin flip of the tied teams with the team with the odd result being the representative (Example: If there are two teams with tails and one team with heads, the team with heads is the representative.)

DOOLEY FIELD AT SANFORD STADIUM ■ HOME OF THE BULLDOGS

With a $25 million expansion completed in 2003 and another $8 million in 2004, Sanford Stadium added a second upper deck on the north side and 27 new north side SkySuites bringing the new stadium capacity to 92,746--the ninth largest on-campus stadium in the country.

Named for the late Dr. S. V. Sanford, former president of the University and Chancellor of the University system, Georgia's Sanford Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2004. An overflow crowd of 30,000 saw the stadium's first game on October 12, 1929, when Yale University made its only trip South. Georgia won the now famous game when a young sophomore end from Macon, Vernon "Catfish" Smith, scored all 15 of the Bulldogs' points. Final score, Georgia 15, Yale 0.

Through the years, the stadium has experienced various expansion projects. In 1940, lights were added to the field level paving the way to the first Sanford Stadium night game, a 7-7 tie between Georgia and Kentucky on October 26, 1940.

Eventually, the East end of the stadium was enclosed, more lights added, and the capacity increased to 82,122. The 1991 project enclosed the West end at a cost of $3.7 million. The price tag was rather hefty, considering that the original price to build the stadium was a mere $360,000.

Sanford Stadium added yet another chapter to its history by hosting the medal round of the 1996 Olympic men's and women's soccer competition, watched via television by over 3 billion people around the world.

Prior to Georgia's 2019 home opener, the playing field at Sanford Stadium was formally renamed in honor of Vince Dooley, the Bulldogs' all-time winningest head coach. Dooley served as head football coach of the Bulldogs from 1963 through 1989 and director of athletics from 1979 to 2004.

As head coach, he won 201 games, one national championship and six SEC championships. While Dooley was athletic director, UGA won 23 national championships and 78 SEC team championships.

DR. STEADMAN V. SANFORD

Born Aug. 20, 1871, Dr. Steadman Vincent Sanford joined the Georgia faculty in 1903 and instantly became one of the University's most popular people.

He founded the Henry W. Grady School of Journalism in 1921, served as University Dean from 1927-32, and held the post of University president and chancellor until 1935 when he was named chancellor of the entire University System of Georgia.

He also held the position of faculty chairman of athletics while on the UGA faculty. He was the force behind the construction of Sanford Stadium in 1929 and was termed many times as "the best friend of athletics."

He was largely responsible for persuading the Bulldogs of Yale to make their first trip south of the Mason-Dixon line to play the dedication game of Sanford Stadium in 1929. He died Sept. 15, 1945.

GAMEDAY TRAFFIC INFORMATION ■ AREA DIRECTIONS

No one likes to sit in traffic, but when more than 100,000 people descend upon the smallest county in Georgia on a Saturday, crowded roadways are inevitable. To ease the congestion, extra police and gameday staff work before and after games to assist the flow of traffic.

PREGAME TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

On gameday, some roads surrounding Athens — most notably SR 316 — become overcrowded because of the large number of vehicles headed to the game from the Atlanta-area. We want to remind you that there are many other ways to enter Athens, including US 129, US 29, US 441, SR 15 and US 78. While these routes may seem a few miles out of your way, they may save you significant time and less traffic congestion.

Once in Athens, we recommend you head toward East Campus, unless you have passes for other lots. The highest concentration of public parking on gameday is available on East Campus, surrounding the Ramsey Center off College Station Road. In addition, there are more than 1,500 overflow spaces at the intramural fields to help accommodate cars and make the postgame exit as simple and expedient as possible.

GAMEDAY PARKING

As football season approaches, you will notice a few changes to traffic patterns and parking on East Campus.

Due to repairs on the railroad trestle near East Campus Road, Williams Street remains closed to through vehicle traffic in that area. The Williams Street Lot (N12) is still accessible to local traffic from Oconee Street, as is Mitchell Street. Pedestrians and cyclists are still able to travel down Williams Street and safely cross under the trestle via designated covered paths.

For ticket-holders parking in the Railroad Lot (N08), we recommend traveling up Oconee Street and turning left (southbound) onto South Thomas Street. As this is not the regular traffic pattern for this intersection, Athens-Clarke County Police will be stationed there no later than 8 a.m. to direct traffic.

Parking for N08 will begin at the south end of the lot. Please note that, due to construction, there is no longer internal access for vehicles between the south and north ends of N08 (see map). Vehicle access to either end of the lot is only available via South Thomas Street (for the north end) or East Campus Road (for the south end). Pedestrians, however, can still walk internally between the two ends of the lot.

Once the south end of N08 is filled, you will only be able to access the north end from South Thomas Street. We recommend arriving early and preparing for an extended commute if you plan to park at the south end of N08. Police and parking attendants will be available at all open lots to direct traffic and answer questions.

This new traffic pattern will be in place all season. Parking availability and reserved parking should not be impacted.

COMPLIMENTARY SHUTTLE SERVICE

Complimentary shuttle from Ramsey Center/Rec Sports Complex to Gate 6 before and after games is available. UGA Campus Transit will again offer free shuttle service to fans on gameday from the East Campus Parking Deck/Ramsey Center bus area. If overflow parking is needed at the Intramural Fields, then shuttles also will pick up fans at the Intramural Fields parking area off College Station Road. Due to postgame traffic patterns, shuttles returning to the intramural fields after the game will unload at the intersection of East Campus Road and College Station Road.

Shuttles will run continuously for three and a half hours before the scheduled game time and will drop fans off at Gate 6 of Sanford Stadium until 15 minutes after kickoff. Keep in mind that the gates to Sanford Stadium do not open until two hours prior to the scheduled game time. Return service will run continuously for two hours after the game ends.

POSTGAME TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT

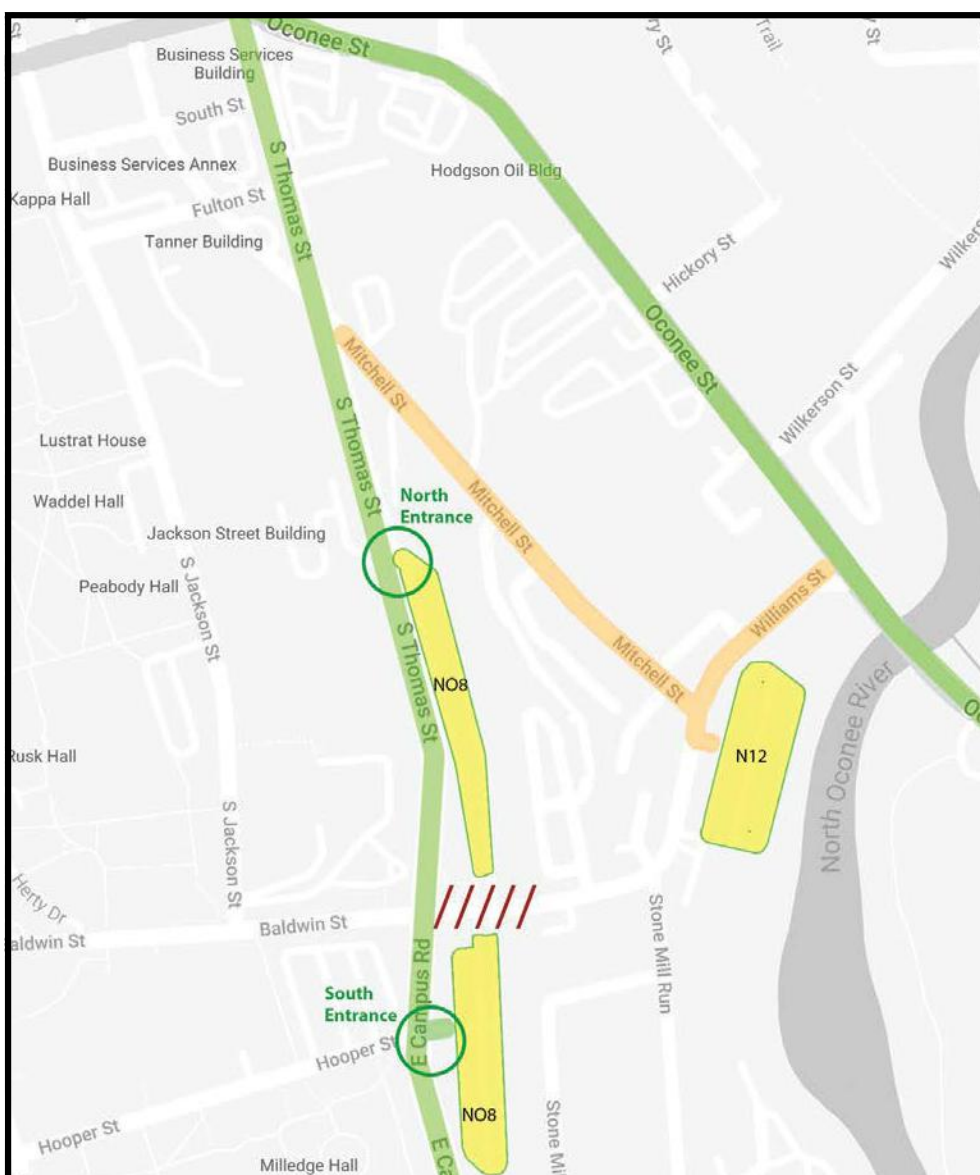

When planning your departure, keep in mind that vehicles that arrived on campus over the course of several hours will be trying to leave in a much shorter time. The large influx of vehicles on the roadway can quickly lead to traffic gridlock.

To alleviate this, the University of Georgia Police Department, the Athens-Clarke County Police Department and other local law enforcement agencies have produced a traffic plan that is implemented on gameday. The plan allows a large number of vehicles to move as efficiently as possible.

Please work with officers directing traffic to ensure that this plan runs smoothly.

Once the game ends, staff will direct cars to the Georgia 10 Loop, which circles Athens and provides the easiest access to all routes out of town. Staff may send you in a direction you are not used to going, but please don't turn around in the median. Remember, the Loop is a circle. Instead, follow the signs, and you will eventually get to your desired destination — probably faster than you think. When in doubt, stay patient, find the Loop and drive safely — we want to see you at the next home game!

GAMEDAY GAMEPLAN ■ WWW.GAMEDAY.UGA.EDU

Saturdays in Athens are an exciting time. More than 100,000 fans pour into Athens on gamedays, and it takes each of us doing our part to make the day successful.

To preserve the unique settings that make gamedays in Athens one of a kind, the University and the Athletic Association ask that fans adhere to the following guidelines to better preserve our campus and make gamedays a great day for everyone.

It is our hope that everyone will continue to enjoy an incredible gameday experience and a safe, family-friendly environment.

Your first stop as you plan for gamedays should be www.gameday.uga.edu. This site includes parking maps and all the details you need to plan for another exciting season of Georgia football. On these pages, you will find some key information to make your gameday safe and enjoyable.

SET UP AFTER 7 A.M.

The campus is a “neighborhood” for UGA students. No one wants to wake up at the crack of dawn on a Saturday to a party at his or her front door. For this reason, fans are allowed to arrive early on campus and park in open parking lots in advance of games as long as they do not begin creating noise or setting up tailgate equipment prior to 7 a.m. Gameday begins no earlier than 7 a.m. Saturday morning. Prior to that, a quiet environment must be preserved for students who call campus home.

PARK IN AN APPROVED SPACE

We’ve all seen it — one car, surrounded by a grill, seven chairs and three coolers, filling four parking spaces while you drive in circles. This type of parking forces others farther away from the stadium. Additional parking hazards are created when cars are parked on sidewalks or landscaped areas, pushing fans into the street and creating safety issues and traffic jams.

Rest assured, there are enough spaces for everyone on campus for gameday. All public access parking on campus is first come, first served, which means no saving places for friends.

Please visit www.gameday.uga.edu for campus parking maps.

BRING TRASH BAGS

Following games, students and local residents are left to face the aftermath of the previous day’s festivities. On an average gameday, more than 39 tons of garbage are collected from the campus. That number can swell to more than 100 tons after a night game! Many fans leave town after the game unaware of the effort involved in restoring the campus and community to its picturesque state.

To help control this, there are hundreds of trash receptacles placed in heavy-traffic areas around the campus. We ask that you please bag your trash and either take it with you or leave it at your tailgating area. The UGA clean-up crew will gladly remove it for you. Placing trash in bags makes the postgame cleanup faster and more effective.

DON'T FORGET A POWER SOURCE

Pregame festivities have become increasingly high-tech in recent years. Televisions, satellite dishes and sound systems are now common sights in the midst of parked cars, lounge chairs and grills.

Fans who want to watch television or use any other entertainment devices must provide their own power and video sources.

ENJOY THE GAMEDAY ATMOSPHERE

A UGA football Saturday should be safe and fun, even for fans who never set foot in Sanford Stadium. Portable toilets are placed all around campus, alleviating long lines and making the day more comfortable for all.

In addition, permanent restrooms are available at multiple buildings on campus — Tate Center, Student Learning Center, Georgia Center and East Village Commons. We have also added a designated area for corporate tailgates, allowing more space in traditional areas for regular fans.

Rest assured, legal and responsible consumption of alcohol will not be affected by these regulations, so be smart and enjoy the day.

NOTE: For safety reasons, certain items are not allowed on campus during gamedays, including:

- Propane tanks or cylinder containing compressed gas are not allowed for any purpose (turkey fryers, low country boils, grills, or portable heaters). This regulation does not apply to grills using disposable propane canisters of 17 ounces or less.
- Grills inside of or on top of parking decks.
- Golf carts and ATVs.

Additional restrictions for North Campus are in place to reduce physical damage to grounds and mitigate behavioral concerns. North Campus is defined as the area bounded by Broad Street, Lumpkin Street, Baldwin Street and Jackson Street (including, but not limited to, the quadrangle between Broad Street and Old College, the quadrangle between Old College and the Main Library, and Herty Field).

- Tailgating on North Campus is allowed beginning five (5) hours before kickoff.
- Tables cannot exceed six feet.
- Tents are allowed.

GAMEDAY GAMEPLAN ■ WWW.GAMEDAY.UGA.EDU

The following items are not allowed on North Campus on gamedays:

- Kegs
- Generators
- Televisions
- Amplified music
- Grills or cookers of any type
- Household furniture

MAGILL SOCIETY

The Magill Society is the leadership philanthropic giving arm of The Georgia Bulldog Club. Contributions to the Magill Society help put the necessary resources in place to build world-class athletic facilities, endow scholarships, and fund life changing programs for coaches and student-athletes in our 21 varsity sports. Magill Society contributions are above and beyond contributions to the Hartman Fund and other annual priority seating funds.

Prior to 2022, Magill Society contributions focused solely on funding UGA Athletics facility improvements. In the ever changing landscape of college athletics, The Georgia Bulldog Club will now prioritize donations to “People, Places, and Programs” by counting all major gifts of $25k or more to a qualified UGA Athletics philanthropic fund towards Magill Society membership. Whether a gift to capital project improvements, scholarship endowments, or programmatic funds, all major gifts at this level and above to the UGA Foundation that benefit UGA Athletics will qualify a donor for five years of membership.

A donor who contributes $25,000 or more to the Magill Society alone would not be eligible to purchase season tickets. A qualifying Annual Fund contribution grants a donor the right to purchase season tickets.

UGA ■ THE MASCOT LEGACYUga I*Uga II*Uga III*Uga IV*Uga V

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Georgia, since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956. Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position in which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pittsburgh Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year. For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

Uga I (1956-66) RECORD: 53-48-6

The Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood's Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus, Georgia. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by friend, Frank Heard, and appeared in his first game during the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, "... his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia ... There is no telling how many of these jerseys he wore out."

Epitaph: Damn Good Dog

Uga II (1966-72) RECORD: 42-16-3

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan's Uga, at a 1966 pregame Homecoming ceremony. With the Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to its center by Charles Seiler. The student body erupted in a cheer, "Damn Good Dog!" Uga II had an impressive reign as Georgia participated in five bowl games and won two SEC championships.

Epitaph: Not Bad for A Dog

Uga III (1972-80) RECORD: 71-32-2

Born Oct. 9, 1972, Seiler's Uga III was present for Georgia football's finest moment as Herschel Walker took the Bulldogs to the 1980 national championship. Uga III led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. He retired on the 105th football game of his career, marking the season-opener of the 1981 season.

He died just weeks later.

Epitaph: How 'Bout This Dawg

Uga IV (1981-89) RECORD: 77-27-4

Uga IV was the most active of all Georgia mascots, standing as the only one to attend a bowl game every year of his service. He took over for Uga III in 1981. The highlight of his career was his appearance at the Heisman Trophy Banquet with Herschel Walker in 1982. He donned his game jersey and added the formal touch of a collar and black tie. Uga IV was the first mascot invited to the Heisman Banquet. Declared "Dog of the Decade" by Vince Dooley, he was posthumously awarded the highest UGA mascot honor, the varsity letter.

Epitaph: The Dog of the Decade

Uga V (1990-99) RECORD: 65-39-1

Uga V began his reign after his father's death in February. Uga V was the last pup sired by Uga IV and was born March 6, 1990. He was named in honor of Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations, longtime tennis coach and SID.

Uga V was known by his appearance on the cover of the April 1997 Sports Illustrated declaring him the "nation's best college mascot." He presided over Georgia's most successful collective sports effort as it claimed four NCAA team titles during 1998-99 (gymnastics, women's swimming & diving, men's tennis, men's golf), placing second in the Directors' Cup race. He died just months after his retirement on Nov. 22, 1999.

Epitaph: "Nation's Best College Mascot" — Sports Illustrated

Uga VI (1999-2008) RECORD: 87-27

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stood as the biggest of all Uga mascots weighing 65 pounds, 20 pounds heavier than his father. In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV for the most wins of any bulldog in school history. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after reigning over more games than any mascot with 114.

He died June 27, 2008.

Epitaph: A Big Dog For A Big Job, And He Handled It Well

Uga VII (2008-09) RECORD: 16-7

Uga VII was introduced on Aug. 30, 2008. "Loran's Best" officially became Uga VII, prior to the Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Seiler family.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly Nov. 19 of heart-related causes, before the final home game of 2009. A wreath was placed on his doghouse, and players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him during that final home game. "Russ," his 5-year-old half brother, served as mascot for the final two games of the season.

Epitaph: Gone Too Soon

Uga VIII (2010) RECORD: 4-2

Born Sept. 12, 2009, Uga VIII was the grandson of Uga VI, named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the UGA School of Veterinary Medicine. Uga VIII was introduced at the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt and served six games before becoming ill. He was diagnosed on Jan. 7, 2011 with lymphoma, passing away in his sleep on Feb. 4, 2011.

Epitaph: He Never Had A Chance

Uga IX (2012-15) RECORD: 44-19

Uga IX, formerly "Russ," the half-brother of Uga VII, served as an interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot has included the 2011 and 2012 SEC Eastern Division championships, three road wins at Georgia Tech and a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, Louisiana. He completed 2012 with a 12-2 record and a win over Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl and finished 2013 with an 8-5 overall record and 2014 at 10-3.

Uga X (2015-PRESENT) RECORD: 76-18

Uga IX officially retired as the Bulldogs' mascot at the end of the 2014 season. After a three-month "audition" in that role, his grandson "Que" was formally crowned as his successor in a collaring ceremony prior to the Georgia-Georgia Southern game on Nov. 21, 2015. Que assumed the title of Uga X at the age of 2 1/2 years. During his audition, he made appearances at the Countdown to Kickoff event in July 2015, as well as Picture Day in August, before presiding over the entirety of the 2015 football season. Que capped his inaugural season by leading the team to a 24-17 victory over Penn State at the 2016 Taxslayer Bowl.

In the 2021 season, Que reached heights attained by just one of his ancestors, UGA III, when Georgia won the 2022 CFP National Championship Game.

FIGHT SONGS ■ CHEER ON THE BULLDOGS

GLORY

Glory, glory to old Georgia!
 Glory, glory to old Georgia!
 Glory, glory to old Georgia!
 G-E-O-R-G-I-A.
 Glory, glory to old Georgia!
 Glory, glory to old Georgia!
 Glory, glory to old Georgia!
 G-E-O-R-G-I-A.

BULLDOG MARCHING SONG

Georgia! Georgia! Hear the Bulldog growl!
 Scrapping, snapping, listen to him howl!
 Here he comes a running to the field,
 Georgia's team is never going to yield.
 Win or lose, the other fellow knows
 Georgia fights until the whistle blows.
 Red and Black wave on for Georgia's Varsity
 And Georgia's victory!

HAIL TO GEORGIA

Hail to Georgia, down in Dixie!
 A college honor'd fair, and true;
 The Red and Black is her standard,
 proudly it waves.
 Streaming today and the ages through.
 She's the fairest in the Southland
 We'll pledge our love to her for aye;
 To that college dear we'll ring a cheer,
 All hail to dear old U-G-A!

Hail, our Varsity of Georgia!
 Thy sons will e'er thy glory sing;
 To thee we'll ever be faithful, loyal and true;
 Ever and aye will thy praises ring.
 Grand old time of ours at Georgia
 The happiest days they'll be always;
 Alma mater, fair beyond compare,
 All hail to dear old U-G-A!

GOING BACK

Going back, going back
 Going back to Athens town.
 Going back, going back
 To the best old place around.
 Going back, going back
 To hear that grand old sound
 Of a chapel bell and a Georgia yell,
 Going back to Athens town.

ALMA MATER

From the hills of Georgia's northland
 Beams thy noble brow,
 And the sons of Georgia rising
 Pledge with sacred vow.

Beneath the pine tree's stately shadow
 Spread thy riches rare,
 And thy sons, dear Alma Mater,
 Will thy treasure share.

And thy daughters proudly join thee,
 Take their rightful place,
 Side by side into the future,
 Equal dreams embrace.

Through the ages, Alma Mater,
 Men will look to thee;
 Thou the fairest of the Southland
 Georgia's Varsity.

Chorus:
 Alma Mater, thee we'll honor,
 True and loyal be,
 Ever crowned with praise and glory,
 Georgia, hail to thee.
