RECAPPING UGA'S WIN OVER NO. 11 OREGON

BULLDOGS OPEN 2022 CAMPAIGN WITH SUCCESSFUL DUCK HUNT

Bulldog historians recall when Georgia was coming off the 1980 national championship, Georgia opened the 1981 season by playing host to Tennessee. The media often use the phrase "defending national champions." Coaches don't see it that way because every year and every team is different. Still, the media and fans want to see how the latest version compares to the greatness of a year ago. The 1981 Bulldogs blanked the Volunteers 44-0, went on to claim a Southeastern Conference Championship and finished 10-2. Fast forward to 2022.

Who predicted third-ranked Georgia trouncing No. 11 Oregon 49-3?

The 2022 Bulldogs delivered an emphatic message with their opening game performance. Despite a record 15 players getting selected in the NFL draft, including five defenders in the first round, Georgia will be in the hunt for more hardware in 2022.

The offense scored touchdowns on its first seven possessions, and the defense held the Ducks to a field goal. It was the first time Oregon failed to score a touchdown in a game since November 4, 2017, at Washington. Last Saturday, Georgia's defense provided a goal line stand on the Ducks final possession. Oregon put together a 19 play, 87-yard drive, chewing up eight minutes and 47 seconds only to be denied at the Georgia two yard line.

So what? Now what?

The regular season continues Saturday. Georgia prepares for the Samford Bulldogs. Samford will arrive to Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium feeling good. After all, they are 1-0 after upsetting No. 8 Kennesaw State No. 27-17 on Sept. 1. Samford is part of the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). They are led by Chris Hatcher, and by game time, plenty of stories should be written about the man who gave Kirby Smart his first coaching job at Valdosta State. Smart served as the defensive backs coach, the defensive coordinator was Will Muschamp, and well, the rest as the say, is history.

NOTABLES FROM GEORGIA'S WIN OVER NO. 11 OREGON

*Third-ranked Georgia improved to 99-27-3 in season openers including winning its last nine dating back to 2014. In the Kirby Smart era, Georgia is now 7-0 in season openers.

*The 49 points was the most in a season opener under Smart, and the most since 2015 (51-14 over La.-Monroe in Athens). Also, it marked the second straight opener when the Bulldogs held their ranked opponent to only three points (No. 3 Clemson in Charlotte, N.C.).

*Freshman Malaki Starks notched his first career interception (snagging it while falling backwards at the UGA8) and finished with a team-best eight tackles. It led to a 92-yard touchdown drive and a 14-0 advantage. Senior Christopher Smith snagged his fourth career interception, and he returned this one for 22 yards to the UGA 44. It led to a TD and a 21-0 lead. Georgia registered 16 INTs last year.

Senior QB Stetson Bennett finished 25-for-31 with a career-high 368 yards, 2 TDs plus one rushing TD) in three-plus quarters while improving to 15-3 as a starter. The Bulldogs racked up 571 yards of total offense on 62 plays. He concluded his seventh and final scoring drive with 5:20 left in the third quarter to put the Bulldogs in front 42-3. For the game, the Bulldogs were 8-for-8 on 3rd down with him at the helm.

Georgia limited the No. 11 Ducks to three points including a goal line stand with less than two minutes left in the contest. It was the first time Oregon failed to score a touchdown in a game since 2017.
