INSIDE GEORGIA FOOTBALL

WITH LORAN SMITH

LORAN SMITH

The criteria for playing the Georgia-Florida game in Jacksonville today is that it has become a college football tradition, which has national implications — nothing akin to the reason it became entrenched in the first place.

After moving around several places from Augusta to Macon to Savannah (in addition to Gainesville, Tampa and Athens), it settled in permanently in Jacksonville in 1933. Football survived the Depression, but by the hardest. In the '30s, any measure that saved a buck or enhanced one was eagerly embraced.

Jacksonville had a much bigger population base than Gainesville and Athens which was an attraction, but the key to the success of the game was that so many Georgia alumni who found the distance to Athens a sometimes issue, became attached to the Georgia-Florida game as the one time a year they could see the Bulldogs play.

Jacksonville was much nearer Valdosta, Waycross, Brunswick and towns in between than Athens. With the passing of time, Georgia fans took fulfilling pleasure in making the game a fall vacation — the substantial alumni to Sea Island and Ponte Vedra and others to St. Simons Island, Jekyll Island and Jacksonville Beach. With a little enterprise you could find your niche, which was compatible with your checkbook.

Georgia students, dating back to the '50s, have always connected emotionally with this game and the fun and sun of Jacksonville and its environs. I can remember how eager the student body was in the late '50s and early '60s to leave Athens on Thursday afternoon and caravan down Georgia Highway 15 to Jacksonville. The long drive home was emotionally ameliorated when the Bulldogs became the victors in the old Gator Bowl.

Going to the beach in November was a treat for Georgia partisans who enjoyed the welcoming and balmy feel of Jacksonville. There has always been a blue collar/upper scale element in this North Florida city. There is something for everyone's taste. The seafood fare has always been attractive. You can find down home cooking in the city, but if you want to enjoy fine wine and oysters Rockefeller, Ponte Vedra has always been able to flatten your billfold.

The Georgia team had a "run of show" at the Inn at Ponte Vedra for years, practicing on the golf course, causing traffic to slow down to a standstill as people gawked at the Friday afternoon sweat suit drills.

In the old days, Jacksonville was an extension of South Georgia, which disclosed that there were many Bulldog aficionados to welcome Red and Black fans to town.

Georgia fans can thank Joel Eaves, athletic director from November 1963 to June 1979 for putting the game on even footing. If it were a neutral site game, his reasoning was that Georgia would not only get half the tickets in the stadium, it also was allocated half of the "good" tickets.

Before the Eaves' era there was an imbalance. Wasn't Florida's fault — the Gators simply were exploiting opportunity. Geography influenced greater demand for tickets for Florida, but there was a defining factor in the rivalry. The Gators were up and the Bulldogs down. That didn't matter to Eaves, who was aware that a lot of Gator fans, shut out at the ticket window in Gainesville, called Athens and purchased tickets.

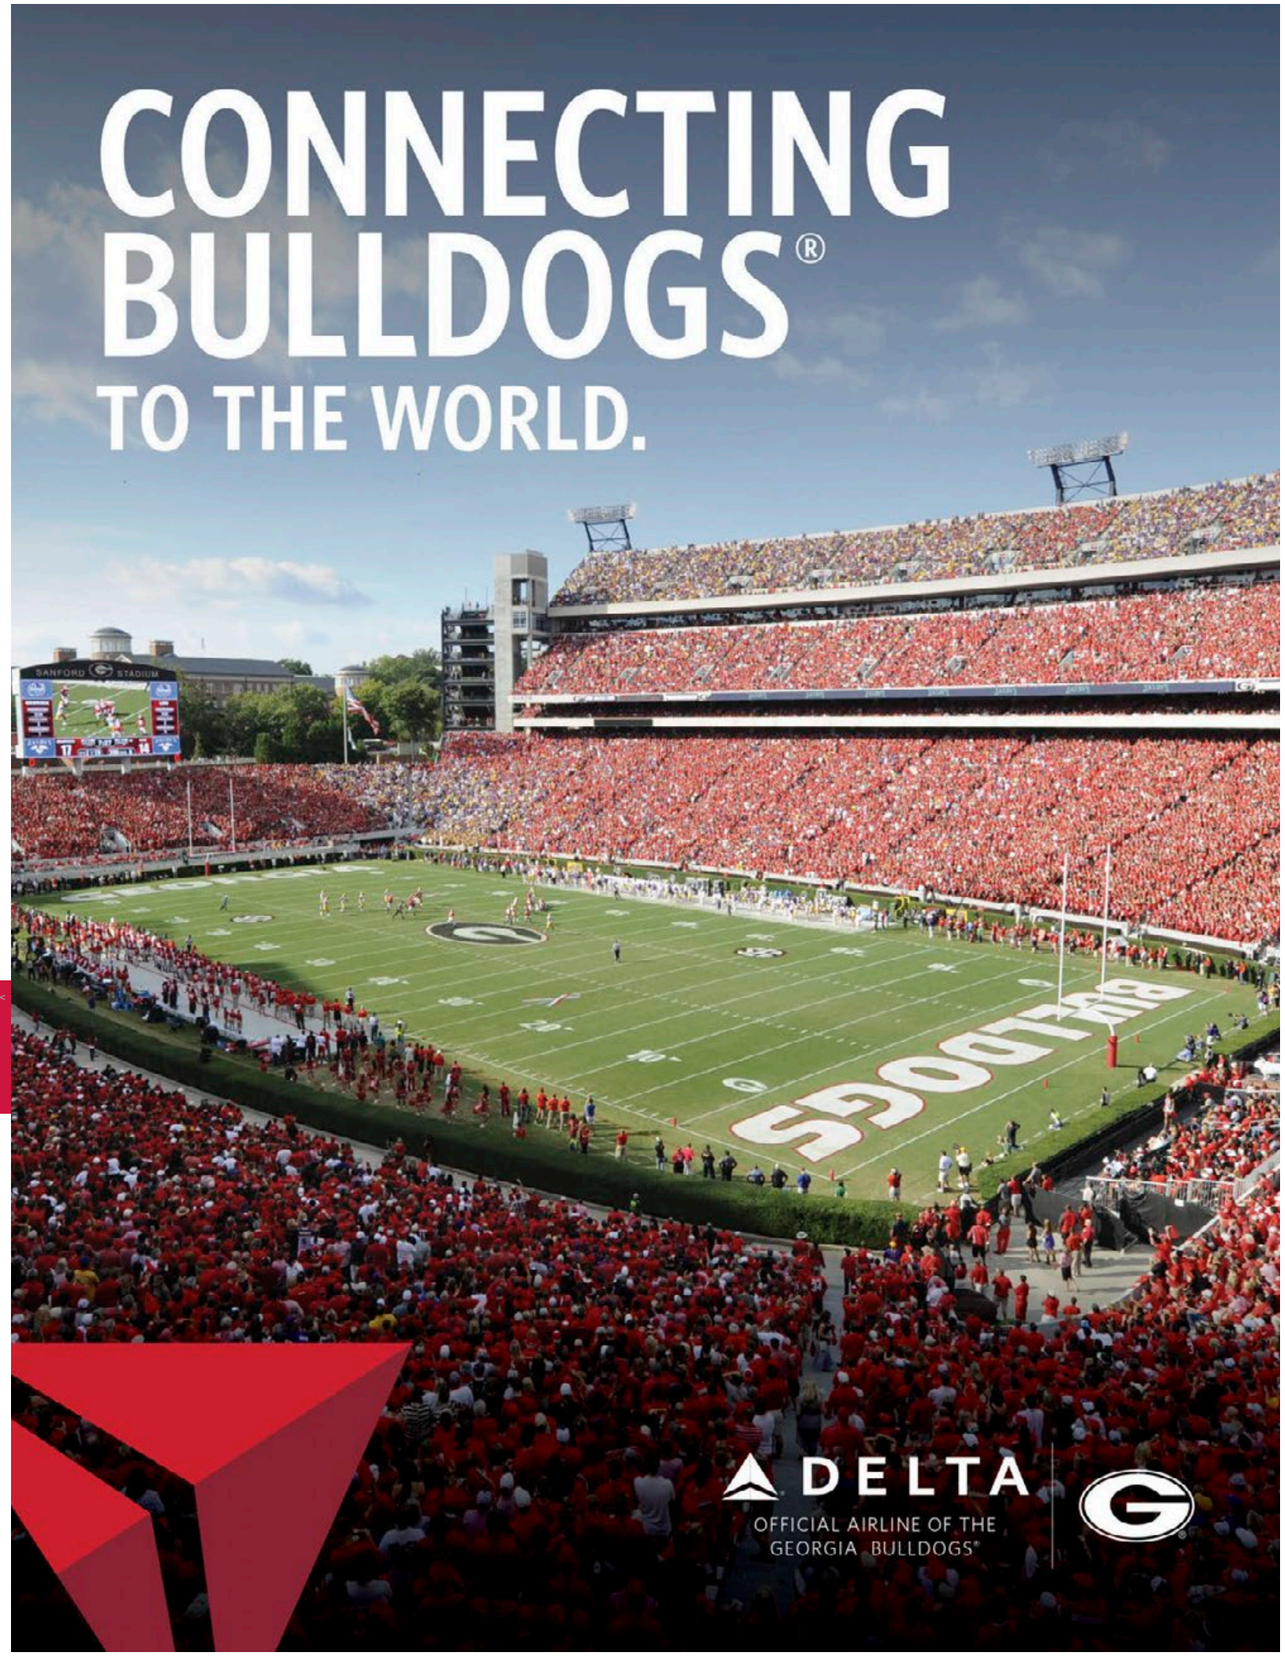

A big change was about to come about. Vince Dooley and his teams would dominate the rivalry. It began Dooley's first year when Bobby Etter, the diminutive place kicker picked up a fumbled snap and (with his shoestring-tied-up behind his heel on his kicking foot), hobbled into the end zone for a 14-7 victory. Dooley would go on to win 17 games in 25 years. There was one tie.

The pendulum would swing back in the Gators' favor in Steve Spurrier's time in Gainesville, but Georgia holds the all-time lead in the series 51-43-2. There have been some great games in the series with network television giving this game the highest priority through the years.

Since 2000 when CBS became affiliated with the SEC, the network has annually chosen this game, in the pre-season, as one of its top games for the fall.

With the exception of 1994-95 when the Gator Bowl underwent renovations and the game moved on campus, the Georgia-Florida contest has been played in Jacksonville. In 2017, SONY MICHEL and the Bulldogs cruised to a 42-7 victory.

TODAY'S GAME: FLORIDA

AN SEC EASTERN DIVISION SHOWDOWN

Once again Georgia and Florida meet with huge implications in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division race. Both teams enter with 6-1 overall records and 4-1 in league play. In the all-time series with Florida, Georgia holds a 51-43-2 advantage including 44-41-1 in Jacksonville. Florida has the series 50-43-2 in favor of Georgia because it does not count the Bulldogs 52-0 victory in 1904 that was played in Macon.

Before last year's Georgia victory, Florida had won three in a row after the Bulldogs enjoyed a three-game winning streak from 2011-13. Current Bulldog coach Kirby Smart is 1-1 against Florida while Gators coach Dan Mullen is in his first season at Florida. The last time the teams met when both were ranked came in 2012, and the No. 12 Bulldogs upset No. 3 Florida 17-9.

2017 SERIES FLASHBACK: NO. 3 GEORGIA 42, FLORIDA 7

Third-ranked Georgia overwhelmed Florida in the annual showdown in Jacksonville in front of a crowd of 84,107. The Bulldogs built a 21-0 lead by halftime and nearly posted a shutout of the Gators. Florida scored its lone touchdown with less than three minutes remaining in the contest. Georgia's 35-point margin of victory was its largest in the series since 1982. The Bulldogs improved to 8-0 overall for the first time since 2002 while the Gators dropped to 3-4 for the first time since 1986. Bulldog senior Sony Michel led the rushing attack with 137 yards on only six carries. He had touchdown runs covering 45 and 74 yards as the Bulldogs tallied 292 yards on the ground. Georgia's offense ran only 42 plays, and the defense accounted for one touchdown compliments of J.R. Reed's three-yard fumble recovery.

BOTH TEAMS COMING OFF OPEN DATE

This is only the seventh time in the series when both teams have had a bye before the game in Jacksonville. The first came in 2011 and Georgia is 3-3 against the Gators following a bye week. This marks the 26th time in the series that the Gators have had an open date before the matchup. Florida is 18-7 against the Bulldogs after an open date. Georgia is 6-6 following a bye week when it has had two weeks to prepare for the Gators. In their last action, the Bulldogs were upset by No. 12 LSU 36-16 in Baton Rouge while Florida rallied past Vanderbilt 37-27 in Nashville.

GEORGIA–FLORIDA HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2018

On Friday, Oct. 26, the latest class is set for induction into the Georgia-Florida Hall of Fame presented by Ruth's Chris as part of the Georgia-Florida Weekend. Georgia linebacker Boss Bailey and quarterback Aaron Murray along with Florida defensive end Alex Brown and wide receiver Percy Harvin will be inducted during the 23rd annual luncheon at TIAA Bank Field. For more on this year's class, turn to page 14 or visit www.GAFLjax.com.

TEAM U.G.A. AWARDS

The University of Georgia Athletic Association is looking for nominations for the seventh annual Team U.G.A. (Unselfish Giving Attitude) Awards. The awards honor those in the Bulldog Nation who have made significant impacts on their communities.

Georgia Power, in partnership with IMG College, is serving as the presenting sponsor.

While there are no specific criteria for an Unselfish Giving Attitude Award, Team U.G.A. nominees should embody selflessness and true motivation to not only help make their communities better, but also to promote change that impacts people in those communities. One team U.G.A. member will be recognized in an on-field ceremony at a home football game this season along with a video feature on georgiadogs.com. The winner will also receive four game tickets to the game in which they are honored.

A total of seven winners will be honored during the 2018 season. For more information, and to nominate someone in your community that exhibits an Unselfish Giving Attitude, visit georgiadogs.com.

(Above): At the VU game, the Georgia gymnastics team served as the Team U.G.A. recipient. The Georgia Way 2017 Bulldog Cup Award began by the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee in 2010.

It recognizes the team that excels academically, supports their peers in athletic competition and serves the community.

The gymnastics team received the 2017 Bulldog Cup Award.

HEAD COACH DAN MULLEN

Dan Mullen was named head coach in November 2017. He is the 27th head coach in Florida football history.

Mullen, who spent the past nine seasons as Mississippi State's head coach (2009-17), returns to Gainesville where he served four seasons (2005-08) as offensive coordinator and helped the Gators win two SEC and BCS National Titles.

Mullen was honored in 2014 as the national college football coach of the year by the Maxwell Football Club. He also won honors as the SEC Coach of the Year that season. His tenure at MSU saw the program ascend to a No. 1 ranking during regular season polls and he oversaw participation in a school-record eight consecutive bowl games.

Player development has been a key to Mullen's coaching career successes. Twenty-two State players were chosen in the NFL Draft under Mullen. Dak Prescott became the highest drafted MSU quarterback in modern NFL Draft history, going in the 2016 fourth round to the Dallas Cowboys.

DAN MULLEN

On Dec. 10, 2008, Mullen became the 32nd head coach in MSU history as he took over a program that posted a 32-65 record in the eight years prior to his arrival. Mullen (69-46, .600) finished the 2017 season second in Bulldog history in all-time wins. In addition, his .600 winning percentage ranked second in MSU annals among those who have coached six or more years.

Mullen was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Florida for four seasons prior to MSU. In 2007, Mullen helped coach sophomore quarterback Tim Tebow into a Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Davey O'Brien award winner, the 78th Sullivan Award winner and AP First-Team All-American among other honors.

Mullen played an integral role in Florida's 2006 national championship, overseeing an offense that averaged 29.7 points and 396.1 yards per game. The 2006 Gator offense posted 76 plays of 20 yards or more, 19 of which went for touchdowns.

Mullen came to Florida from Utah in 2003 with head coach Urban Meyer, with whom he had spent 10 seasons. While the quarterbacks coach at Utah, he helped develop Alex Smith, who eventually became the first overall selection in the 2005 NFL Draft.

Mullen's coaching career also includes early stops at Bowling Green, Notre Dame and Syracuse.

Mullen was born April 27, 1972, in Manchester, New Hampshire. He earned a bachelor's degree in Exercise and Sport Science from Ursinus College in 1994 and a master's in Education from Wagner College in 1996. A two-year starter at tight end for Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pennsylvania, Mullen earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior.

He is married to the former Megan West, and the couple has two children, son Canon (8) and daughter Breelyn (5).

DID YOU KNOW?

- In year one of the Dan Mullen era, the Gators returned to the top 15 of the national rankings following their 27-19 upset of No. 5 LSU on Oct. 6 in Gainesville. A week earlier, Florida knocked off No. 23 Mississippi State 13-6 in Starkville, Mississippi. In those two wins, Florida's defense registered 11 sacks and 19 tackles for loss.
- Junior defensive back Chauncey Gardner-Johnson, who entered this season with 6.5 career tackles for loss, is one of four players with at least six tackles for loss this year. No SEC team has more than two such players. In fact, the Gators tallied 11 tackles for loss in the win over LSU.
- Through its first six games, Florida had scored 50 points off turnovers. Last year, they scored only 44 points off turnovers. This year's squad ranks among the national leaders in takeaways at +9.
- Redshirt sophomore quarterback Feleipe Franks already has thrown for more touchdown passes this season after tossing just nine in 11 games in 2017. Through seven games, he has 15, which is the most by a Gator since Tim Tebow finished the 2009 season with 21.

MURRAY, BAILEY ENTER UGA–UF HALL OF FAME

CLASS OF 2018

Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray and linebacker Boss Bailey will join Florida defensive end Alex Brown and wide receiver Percy Harvin as the latest star-studded class set for induction into the 2018 Georgia-Florida Hall of Fame.

The induction ceremony and luncheon presented by Ruth's Chris Steakhouse is set for Friday, Oct. 26 at TIAA Bank Field as part of the Georgia-Florida Weekend.

"For decades, the Georgia-Florida game has brought our community together unlike any other event," said Mayor Lenny Curry. "The legendary rivalry, spirit and tradition the game generates each year are driven by these two prestigious schools, their loyal fans, and some of the most talented student-athletes and coaches ever to take the field. It is an honor to recognize this year's Georgia-Florida Hall of Fame inductees."

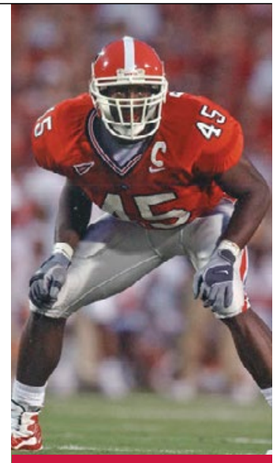

One of the greatest quarterbacks in the history of the SEC, Aaron Murray set numerous records during his career at Georgia that spanned from 2010-13. Murray set 27 Georgia records, including twelve career, nine season and six game records including three in a bowl. The Tampa, Florida, native also established four SEC records during his four seasons at UGA. He finished with 13,562 yards of total offense (13th in the overall NCAA record books at the time), 13,166 yards passing (10th overall in the NCAA record books at the time), 121 touchdown passes (tied for sixth in the NCAA record books at the time) and 921 completions. In addition, Murray became the first player in SEC history to have at least 3,000 yards passing in four consecutive seasons. He also finished his career with a 3-1 record as a starter in the Georgia-Florida game.

As a linebacker at the University of Georgia from 1998 to 2002, Boss Bailey helped lead Georgia to victories in three post-season bowl games and win the 2002 SEC Championship. Bailey was part of the 2002 Bulldog defense that finished first in the SEC and fourth nationally in scoring defense while leading the Dawgs to a 13-1 record, the SEC and Sugar Bowl championships. He led the team in tackles with 114, in addition to six quarterback sacks and 9.5 tackles for loss. He was also named a First-Team All-American, All-SEC for the second time and a semi-finalist for the Butkus and the Lombardi Awards. Bailey was drafted 34th overall in the 2003 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions.

Created in 1995, the Georgia-Florida Hall of Fame honors and recognizes the memorable players, coaches, and administrators involved in the long-standing rivalry. Over the 23-year history of the Hall of Fame there have been 100 people inducted including legendary Gators Steve Spurrier, Danny Wuerffel, Tim Tebow and Jevon Kearse, as well as Bulldog legends Vince Dooley, Herschel Walker, David Pollack and Knowshon Moreno.

BAUERLE NOMINATED FOR COACH OF THE YEAR

USA SWIMMING GOLDEN GOGGLE NOMINEE

As University of Georgia Tom Cousins Swimming and Diving Head Coach Jack Bauerle enters his 40th season at the helm of the Bulldog program, the longest-tenured Georgia head coach was nominated for a Golden Goggle National Coach of the Year Award by USA Swimming.

Bauerle's pupil and former Bulldog Chase Kalisz is also nominated for Male Athlete of the Year and Male Race of the Year for his 200-meter individual medley victory at the 2018 Pan Pacific Championships, where he swam the fastest time in the world this year. The race was just one part of his pair of IM sweeps in Tokyo and in Irvine at the Phillips 66 Nationals.

The Golden Goggle Award nominations are based on the year's top accomplishments by U.S. swimmers, focusing primarily on August's 2018 Pan Pacific Championships, where the American team topped the medal count with 45 total. The final Golden Goggle Award will rely on a percentage of the fan vote. Online fan voting is open through Friday, Nov. 9. To complete the ballot, visit the following website: www.usaswimmingfoundation.org.

Bauerle guided five swimmers to the 2018 Pan Pacific Championships: Hali Flickinger, Chase Kalisz, Jay Litherland, Melanie Margalis and Olivia Smoliga. He also coached the group to four victories at 2018 Phillips 66 Nationals, where Flickinger shattered a 37-year record in the 200-meter butterfly. Eleven athletes coached by Bauerle at Georgia — both current and former — were also named to the U.S. National Team.

In addition to Bauerle's unmatched success at the University of Georgia, his resume includes coaching appointments for various Olympics — highlighted by the head coaching position for the 2008 Games — World Championships, Pan Pacific Championships, U.S. National Team Camps and several other international events.

In the Coach of the Year category alongside Bauerle are Cal's Dave Durden (men), UC San Diego's David Marsh, Cal's Teri McKeever (women), and Stanford's Greg Meehan.

The Lady Bulldogs opened their season at Arkansas with a win on Oct. 13. The home opener for both the men's and women's teams is on Oct. 26 against Florida.

KIRBY SMART

When Georgia looked for a new head football coach after the 2015 season, the arrows all pointed to Kirby Smart, a longtime University of Alabama defensive coordinator, a former Bulldog player and assistant coach. And after two years, he has not disappointed.

His impact, along with a stellar group of seniors, made his second season a special one with an 11-1 regular season record, a victory in the 2017 Southeastern Conference championship game, the defeat of Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (College Football Playoff semifinal) and the advancement into the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in what was the program's first appearance. In the SEC championship game, the 'Dawgs avenged their only regular-season loss with a 28-7 victory over Auburn. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black. With the win, Smart became the youngest coach to win the title in an SEC Championship Game appearance. Smart was named 2017 George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA.

In his first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia extended its school record to 20 straight bowl appearances and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 North Carolina. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Smart has also made an immediate impact in recruiting circles by posting the nation's third-ranked class in 2017, followed by the 2018 class of signees that ranked first nationally by every authority. In addition to his coaching duties, Smart oversees the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting and giving back to needy children and families facing adversity.

Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015. But he still had unfinished business at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled two jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a seven-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of nine head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma mater.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, the past seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC western division titles and was ranked in the nation's final top ten rankings the last eight years in a row.

A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart was one of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators. During his time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant coach. He was also a finalist for the 2015 Broyles Award.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at UGA (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach on Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. His unit averaged 162.2 rushing yards per game, third in the SEC. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware, and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, N.Y. Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a first team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks fifth in UGA annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997, five in '98. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season. Smart also scored two points as a collegian. He was the first player in UGA history — and one of just two Bulldogs since the rule was introduced in 1988 — to return a blocked PAT kick for two points, having brought one back 88 yards against New Mexico State in his freshman year of 1995.

The 2015 Alabama defense ranked first nationally in rushing defense, third in total defense, and third in scoring defense. His 2014 Alabama defense ranked, passing fourth nationally against the run. The Crimson Tide ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense, while ranking 12th nationally in total defense. He helped junior safety Landon Collins earn unanimous first-team All-America honors while being selected as a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Thorpe Award and Lott Trophy.

Smart crafted another elite Alabama defense in 2013 after losing six more players to the NFL. The Crimson Tide ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense while ranking fifth in total defense, seventh in rushing defense and 11th in pass defense. Alabama was fourth nationally in red zone defense and fourth in fewest first downs allowed. He helped mold C.J. Mosley into the nation's best linebacker and winner of the Butkus Award.

Smart retooled the Alabama defense in 2012, molding a unit that lost six starters to the NFL after the 2011 season. The Tide led the nation in total defense, scoring defense and rush defense while ranking seventh in pass defense and pass efficiency defense. The Tide defense featured two first-team All-Americans in cornerback Dee Milliner and linebacker Mosley.

Smart's rebuilding job in 2010 was impressive, as the Tide remained one of the nation's elite defensive units while replacing nine starters. Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in scoring defense and fifth in total defense.

The 2009 season was a special one for Smart, as he not only helped lead Alabama to the national championship but also took home the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country. The UA defense again was regarded as one of the nation's top units, leading the SEC and ranking second nationally in scoring defense pass efficiency defense, rush defense and total defense.

In the 2010 BCS National Championship game against Texas, the Tide recorded four interceptions and scored a defensive touchdown. Three players on Smart's defense earned first-team All-America honors — linebacker Rolando McClain, cornerback Javier Arenas and nose guard Terrence Cody.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his BBA degree in Finance from UGA in 1998 and his M.S. in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003. The Bainbridge, Georgia, native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Georgia. She was a four-year letterwinner, and two-year starter, on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-2003. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at UGA, when Lycett — then working in the UGAAA business office — helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are now the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (10) and son Andrew (6).

ASSISTANT COACHES

JIM CHANEY

Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends > Third Season (Central Missouri State '85)

Jim Chaney was named offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at Georgia in March of 2018 after two seasons coordinating the Bulldog offense and coaching quarterbacks.

Chaney was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and 9th nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), 3rd in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), 5th in Total Offense (435.3 ypg), and 4th nationally in Red Zone Offense (0.964).

In each of his first two seasons, Chaney has tutored a true freshman quarterback as the game day starter. Jacob Eason threw for 2,430 yards in 2016. After an Eason injury in the 2017 opener, Jake Fromm took over the Bulldog offense, threw for over 2,600 yards and led Georgia nearly to a national championship.

A 32-year coaching veteran in the SEC, Big Ten, ACC, and the NFL, Chaney served the 2015 season at Pitt after a two-year tenure at Arkansas (2013-14). He has also served as offensive coordinator at Tennessee (2009-12), Purdue (1997-2005), and Cal State Fullerton (1988-92).

Chaney and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Elizabeth (20) and Sara (16).

MEL TUCKER

Fain and Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs > Third Season (Wisconsin '95)

Mel Tucker was named Georgia's Fain and Billy Slaughter Defensive Coordinator and secondary coach on Jan. 12, 2016 after serving as assistant head coach and defensive backs coach at the University of Alabama.

Tucker was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's defense finished second in the SEC and 6th nationally in Scoring Defense (16.4 ppg), 2nd in the SEC and 6th nationally in Total Defense (294.9 ypg), and 2nd in the SEC in Rushing Defense.

In his first year at UGA, Tucker guided a Bulldog defense that ranked among the nation's top 20 units in the following categories: total defense, passing defense, turnovers gained, and first down defense.

Tucker joined the Crimson Tide staff in January, 2015, after serving seven years as an NFL defensive coordinator: two with the Chicago Bears (2013-14), four with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2009-12), and one with the Cleveland Browns (2008). Tucker was Jacksonville's interim head coach for the final five games of that season. He earned the additional title of assistant head coach with the Jaguars in 2012.

Tucker and his wife, Jo-Ellyn, have two sons, Joseph (16) and Christian (14).

ASSISTANT COACHES

JAMES COLEY

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks > Third Season (Florida State '97)

James Coley was named Co-Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach at Georgia in 2018 after two seasons coaching the Bulldogs' wide receivers.

Coley was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and 9th nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), 3rd in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), 5th in Total Offense (435.3 ypg), and 4th nationally in Red Zone Offense (0.964).

Coley's two seasons of coaching Bulldog receivers produced a pair of NFL draft picks: Isaiah McKenzie (Denver) and Javon Wims (Chicago).

Prior to coming to Georgia, Coley served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Miami from 2013-15. He held the position of offensive coordinator and tight ends coach at Florida State from 2010-12 and tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at FSU in 2008 and 2009. A native of Miami, he served as an offensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2005-06. His coaching resume also included a stop at 2003 national champion LSU where he served as a graduate assistant coach.

Coley and his wife, Kenia, have two children, Madison (10) and Brady (7).

SCOTT FOUNTAIN

Special Teams Coordinator > Second Season (Samford '98)

Scott Fountain, a native of East Brewton, Alabama, returns to the Georgia staff as an on-field assistant after serving as a special teams analyst for the 2017 season, and also for a short time in the off-season as special teams coordinator at Mississippi State.

Fountain contributed to the Bulldogs' return to prominence on special teams this past season. Rising junior Mecole Hardman averaged 25.3 yards per kick return, ranking No. 2 in the Southeastern Conference and No. 21 in the nation. Georgia's special teams unit also held opponents to 5.9 yards per punt return and 19.5 yards per kick return. Those numbers were all reduced from a year prior, as opponents averaged 6.1 yards per punt return, 23.8 yards per punt return and notched two 95-yard kickoff returns versus the Bulldogs in 2016.

Before joining Georgia's staff, Fountain had spent the previous eight years assisting the football program at Auburn, the first four as the Tigers' player personnel director and the latter four as an on-field assistant, coordinating special teams and coaching tight ends. Fountain has coaching experience in four national championship games (1997, 2010, 2013, 2017) since beginning his collegiate coaching career at Florida State.

Fountain and his wife, Rosie, have four sons, Brookes (25), Hunter (17), Tanner (16) and Skyler (7).

ASSISTANT COACHES

CORTEZ HANKTON

Wide Receivers > First Season (Texas Southern '02)

Former NFL wide receiver Cortez Hankton joined the Georgia coaching staff in February, 2018, after serving three years coaching wide receivers at Vanderbilt.

During his three seasons at Vanderbilt, Hankton coached veteran Commodore receivers C.J. Duncan and Trent Sherfield along with Caleb Scott and Kalija Lipscomb. In 2017, Duncan and Sherfield combined for 102 receptions, 1,246 yards and 10 touchdowns. Sherfield ended his career among the program's best in receptions (136) and 1,869 yards.

Prior to his tenure at Vanderbilt, Hankton coached receivers for three seasons at Dartmouth in the Ivy League (2012-14). During that time, he helped the Big Green to a 20-10 overall record, including an 8-2 mark in 2014.

Hankton's produced an All-Ivy caliber receiver all three years at Dartmouth. In 2012, senior Michael Reilly earned first-team recognition with Ryan McManus receiving honorable mention. In 2013, Big Green receiver Bo Patterson was an Ivy League honorable mention recipient.

A graduate of Texas Southern, Hankton played professional football for nine years including six seasons in the NFL for Jacksonville, Minnesota and Tampa Bay. Prior to joining the Dartmouth staff in 2012, Hankton spent time working as a volunteer assistant with the University of Central Florida.

Hankton and his wife, Shon, have one son, Cortez "Trip" (2).

DAN LANNING

Outside Linebackers > First Season (William Jewell College '08)

Dan Lanning was named an assistant coach at Georgia in January, 2018, after serving two years as inside linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Memphis.

Lanning joined the Memphis staff in 2016 after spending the 2015 season at Alabama as a graduate assistant coach with the outside linebackers. Prior to Alabama, Lanning held positions at Pittsburgh (2011), Arizona State (2012-13) and Sam Houston State (2014).

At Memphis, he was part of a staff that led the Tigers to their third 10-win season in school history and finished in the top five in the country in turnovers gained two years in a row. On that team, Lanning coached two-time first team All-American Athletic Conference linebacker Genard Avery.

At Alabama, Lanning was a member of the coaching staff that guided the Crimson Tide to a 14-1 record, the SEC Championship and the 2015 College Football Playoff (CFP) national title. Lanning worked with a Crimson Tide defense.

Lanning spent the 2014 campaign at Sam Houston State, where he helped guide the Bearkats to an 11-5 record, the Southland Conference crown and a Football Championship Series (FCS) playoffs appearance. He coached the defensive backs and served as the program's co-recruiting coordinator.

Lanning and his wife, Sauphia, have three sons, Caden (8), Kniles (7) and Titan (5).

ASSISTANT COACHES

DELL McGEE

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs > Third Season (Auburn '01)

Dell McGee was named Assistant Head Coach at Georgia in March of 2018 after two seasons as an assistant coach, overseeing running backs.

McGee was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC (9th nationally) in Rushing Offense, 3rd in Scoring Offense, 5th in Total Offense, and 2nd (4th nationally) in Red Zone Offense.

The 2017 campaign was a banner year for McGee. His two star pupils, Nick Chubb and Sony Michel, finished as the Nos. 2 & 3 career rushers in UGA history, amassing over 8,400 yards and 87 touchdowns. Additionally, Rivals.com named McGee the 2018 National Recruiter of the Year after the Bulldogs signed the consensus No. 1-rated recruiting class.

Just 10 days before he came to UGA, McGee had led Georgia Southern to victory in its first-ever bowl game (GoDaddy Bowl) as interim head coach.

McGee served as running backs coach at GSU in 2014-15, when the Eagles led the nation in rushing offense.

McGee and his wife, Linda, have a son, Austin (13).

SAM PITTMAN

Offensive Line > Third Season (Pittsburg State '86)

Sam Pittman was named offensive line coach at Georgia on Dec. 12, 2015, after serving three years at Arkansas as offensive line coach, associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

Pittman was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and 9th nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), 3rd in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), 5th in Total Offense (435.3 ypg), and 4th nationally in Red Zone Offense (0.964).

Pittman is widely regarded among the nation's best offensive line coaches and recruiters. Since 2013, nine offensive linemen coached by Pittman have been drafted, including three first-round picks, and three others have signed free agent contracts. Two of his charges in 2017 — senior Isaiah Wynn and freshman Andrew Thomas — earned All-America and All-SEC honors. Wynn was a first round NFL draft pick, taken 23rd overall by New England in 2018.

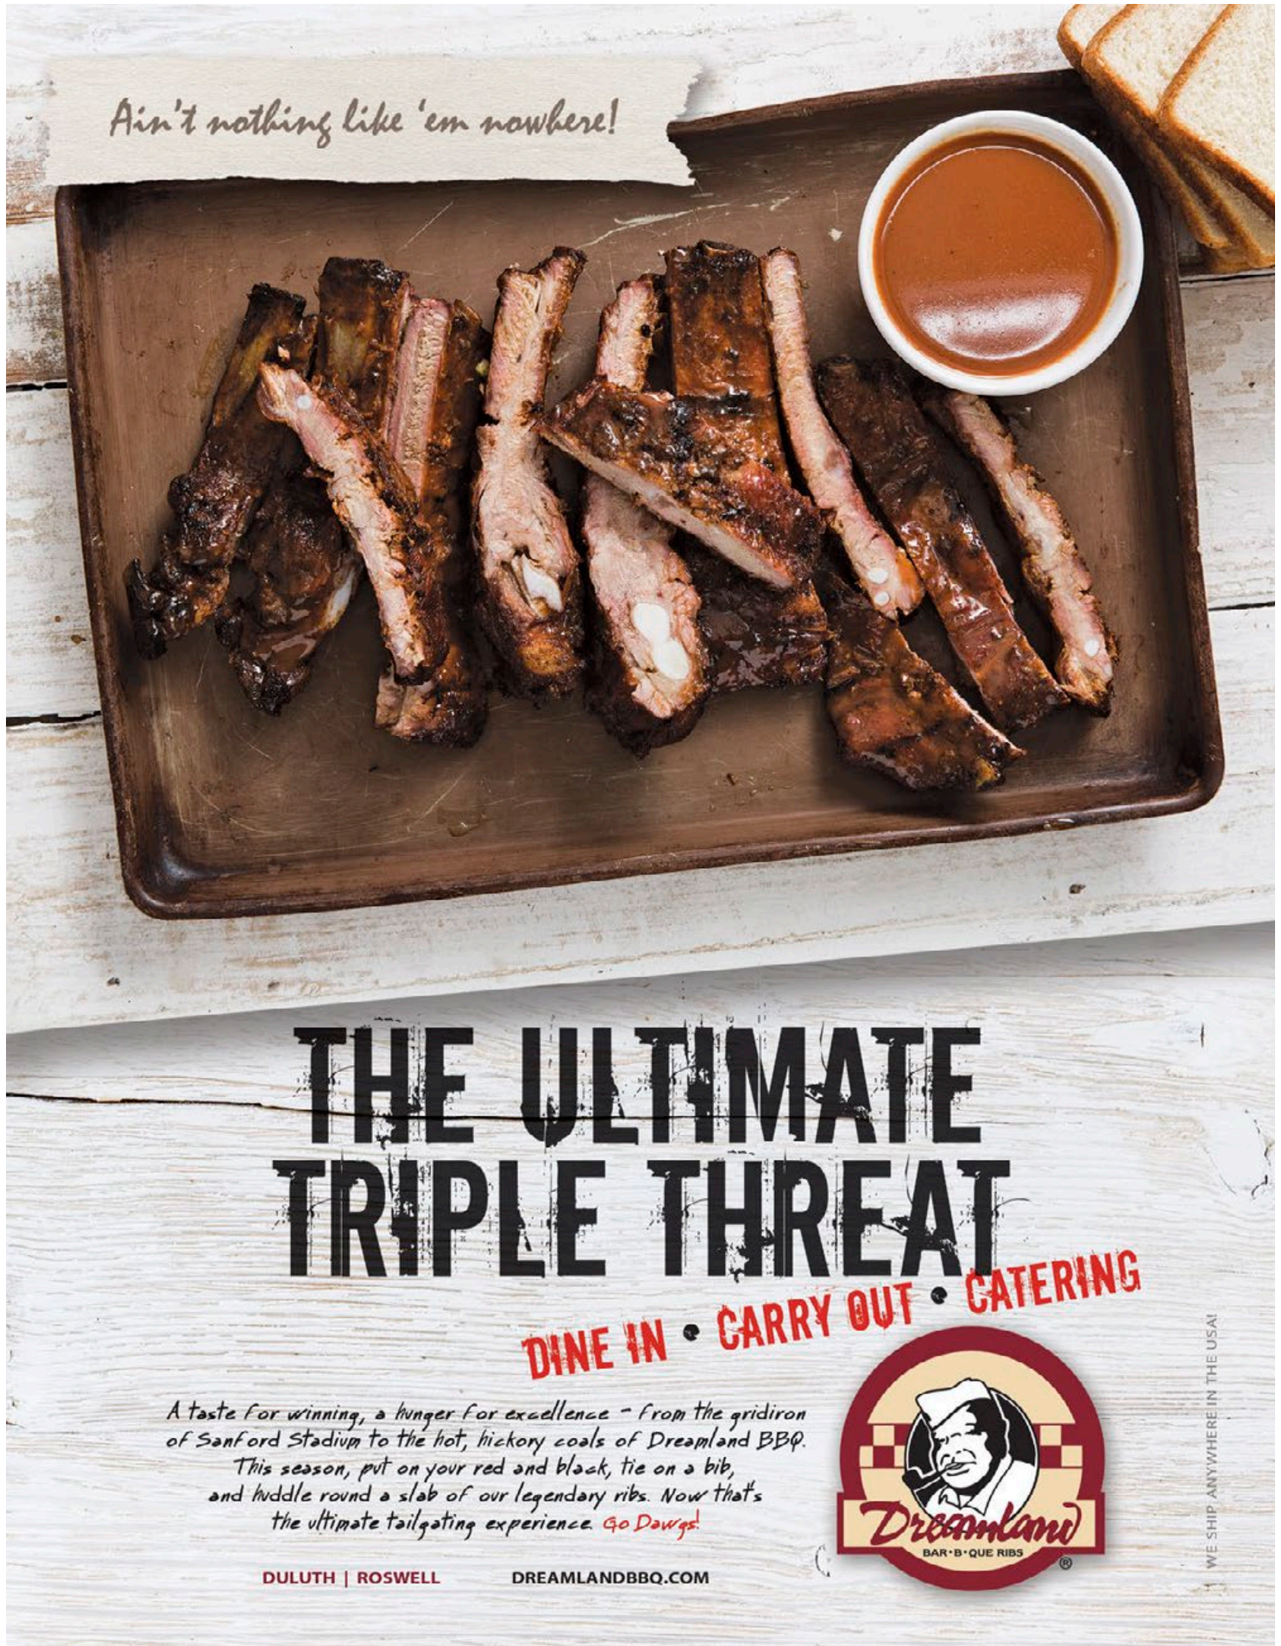

He and his wife, Jamie, live in Watkinsville.

GLENN SCHUMANN

Inside Linebackers > Third Season (Alabama '11)

Glenn Schumann was named inside linebackers coach at Georgia on Dec. 12, 2015, after serving two years as Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel at the University of Alabama.

Schumann was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's defense finished second in the SEC and 6th nationally in Scoring Defense (16.4 ppg), 2nd in the SEC and 6th nationally in Total Defense (294.9 ypg), and 2nd in the SEC in Rushing Defense.

Schumann's star pupil over his first two years was All-American Roquan Smith, the 2017 Butkus Award winner as the nation's top linebacker, in addition to being named SEC Defensive Player of the Year. He went eighth overall in the 2018 NFL Draft to the Chicago Bears.

Schumann spent eight years with the Crimson Tide, first as an undergraduate analyst and then as a graduate assistant. In February, 2014, he was named Director of Player Development and Associate Director of Player Personnel.

He and his wife, Lauren, have been married since the summer of 2015.

TRAY SCOTT

Defensive Line > Second Season (Arkansas Tech '08)

Tray Scott was named defensive line coach at Georgia on Feb. 10, 2017, after serving two years in a similar position at the University of North Carolina.

Scott was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the College Football Playoff, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semi-final game, and first appearance in the College Football Playoff Championship Game. Georgia's defense finished second in the SEC and 6th nationally in Scoring Defense (16.4 ppg), 2nd in the SEC and 6th nationally in Total Defense (294.9 ypg), and 2nd in the SEC in Rushing Defense.

In his two campaigns in Chapel Hill, Scott helped UNC reach back-to-back bowl games and the 2015 ACC Championship Game. In his first year in Chapel Hill, Scott was part of a defensive staff that engineered the best turnaround in college football. Carolina was the nation's most improved Power 5 defense, averaging 14.5 points fewer than the previous year, while also showing the most improvement in pass defense efficiency. He also held positions as defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss (2012), assistant coach at Arkansas State (2010-11) and UT-Martin (2013-14).

Scott and his wife, Sarah, have one son, Julian Thomas (1).

SUPER BOWL FAST FACTS

- For the past 17 seasons, the Bulldogs have had at least one former player in the Super Bowl. That tally leads the SEC.
- Georgia is the only school to have produced three Super Bowl MVPs: Safety Jake Scott (Miami, Super Bowl VII), running back Terrell Davis (Denver, Super Bowl XXXII) and wide receiver Hines Ward (Pittsburgh, Super Bowl XL).
- Three former Bulldogs have been a part of three Super Bowl winning teams (Guy McIntyre, Patrick Pass and Richard Seymour). Seymour was a part of four Super Bowl squads.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

IN THEIR OWN WORDS

RICHARD SEYMOUR

3X SUPER BOWL CHAMPION

"I'm always talking about Georgia in the locker room and what a great experience I had there. I met a lot of players, students, and coaches who are now life-long friends during my time at UGA. I'd do it all again if I had the chance. I have a son now, and if I could send him to any school it would definitely be Georgia."

HINES WARD

2X SUPER BOWL CHAMPION, SUPER BOWL XL MVP

"Playing at Georgia made all the difference in my life. Bulldog fans are the best in college football, and you can feel the electricity every time there is a home game. I really felt the coaches and all of the great athletes I played with prepared me for the NFL and life after football. When people ask me what is the key to my success, I always point to my days as a Georgia Bulldog and the support I received from the University."

TERRELL DAVIS

2X SUPER BOWL CHAMPION, SUPER BOWL XXXII MVP
CLASS OF 2018 PRO FOOTBALL HOF

"Georgia has the excitement of big time college football. Playing for the Bulldogs helped me prepare for the many challenges I encountered in the NFL. I loved my time at Georgia."

HINES WARD SELECTED AS SEC LEGEND FOR 2018

REPRESENTS GEORGIA IN THIS YEAR'S CLASS

Former Georgia receiver/quarterback Hines Ward was among those selected for the 2018 Southeastern Conference Football Legends class, announced recently by the SEC office.

The class will be honored at the 2018 SEC Football "Weekend of Champions" Nov. 30-Dec. 1 in Atlanta, Georgua, highlighted by the annual SEC Legends Dinner presented by AT&T on Fri., Nov. 30 at the Hyatt Regency in Atlanta. The group will also be recognized prior to the SEC Football Championship Game, which will be held at the new Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Sat., Dec. 1.

The 2018 Football Legends Class includes 14 former stars who excelled on the gridiron and helped write the rich history of the sport at their respective institutions. This year's class includes All-Americans, All-SEC selections and Academic All-Americans. The group represents teams that won National and SEC Championships and are represented in state, school and college football halls of fame.

A native of Rex, Georgia, and a product of Forest Park High School, Ward earned All-SEC First Team honors after his senior season of 1997, when the Bulldogs went 10-2 and defeated Wisconsin in the Outback Bowl. He saw action primarily as a receiver and caught 55 passes for 715 yards and six touchdowns. He also set the school record for receptions in a bowl game when he pulled in 12 passes for 122 yards against the Badgers.

Ward was selected in the third round of the 1997 NFL draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers. He went on to be selected to four Pro Bowls, was a member of two Super Bowl champion teams, and earned MVP honors in Super Bowl 40 in 2006. Ward remains the Steelers' all-time leading receiver with 1,000 catches for 12,083 yards and 85 touchdowns. He gained further notoriety in 2011 by winning the "Dancing With The Stars" national television competition.

Here is a look at the 2018 SEC Football Legends:

ALABAMA
Shaun Alexander, Running Back, 1996-99

Shaun Alexander was regarded as one of the most productive backs in the country during his playing days at Alabama. He burst onto the scene with a 291-yard performance as a freshman against LSU, then rushed for more than 1,000 yards in each of his junior and senior seasons. He earned First-Team All-America honors as a senior, leading the Crimson Tide to the 1999 SEC Championship. He left Tuscaloosa with 15 rushing records, including the career total yardage mark at 3,565. Alexander was selected in the first round (19th overall) of the 2000 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks. He was the NFL Most Valuable Player in 2005 and was named to the NFL's 2000 All-Decade Team. In 2011, Alexander was voted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

ARKANSAS
Darren McFadden, Running Back, 2005-07

One of the most decorated players in Arkansas history and a two-time runner up for the Heisman Trophy, Darren McFadden was the 2007 Player of the Year by the Walter Camp Foundation and The Sporting News. A two-time First-Team All-American, he twice won the Doak Walker Award and was twice named SEC Offensive Player of the Year. McFadden ranks second on the SEC career rushing list with 4,590 yards and averaged 120.8 yards per game during his three-year career, third best in league history. He rushed for 100 yards or more 22 times and is one of only three players in SEC history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his freshman, sophomore and junior seasons. His 321 yards vs. South Carolina in 2007 remains tied for the SEC record for rushing yards in a game. The fourth pick overall in the 2008 NFL draft by the Oakland Raiders, he played 10 years in the NFL for the Raiders and Dallas Cowboys.

AUBURN
Ronnie Brown, Running Back, 2001-04

A four-year letterwinner at Auburn from 2001-04, Ronnie Brown was a First-Team All-SEC pick as a senior while helping Auburn to a SEC Championship and a perfect 13-0 season. After earning All-SEC freshman honors in 2001, Brown rushed for 1,000 yards as a sophomore in 2002. He finished his career ranked in Auburn's top 10 in career rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, receptions by a running back and receiving yards by a running back. A team captain as a senior in 2004, Brown graduated from Auburn that same year. He was the No. 2 overall pick of the 2005 NFL Draft, becoming the highest drafted Auburn back since Bo Jackson went No. 1 in 1986. Brown played 10 years with five teams, including six with the Miami Dolphins and was a Pro Bowl selection in 2008. The Cartersville, Georgia, native currently serves as a sideline reporter for the Auburn Sports Network.

FLORIDA
Lawrence Wright, Safety, 1993-96

Lawrence Wright was a four-year letterwinner for the Florida Gators and the 1996 Jim Thorpe Award recipient, awarded to the nation's top defensive back. He was captain of 1996 National Championship team, the first national title team in school history. He was also the emotional leader for four consecutive SEC Championship teams (1993-96) under head coach Steve Spurrier. A First-Team All-American in 1995, he was also a two-time First-Team All-SEC selection in 1995 and '96. He finished his career with 331 tackles and five interceptions. A three-time selection to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and a College Football Association Scholar-Athlete his senior year, Wright went on to play two years in the NFL with the Cincinnati Bengals. Gator fans also remember Wright for coining the phrase "If you are not a Gator, you must be Gator Bait!"

GEORGIA
Hines Ward, Wide Receiver/Quarterback/Running Back, 1994-97

One of the most versatile threats in SEC football history, Hines Ward showed extraordinary talent as a receiver, running back and quarterback. Ward ranked highly in three individual career UGA statistics, placing second in receptions (144), fourth in receiving yards (1,965), and second in all-purpose yards (3,870) trailing only the legendary Herschel Walker. In 43 games at UGA, Ward recorded 4,762 total yards, averaging 9.3 yards per touch and 110.7 yards per game, and scored a total of 20 touchdowns. He was named to the SEC Coaches All-SEC first team in 1997. Ward was selected in the third round of the 1997 NFL draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers and went on to be selected to four Pro Bowls, was a member of two Super Bowl champion teams, and MVP of Super Bowl 40 in 2006. Ward received more national attention in 2011 by winning the "Dancing With The Stars" national television competition.

KENTUCKY
Rich Brooks, Head Coach, 2003-09

Rich Brooks guided the Kentucky football fortunes for seven years from 2003-09 and is the only head coach in UK history to guide the Wildcats to postseason bowl games in four consecutive years and win three straight bowls. The streak began in 2006 with a stunning upset of Clemson in the Music City Bowl. The 2007 season was highlighted by a top-10 ranking, a victory over No. 1 (and eventual national champion) LSU and was capped by a bowl victory over Florida State. Following the 2008 season, UK defeated East Carolina in the Liberty Bowl. In his final season in 2009, Brooks was named SEC Coach of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com. With the Wildcats reflecting the toughness shown by their head coach, in his last four seasons he led UK to 12 fourth-quarter comeback wins. Prior to joining Kentucky, Brooks served as head coach for the St. Louis Rams of the NFL and the University of Oregon.

LSU
Ronnie Estay, Defensive Tackle, 1968-71

One of the top defensive tackles in LSU history, Ronnie Estay earned First-Team All-America honors in his senior year of 1971 from Kodak/American Football Coaches Association. He was also named First-Team All-SEC in 1971 after earning second team all-conference honors in 1970. Accomplished in the classroom as well, Estay was named Academic All-SEC as a junior in 1970. Estay anchored a staunch LSU defensive line that led the nation in rushing defense in both 1969 (38.9 ypg) and 1970 (52.2 ypg), helping lead the Tigers to the 1970 SEC Championship. A three-year letterwinner from 1969-71, Estay was a member of teams that went a combined 27-7 overall and 12-3 in SEC play in those three seasons. Estay played 11 years in the CFL, winning six Grey Cup titles. He is a member of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame, the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the Canadian Football Hall of Fame.

OLE MISS
Jim Miller, Punter, 1976-79

A consensus All-America selection in 1979, Jim Miller was a three-time All-SEC First Team pick and member of both the Ole Miss Team of the Century (1893-1992) and Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame. A barefooted punter, he averaged 43.4 yards on 266 career punts and in 1977 led the nation in punting, averaging 45.9 yards, which also set an SEC record. Although 40 years have passed since his final collegiate season, he still holds school records for most career punts (266) and career punting yards (11,549) and ranks second for most punting yards in a season (3,283). Miller played six years in the NFL and while playing for the San Francisco 49ers was selected to the NFL All-Rookie Team in 1980 and was also a member of San Francisco's Super Bowl XVI championship team. He played three seasons with the 49ers, two with Dallas and one with the New York Giants.

MISSISSIPPI STATE
Mardye McDole, Wide Receiver, 1977-80

Mardye McDole, a Mobile, Alabama, native is arguably the greatest wide receiver in Mississippi State history. Still the only three-time All-SEC wide receiver in school history, McDole led the conference in receptions (48) and yards per reception as a sophomore. That year, McDole became the first player in MSU history with over 1,000 receiving yards in a single-season (1,035), a mark that remains the school record. He was tabbed an All-American by The Sporting News following his senior year in 1980. He finished as the school's all-time leader in receiving yards (2,214) and catches (116). He was selected in the second round of the 1981 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. He spent three seasons there and also played for the Calgary Stampeders of the CFL and the Memphis Showboats of the USFL. He was inducted into the Mississippi State Sports Hall of Fame in 2001.

MISSOURI
Devin West, Running Back, 1995-98

Devin West was a First-Team All-American as a senior in 1998 and a semi-finalist for the Doak Walker Award, given to the top running back in college football. He rushed for an MU-record 1,578 yards (ranking fifth in the nation), and 17 touchdowns his senior season. West was a lightly-known recruit from small-town Moberly, Missouri, who developed into a key leader and contributor in Mizzou's turnaround that saw the Tigers reach consecutive bowl games in 1997 and 1998, after going without a bowl appearance from 1984-96. The 1998 team defeated West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl, marking MU's first bowl victory since 1981. West was only the second Mizzou running back to earn All-America honors and was the first since Bob Steuber in 1942. For his career, he rushed for 2,954 yards and 28 touchdowns, including a Mizzou single-game record of 319 yards against rival Kansas in 1998.

SOUTH CAROLINA
Eric Norwood, Linebacker, 2006-09

Eric Norwood was named First-Team All-America in 2009 by both the Associated Press and the Walter Camp Foundation as an outside linebacker. He was a three-time All-SEC First Team selection by the coaches, a two-time AP All-SEC choice and was named a Freshman All-American by The Sporting News in 2006. A team captain in both 2008 and 2009, Norwood is the school record holder in career tackles for loss (54.5) and career sacks (29). He earned numerous national and conference Defensive Player of the Week awards, as well as tying a national record by returning two fumbles for touchdowns against Kentucky in 2007. Norwood was selected in the fourth round of the 2010 NFL Draft by Carolina and played two years for the Panthers before a five-year career in the Canadian Football League. He was elected to the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017.

TENNESSEE
Phillip Fulmer, Head Coach, 1992-2008

Phillip Fulmer served as head coach of the Tennessee Volunteers from 1992 to 2008, compiling a 152-52 record while leading the Vols to the 1998 BCS National Championship. Tennessee's 20th head coach, Fulmer is the second winningest football coach in Tennessee history and the third UT coach to capture a national title. His 1997 and 1998 teams won consecutive SEC Championships, and Tennessee racked up a four-year record of 45-5 from 1995-98. During Fulmer's collegiate playing career, he was an offensive guard for the Vols from 1969-71. He helped coach Bill Battle's teams post a 30-5 record during those three seasons and was a member of Tennessee's 1969 SEC Championship team. Fulmer served as a student coach at UT upon his graduation and later served as a full-time assistant coach for the Vols from 1980-92 before rising to head coach. Fulmer was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2012 and now serves as Tennessee's Director of Athletics.

TEXAS A&M
Pat Thomas, Defensive Back, 1974-75

Pat Thomas was a two-time All-American defensive back in 1974 and 1975 and earned All-SWC honors for the Aggies as well. Named team captain as a junior in 1974, he helped the 1975 team earn a share of the Southwest Conference Championship. That 1975 team reached as high as No. 2 in the country after defeating Texas, 20-10, at Kyle Field. He was signed by Emory Bellard in 1972 and earned four letters at Texas A&M (1972-75) after playing at Plano High School where he helped the team win the 1971 Texas state high school championship. Thomas was selected in the second round of the 1976 NFL draft by the Los Angeles Rams and went on to earn First-Team All-Pro honors in 1980 and was a 1978 and 1980 NFL Pro Bowl selection. He played in the 1980 Super Bowl. Following his playing career, Thomas, coached in the NFL and USFL. He was inducted into the Texas A&M Athletics Hall of Fame in 1986.

VANDERBILT
Zac Stacy, Running Back, 2009-12

Zac Stacy, a two-time All-SEC running back for Vanderbilt, ended his collegiate career as the Commodores' all-time leader with 3,143 rushing yards and 30 rushing touchdowns. As a junior in 2011, he set new team single-season records with 1,193 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns, helping Vanderbilt to an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. As a senior captain, he rushed for 1,141 yards and was named MVP of the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl as the Commodores defeated NC State and finished with nine victories. Stacy became the first back in Commodore history to produce back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons. Stacy was a fifth-round pick of the St. Louis Rams in the 2013 Draft and enjoyed a four-year NFL career. Following his playing career, Stacy has worked in sports radio and has been an advocate and event sponsor for the Down Syndrome Association of Middle Tennessee.

ORJI 2018 NCAA WOMAN OF THE YEAR FINALIST

TRACK AND FIELD LEGEND KETURAH ORJI

Georgia track and field legend Keturah Orji has been included as one of nine former collegiate student-athletes selected as finalists for the 2018 NCAA Woman of the Year Award and will be honored at an awards dinner Oct. 28 in Indianapolis, Indiana, where the 2018 Woman of the Year will be named.

Orji, a native of Mount Olive, joins the following as Woman of the Year finalists: Chicago's Ade Ayoola (track and field), Claflin's Trisana Fairweather (cross country/track and field), Newman's Delaney Hiegert (softball), Whitworth's Kayla Leland (cross country/track and field/basketball), Angelo State's Kami Norton (track and field), Minnesota's Sidney Peters (ice hockey), Oklahoma State's Vanessa Shippy (softball) and Bates College's Amelia Wilhelm (rowing).

The nine finalists — including three from each NCAA division — demonstrated excellence in academics, athletics, community service and leadership throughout their collegiate careers.

Finalists were selected from a group of 30 Woman of the Year honorees who will be recognized during the event on Oct. 28. This group of 30 includes 10 honorees from each NCAA division and represents a range of sports. Schools nominated a record 581 college athletes for the award.

Orji is one of 12 all-time finalists for the Bulldogs, including the first from track and field. Georgia swimmers Lisa Coole (1997), Kristy Kowal (2000) and Kim Black (2001) each claimed NCAA Woman of the Year honors. Georgia was the first school to have more than one winner.

Orji, a former Bulldog team captain, served for three years on the UGAAA Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), including as vice president during her senior year.

A four-year attendee of the Student-Athlete Leadership Academy, she founded Amara's Pride in 2017, an after-school mentoring program for middle school girls, focusing on self-worth, the importance of education, social media influences and the power of perseverance.

Orji also worked with an income tax assistance program, spent time with children whose parents were incarcerated during the holiday season and served as a United Team leader, through which she mentored other student-athletes through weekly small groups and Bible studies.

A 2018 Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar, Orji was a member of Georgia's Sphinx Club honor society, the oldest honorary society in Georgia history, and Blue Key Honor Society, whose members are committed to leadership in student life, high scholastic achievement, service to others, citizenship and adherence to principles of faith. She was named the 2018 Southeastern Conference Women's Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field Scholar-Athlete of the Year, her third honor of this kind, and the university's Joel Eaves Scholar-Athlete of the Year presented to the female student-athlete who has the highest GPA going into their senior year.

Orji received the SEC's H. Boyd McWhorter Postgraduate Scholarship, presented to the conference's top male and female scholar-athletes. She was recognized by the U.S. Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) as the 2017 Indoor and Outdoor National Field Scholar-Athlete of the Year, also giving her three of those honors in her career. She is now pursuing a graduate degree at Georgia and is a volunteer assistant with the Bulldog track and field program.

KETURAH ORJI is a finalist for the 2018 NCAA Woman of the Year Award.

Orji — who was fourth by only three centimeters in the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro — is a 15-time first-team All-American and eight-time NCAA individual national champion (four times in the outdoor triple jump, three times in the indoor triple jump and once in the outdoor long jump). Her outstanding performance in those events helped Georgia win a team NCAA championship in indoor track and field in 2018 and finish as the national runner-up three more times. She holds the American and collegiate records for the indoor triple jump and the collegiate record for the outdoor triple jump. Orji was a four-time USTFCCCA National Women's Field Athlete of the Year, and she is the only woman in history to be a three-time Bowerman Award finalist. She completed her collegiate career 31-1 overall in the triple jump and currently owns the top eight indoor marks in NCAA history and the top six performances outdoors.

1942 GEORGIA–FLORIDA FLASHBACK

NOV. 7, 1942: GEORGIA 75, FLORIDA 0, IN JACKSONVILLE

The world was at war when Georgia and Florida met in Jacksonville on Nov. 7, 1942. The Bulldogs performed at an extremely high level throughout the contest.

From the start of the game, the Bulldogs dominated, scoring the most points ever in the Georgia-Florida series, 75-0. The Bulldogs were on the way to the Rose Bowl and a National Championship.

After the Rose Bowl, the Bulldogs — like all other able-bodied men, including the Gators — joined the war effort, many of them making the ultimate sacrifice.

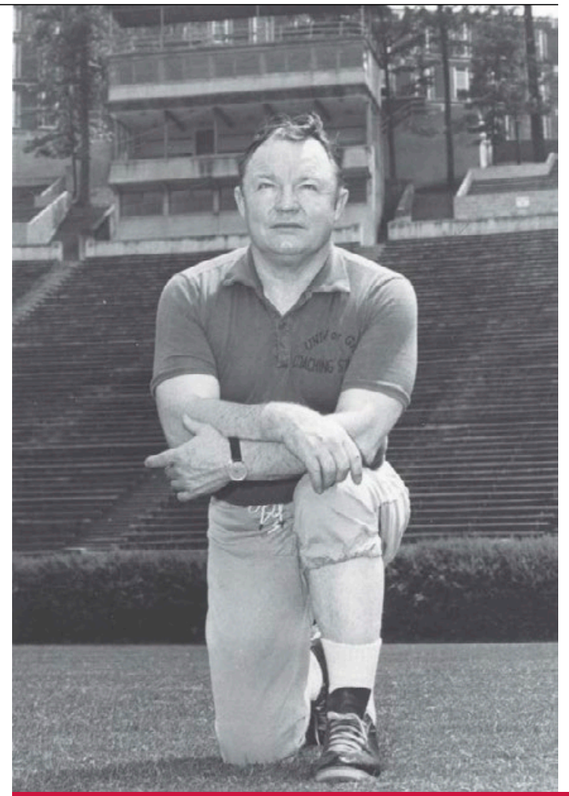

Led by Frank Sinkwich and Charley Trippi, the Bulldogs scored easily and often. The hapless Gators completed more passes to Georgia (7) than they did to their own receivers (6). The seven interceptions remain the most ever in the series. Two of the interceptions were returned for TDs.

An interesting development had taken place in Athens the year before. Frank Sinkwich, the versatile tailback in Coach Wallace Butts' single-wing formation, had become one of the greatest yardage producers in the country in 1941. He made national headlines by playing eight games and the Orange Bowl wearing a mask to protect a broken jaw that was suffered during the Bulldogs' second game against South Carolina.

In 1942, a young sophomore by the name of Charley Trippi became eligible for varsity competition. What do you do with a talent like Trippi when you have a talent like Sinkwich playing the same position?

It didn't take Coach Butts long to figure out that if he moved Sinkwich to fullback, the offensive production for the Youngstown, Ohio, native would continue. With that move, he could gain additional offensive firepower from the multitalented Trippi.

This new lineup meant that Sinkwich became Mr. Inside and Trippi Mr. Outside. What made the pair more intimidating was that each of them could pass the ball efficiently.

HEAD COACH WALLACE BUTTS moved Frank Sinkwich to fullback to also play Charley Trippi for offensive success during the 1942 season.

CHARLEY TRIPPI (62) and FRANK SINKWICH (21) led the Bulldogs to victory against Florida in 1942.

The Bulldogs of 1942 averaged 33.4 points per game and were never more potent than in Jacksonville.

Sinkwich rushed 10 times for 71 yards, scoring twice. He was 5-of-9 passing for 112 yards and two touchdowns. That production alone would win most games in those days, but Trippi made a similar contribution to the scoring effort. He rushed for 80 yards and two touchdowns, carrying the ball only six times. His passing totals: two completions in three attempts for 72 yards and two touchdowns. Often recognized as the greatest defensive player ever in the SEC, Trippi also returned an interception for a touchdown.

Georgia historian Dan Magill says the 1942 victory was his favorite since Sinkwich and Trippi were his classmates. "Sinkwich was on the way to winning the Heisman Trophy, and the Bulldogs would wind up in the Rose Bowl.

"Coach Butts' team was in high spirits in Jacksonville. We had just been ranked No. 1 in the nation, the first time since the 1927 Dream and Wonder team enjoyed such a ranking."

The Bulldogs would stub their toe the next week against Auburn but rebounded to win the Rose Bowl and the national title. These Bulldogs were one of Coach Butts' most explosive teams, and the Bulldogs were at their explosive best against Florida.

HALL OF FAME FEATURES MATT STINCHCOMB

STINCHCOMB TO BE INDUCTED WITH 2018 CLASS

The 61st NFF Annual Awards Dinner will take place Dec. 4 at the New York Hilton Midtown in New York City. The annual celebration will provide the stage for the induction of the 2018 College Football Hall of Fame Class, the presentation of the 2018 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Awards, the bestowing of the 29th NFF William V. Campbell Trophy® to the nation's top football scholar-athlete and the presentation of the NFF Major Awards.

This year's College Football Hall of Fame Class includes Trevor Cobb (Rice), Kerry Collins (Penn State), Dave Dickenson (Montana), Dana Howard (Illinois), Calvin Johnson (Georgia Tech), Paul Palmer (Temple), Ed Reed (Miami [Fla.]), Matt Stinchcomb (Georgia), Aaron Taylor (Nebraska), Charles Woodson (Michigan) and coaches Frank Beamer (Murray State, Virginia Tech), Mack Brown (Appalachian State, Tulane, North Carolina, Texas) and Mel Tjeerdsma (Austin College [Texas], Northwest Missouri State).

The 2018 NFF Major Award recipients include Atlanta Hall Management Chairman and College Football Hall of Fame inductee from Dartmouth Murry Bowden (NFF Outstanding Contribution to Amateur Football Award), retiring Yale athletics director Thomas Beckett and Harvard athletics director Bob Scalise (NFF John L. Toner Award co-recipients for excellence in athletics administration) and longtime Voice of the Texas A&M Aggies Dave South (NFF Chris Schenkel Award for excellence in broadcasting). The finalists for the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy®, who comprise the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class, will be announced Oct. 31, and the winner of the Campbell Trophy® will be announced live at the event on Dec. 4.

MATT STINCHCOMB

MATT STINCHCOMB

Just the third College Football Hall of Fame inductee ever to have also claimed the NFF William V. Campbell Trophy®, Matt Stinchcomb built an athletic and academic record that made him one of the most decorated players in Georgia history. He is the 14th Bulldog player to enter the Hall.

A two-time First-Team All-American, Stinchcomb earned consensus honors following his senior season in 1998. He led Georgia to a 19-5 record during his junior and senior campaigns with respective victories in the Outback and Peach Bowls. Stinchcomb started 32 consecutive games for College Football Hall of Fame coach Jim Donnan's Bulldogs while also claiming the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the SEC's most outstanding blocker in 1998. The senior team captain was a two-time First-Team All-SEC selection in 1997 and 1998 and claimed second team honors as a sophomore. A member of the UGA Circle of Honor and the Georgia-Florida Hall of Fame, Stinchcomb was named an SEC Legend in 2009 and was named to the SEC All-Decade Team for the 1990s.

In addition to winning the 1998 Campbell Trophy® as the top football scholar-athlete in the country, Stinchcomb twice claimed First-Team Academic All-America honors, including being named the Academic All-American of the Year as a senior. His academic record and community leadership brought multiple honors, including an NCAA Top Eight Award and twice being named to the AFCA Good Works Team.

After graduating magna cum laude with a business degree, Stinchcomb was selected 18th overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 1999 NFL Draft. He played five seasons with the Raiders (1999-2003), helping the team win the AFC championship in 2002 and earn a trip to Super Bowl XXXVII. He retired in 2006 following two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Following the NFL, Stinchcomb joined with his brother, Jon, a fellow NFF National Scholar-Athlete from Georgia, to form the Stinchcomb Family Foundation to support regional and national children's charities. He also serves as chairman of the Countdown to Kickoff Charities, the fund-raising arm for pediatric healthcare philanthropies, among many other community activities. An avid guest speaker, he currently serves as the director of the Atlanta branch of Seacrest Partners, a commercial insurance brokerage and consulting firm. During the college football season, Stinchcomb can be seen as a game analyst on the SEC Network.

HARRIS NAMED SEMIFINALIST

For NFF William V. Campbell Trophy®

Georgia senior tight end Jackson Harris has been included as a semifinalist for the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy®, according to an announcement from the National Football Foundation (NFF) and the College Football Hall of Fame.

Harris, a native of Columbia, Tennessee, is one of 63 semifinalists from the FBS, including one of seven from the Southeastern Conference. He is now a candidate to be named one of 12-14 finalists for the Campbell Trophy® on Oct. 31 and to be included in this year's NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class. Each of the finalists receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship and will travel to New York City for the 61st annual NFF Awards Dinner on Dec. 4.

The winner of the 29th Campbell Trophy® will be selected from the NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class and will have his postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000.

Georgia's last semifinalist for the honor was tight end Jeb Blazevich in 2017. There have been 13 Bulldog finalists who have won NFF Scholar-Athlete Awards, including the latest recipient in 2013 with Aaron Murray. Matt Stinchcomb is the only Bulldog to win the Campbell Trophy® (1998). Incidentally, Stinchcomb will be in New York City for this year's awards since he will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

Harris is a 3.74 student majoring in mechanical engineering. He was named to the UGA J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Honor Roll, the SEC Academic Honor Roll and has been a Dean's List Honoree with his cumulative grade point average of 3.76. A member of the UGA Athletic Association Leadership Academy, Harris furthered his knowledge and education in his major during internships with Caterpillar, Inc., and CGH Industrial, LLC. He earned the UGA Athletic Association Academic Achievement Award as well as the Top-10 Caterpillar Scholar Athlete Award. Harris received the 2015 Iron Dawg Award, which is given to individuals who are punctual and who have stellar attendance to all practices, tutor sessions, classes and team meetings. He has earned the Highest GPA Award for the UGA football team twice during his career.

On the community service side, Harris worked with patients at Camp Sunshine by spending time with kids who are battling cancer. He volunteered with Relay for Life, which is a fundraising activity that benefits the American Cancer Society. Harris works with UGA Miracle, an organization that raises funds for Children's Healthcare of Atlanta and has also participated in Special Olympics Baseball at Georgia's Foley Field. Harris has visited the patients at Egleston Hospital and Children's Healthcare of Atlanta on several occasions. He has worked with Extra Special People (ESP), which is a local organization that gives attention and take care of those with a range of disabilities.

Entering the 2018 season, Harris had played in 38 games, starting three, and has lettered all three years at Georgia. He played a key leadership role on the 13-2 2017 Bulldog squad that captured the SEC title, a Rose Bowl Game victory and secured a spot in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. Harris made one start in all three of his first seasons after enrolling in January 2015. He finished his freshman season with career highs of four catches for 50 yards and was team's leading receiver in 2016 G-Day spring game with seven for 53. Harris had his first start versus SEC opponent Missouri in 2015 as a true freshman. Harris has seven catches for 67 yards in his career. He missed the first four games of the 2018 season with a foot injury and returned against Tennessee.

SEC EASTERN DIVISION RACE HEATS UP

ROAD TO ATLANTA FOR THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Following Georgia's first loss of the season at then No. 12 LSU, the Bulldogs find themselves tied with Florida in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division, plus don't count out Kentucky.

The Bulldogs and Gators have identical 6-1 overall records including 4-1 in the SEC. Up next, the teams meet in a pivotal matchup in Jacksonville on Oct. 27. It could be a top-10 matchup depending on what happens during the open date as four of the nation's top eight teams fell on Oct. 13. The Oct. 14 Associated Press Top 25 Poll featured Georgia at No. 8 and Florida at No. 11.

The No. 14 Wildcats (5-1, 3-1 SEC) are enjoying a fine season including a win over the Gators. Kentucky's next three games are against Vanderbilt (Oct. 20) at home, Missouri on the road (Oct. 27) and then it plays host to the Bulldogs (Nov. 3).

Georgia concludes SEC play on Nov. 10 when Auburn visits Sanford Stadium. The Gators finish league action with home games against Missouri (Nov. 3) and South Carolina (Nov. 10) while Kentucky travels to Tennessee (Nov. 10). The rest of the Eastern Division shapes up like this: South Carolina (3-3, 2-3 SEC), Tennessee (3-3, 1-2 SEC), Vanderbilt (3-4, 0-3 SEC) and Missouri (3-3, 0-3 SEC).

Let's look at the top three contenders:

D'ANDRE WALKER (#15) and the Bulldogs face their next challenge Oct. 27 in Jacksonville against Florida.

GEORGIA (6-1, 4-1 SEC)

Georgia cruised to a 6-0 start. In fact, heading in to the LSU game, the Bulldogs were one of only three teams in the nation to have won all their games by at least 10 points, the other two were Alabama and Central Florida. The Bulldog offense was averaging 42.8 points a game, the defense ranked second nationally allowing only 13 points a game.

However, the 12th-ranked Tigers were not about to drop two straight after having tasted defeat in Gainesville to the Gators. LSU claimed a 36-16 upset of then No. 2 Georgia for its third win over a top-10 team this year. Before the LSU game, Georgia had trailed for only 15 seconds on the year, and then the Tigers blanked Georgia 16-0 at the half. Also, after entering the game with a +6 turnover margin and only three miscues on the year, the Bulldogs had four turnovers on the day that LSU converted in to 13 points.

Georgia and Florida are 6-1 overall and 4-1 in the SEC after LSU upset the Bulldogs in Baton Rouge on Oct. 13.

Georgia entered the open date knowing all its goals still were in play, but the margin for error had been reduced with more ranked teams on the horizon. After seven games, the Bulldogs are third in the SEC in scoring offense (39.0 points per game) and fourth in scoring defense (16.3 points points per game). Sophomore quarterback Jake Fromm, who is 18-3 as a starter, directs the offense while seniors Deandre Baker and D'Andre Walker anchor the defense. Baker has 25 tackles, two interceptions and an SEC-leading 10 passes defended while Walker has 19 tackles, five sacks and three forced fumbles.

FLORIDA (6-1, 4-1 SEC)

The Gators enter the Georgia game riding a five-game winning streak including a pair of victories over top-25 teams. Dan Mullen, now in his first year at Florida, inherited a team that went 4-7 in 2017. His signature win to date came over then No. 5 LSU in Gainesville that catapulted the Gators in the national rankings. A September loss to Kentucky (the first to the Wildcats since 1986, that ended a 31-year streak) is in the rearview mirror. For only the third time this decade, the Gators have won five straight contests. In 2012, Florida won its first seven games while the 2015 squad won six in a row to start the campaign.

The 2018 Gators feature a talented defensive front, improved quarterback play from sophomore Feleipe Franks, solid special teams and a +9-turnover margin. Junior defensive end Jachai Polite ranks among the league leaders with six sacks and four forced fumbles.

In its last game, a 37-27 road win over Vanderbilt, the Gators spotted the host Commodores an 18-point first-half lead before scoring 24 consecutive points. It matched the largest road comeback in Florida football history. It was necessary after surrendering 17 points on three turnovers to the Commodores. The Gators offense was at its best versus Vanderbilt, tallying a season-high 576 yards on 92 plays.

SEC EASTERN DIVISION RACE HEATS UP

ROAD TO ATLANTA FOR THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

KENTUCKY (5-1, 3-1 SEC)

On Sept. 8, the Wildcats registered a 27-16 upset of then No. 25 Florida in Gainesville to end a 31-year losing streak to the Gators. Entering the Oct. 20 game with Vanderbilt, the No. 14 Wildcats sit in a three-way tie in the loss column in the SEC East with Georgia and Florida. The Bulldogs visit Lexington on Nov. 3.

Kentucky's season-high ranking has been No. 13 before a road loss to Texas A&M caused them to fall to No. 18. During its open date on Oct. 13, Kentucky moved up four spots to No. 14. With a 5-1 mark, Wildcat fans are eyeing a 10-win season and that's been done twice in 126 years. What about 11 wins? In 1950, SEC Champion Kentucky, led by coach Bear Bryant, upset No. 1 Oklahoma 13-7 in the Sugar Bowl to finish 11-1. The Wildcats' lone defeat came in the final game of the regular season, falling 7-0 to Tennessee in Knoxville.

The 2018 Wildcats feature a Heisman candidate in junior running back Benny Snell, who leads the SEC in rushing average at 116.5 yards a game, and a defense led by projected NFL first round draft pick senior linebacker Josh Allen, who currently ranks 10th nationally in sacks and tackles for loss. Overall, Kentucky is second in the SEC in scoring defense, allowing just 13.8 points a game.

THE ROAD TO ATLANTA FOR THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

It's only October, and as coaches and fans are fond of saying, "there's a lot of football left." The race is on to see who will meet in the Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta on Dec. 1 for the 2018 SEC Championship Game. In 2017, Georgia avenged its only loss of the regular season with a 28-7 triumph over No. 2 Auburn for the SEC title.

2017 GEORGIA–FLORIDA FLASHBACK

OCT. 28, 2017: #3 GEORGIA 42, FLORIDA 7, IN JACKSONVILLE

Georgia enjoyed a memorable season in 2017 and carried a 7-0 record to Jacksonville for the annual showdown with Florida. The Bulldogs remained perfect with a dominating win over the Gators on their march to another SEC Championship. The Bulldogs' 35-point margin of victory marked the most extensive margin of victory over the Gators since 1982.

The third-ranked Georgia Bulldogs overwhelmed the Florida Gators 42-7 at EverBank Field, improving to 8-0 for just the eighth time in school history.

In the first quarter, the Bulldog defense held Florida to three-and-out on its first possession, setting up a four-play, 53-yard march into the Gator endzone a minute and a half into the game. Jake Fromm completed his first pass to D'Andre Swift for 39 yards, and Nick Chubb combined for 14 yards on three carries, featuring a 6-yard rushing touchdown.

On Florida's second drive, senior safety Dominick Sanders snagged his 15th career interception from a tipped Feleipe Franks pass to place Georgia on the Florida 29-yard line. Two plays later, an airborne senior wide receiver Javon Wims extended above Florida cornerback Marco Wilson to secure a 17-yard touchdown pass from Fromm for the 14-0 advantage.

On the first play of Georgia's third offensive possession, Sony Michel exploded for a 74-yard touchdown run, sealing a 21-0 Georgia margin that carried into the half.

In the third quarter, Georgia returned to the end zone with 6:43 remaining in the frame, as Michel finalized a five-yard, 76-yard drive with a 45-yard rushing touchdown. Fromm led the Bulldogs down the field with a 13-yard rush and an 18-yard connection to Swift.

Less than a minute later, Georgia defensive backs Tyrique McGhee and J.R. Reed, enveloped Franks on the Florida 3-yard line, forcing a fumble that Reed scooped up for a 3-yard touchdown return. After another defensive stop, Georgia closed the third quarter leading 35-0.

In the fourth period the Georgia defense held Florida to a three-play, 23-second drive, allowing the Bulldog offensive streak to continue. Following runs from sophomore tailback Brian Herrien and sophomore running back Elijah Holyfield, Fromm found Swift for a 27-yard pass, and Holyfield capped the 42-0 score with a 39-yard rushing touchdown.

SONY MICHEL ran for a 74-yard touchdown against the Florida Gators in the 2017 Bulldog win.

DID YOU KNOW?

- With the victory, Georgia improved to 8-0 for the first time since 2002. The Bulldogs also tabbed their fifth conference win, while Florida dropped to 3-4 on the season, and 3-3 in the SEC. The Bulldogs' 35-point win was the most extensive margin of victory over the Gators since 1982.
- Georgia led 21-0 at the half, and it scored all 21 points in the first quarter. That was the most in the first quarter in 2017, and the most against the Gators in a first quarter going back to at least 1970. The previous high was 14 against Missouri, Mississippi State and Samford. In the Red Zone, Georgia finished 2-for-2 as the Bulldogs maintained their spot as one of the national leaders, going a perfect 31-for-31 on the year.
- At the half, Florida had no points. It marked the first time in the series since 1988 that the Gators were shut out at the half.
- Michel's 74-yarder was the longest rushing TD by a Bulldog since Chubb went 83 yards against Alabama in 2015. Michel's 45-yarder made it 28-0 with 6:43 left in the third quarter. Michel has 3,637 all-purpose yards in his career which ranks seventh all-time.
- The Gators were 8-for-11 in fourth down conversions, and Georgia stopped hem on a 4th-and-2 at the UGA4. It was the first red zone stop of the Gators this season as they were 15-for-15 at that point.
- Coming into the game, UF was tied for third nationally in allowing only four rushing TDs, Georgia had four on the day.

1964 GEORGIA–FLORIDA FLASHBACK

NOV. 7, 1964: GEORGIA, 14, FLORIDA, 7, IN JACKSONVILLE

For years, Georgia dominated its series with Florida, but in the '50s and early '60s, the Gators gained the advantage. When Vince Dooley took over in 1964, the advantage shifted back to Georgia, with Dooley coached teams winning 17 games in 25 years. There was one tie. Here's a brief recap of how Dooley's first team upset Florida, 14-7.

In 1964, Georgia, although nobody clairvoyantly forecast it, was starting what would become its greatest era under Vince Dooley. It was also the beginning a noteworthy dominance in the Georgia-Florida series.

Many times throughout Vince's 25 years, the Bulldogs were able to fashion victory in Jacksonville against the favored Gators. Dooley was a fine coach and should be credited with often inspiring his team to success against greater odds.

Vince's first Georgia team went to Jacksonville a decided underdog. However, Dooley had a solid team that was ambitious and opportunistic. The one-platoon rules were being gradually phased out, and unlimited substitution was on the way.

Georgia played two quarterbacks, Preston Ridlehuber and Lynn Hughes. George Patton, the former quarterback who would make All-America at tackle, was a defensive player who always seemed to make big plays.

The Bulldogs also had a stable of hard-running backs, including Frank Lankewicz, Fred Barber and Bob Taylor. They were the forerunner of offensive teams Dooley would put on the field. Tough hard-nosed teams that ground out yardage, controlling the ball and the clock.

Florida came to Jacksonville with a power-laden team, too, led by Steve Spurrier. Alabama's Bear Bryant, after playing Florida, rated the Gators the strongest team he had ever faced.

The Gator defense was especially tough. The underdog Bulldogs displayed defensive muscle and mettle, too. In the third quarter, the Bulldog defense forced fumbles at the Florida 39 and 11 but could not produce points. Georgia, however, gained good field position (Florida had taken the lead 7-0 at the half.)

Placekicker BOBBY ETTER scooped up a fumbled snap on a field goal attempt and ran in five yards for a touchdown in Georgia's 14-7 victory in 1966.

Early in the fourth quarter, a two-yard touchdown run by FRED BARBER and Bobby Etter's PAT tied the game at 7-all.

Finally, something good happened for the Bulldogs. Wayne Swinford, the fearless punt returner, returned a Gator punt to the Florida 30. Pounding away with Lankewicz, Barber and Taylor, the Bulldogs finally reached the end zone, Barber scoring from two yards out.

Bobby Etter, the smallish place kicker, tied the game with his extra point. That was routine for him, but it would not be the last time we would hear from the little man from Chattanooga. Routine extra points are not so routine when something goes askew. More about that later.

Following Georgia's touchdown, coach Erk Russell's tenacious Bulldog defense forced a Florida fumble on a pitch out (George Patton influenced the miscue). Doug McFalls recovered at the Gator 21.

The Florida defense was just as tenacious as Georgia's. The ambitious Bulldogs could not mount an end zone thrust. They reached the5-yard line where Dooley sent in the trusty Etter to win the game with a field goal.

A bad snap from center was bobbled by the holder, Barry Wilson, and the ball skidded through his hands to the feet of Etter. With his right toe locked into a place-kicking position with a shoestring tied behind the calf of his leg, Etter picked up the ball and hobbled into the end zone, getting a timely block from Wilson. Georgia, in one of the greatest upsets ever in Jacksonville, was the unlikely winner 14-7.

1966 GEORGIA–FLORIDA FLASHBACK

NOV. 5, 1966: GEORGIA, 27, FLORIDA, 10, IN JACKSONVILLE

BILL STANFILL (77) goes to tackle Florida Gators quarterback Steve Spurrier in the 1966 Georgia-Florida contest. Lynn Hughes, who would make All-America, intercepted two Spurrier passes, returning one for a touchdown in the game.

For years, Georgia dominated its series with Florida, but in the '50s and early '60s, the Gators gained the advantage. When Vince Dooley took over in 1964, the advantage shifted back to Georgia, with Dooley coached teams winning 17 games in 25 years. There was one tie. Here's a brief recap of how Dooley's 1966 SEC Championship team defeated Florida 27-10.

Seldom has the anticipation for the Georgia-Florida game reached a greater peak than in 1966 when the two teams arrived in Jacksonville undefeated in conference play.

For years, Florida had gotten in position to win the Southeastern Conference championship, but somehow or other a title had eluded the Gators. Georgia often stood in the way.

There had never been more attention focused on the big game. With superstar quarterback Steve Spurrier, dubbed "Super Gator" by Georgia's Erk Russell, leading Florida with a high-powered offense, it appeared to many observers that the Gators were primed to win their first conference title. The Bulldogs had other ideas.

Georgia ran the Wing-T with a slot formation, with fullback Ronnie Jenkins rumbling for chunks of yardage between the tackles. There was speed in the backfield, with Kent Lawrence and Randy Wheeler at tailback.

The offensive line — seasoned and well taught by the head coach's younger brother, Bill Dooley — could, with the hard running backs, grind out those long distance 70- and 80-yard drives in a dozen or more plays. It was the kind of offense that Dooley loved. Keep the other team's offense on the sideline and wear down the defense.

On defense, the Bulldogs were opportunistic and gave ground grudgingly. The two defensive tackles — two of the best ever to play for the Bulldogs, George Patton and Bill Stanfill — were always harassing opposing quarterbacks. From his safety position, Lynn Hughes, who would make All-America, intercepted two Spurrier passes, returning one for a touchdown.

At the outset, however, it appeared that the Gators would easily master the Bulldog defense. Florida took the opening kickoff and marched 86 yards for a touchdown.

The Bulldogs were a little shocked, but they regrouped. Nobody would have guessed it, but that would be the last trip the Gators would make to the Georgia end zone that afternoon.

When the dust settled, the Bulldog defense had held the mighty Gators to a mere 10 points. Georgia dominated on defense, making big plays throughout the game. The offense, with its long, time-consuming drives, kept the Bulldog defense rested and in a buoyant mood throughout the second half.

Georgia could muster only a field goal in the first half. Florida led 10-3 at intermission. At that juncture, any betting man likely would have wagered Florida to win the game.

Then the Bulldogs brought their offensive firepower into play. Midway through the third quarter, Georgia came with a 65-yard scoring drive, which featured Jenkins's powerful thrusts and a 25-yard run by Wheeler. Bobby Etter's extra point tied the game after Jenkins scored from four yards out.

Now it was the defense's turn. Lynn Hughes batted a Spurrier pass in the air with his right hand, caught it with his left, and dashed 39 yards for a touchdown. After Etter's PAT, the Bulldogs led 17-10.

There were 10 minutes left in the game, but it would be all Georgia from that point on. The Bulldogs added a field goal by Etter, but the clincher was a 70-yard, 14-play drive for a touchdown, with Kirby Moore scoring on a three-yard dash around end. Etter's conversion made it 27-10.

The momentum of the victory over Florida would result in Vince Dooley's first SEC championship.

With a $25 million expansion completed in 2003 and another $8 million in 2004, Sanford Stadium added a second upper deck on the north side and 27 new north side SkySuites bringing the new stadium capacity to 92,746 — currently the ninth largest on-campus stadium in the country.

Named for the late Dr. S.V. Sanford, former president of the University and Chancellor of the University system, Georgia's Sanford Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2004. An overflow crowd of 30,000 saw the stadium's first game on Oct. 12, 1929, when Yale University made its only trip south. Georgia won the now famous game when a young sophomore end from Macon, Vernon "Catfish" Smith, scored all 15 of the Bulldogs' points. Final score: Georgia 15, Yale 0.

Through the years, the stadium has experienced various expansion projects. In 1940, lights were added to the field level paving the way to the first Sanford Stadium night game, a 7-7 tie between Georgia and Kentucky on Oct. 26, 1940.

Eventually, the east end of the stadium was enclosed, more lights added, and the capacity increased to 82,122. The 1991 project cost the University Athletic Association $3.7 million and enclosed the west end. The price tag was rather hefty, considering that the original price to build the stadium was a mere $360,000.

Legendary Sanford Stadium added yet another chapter to its history by hosting the medal round of the 1996 Olympic soccer competition watched via television by more than 3 billion people around the world.

WEST END ZONE PROJECT

The University of Georgia Athletic Association's latest major enhancement to Sanford Stadium transformed the west end zone. The finished project covers 120,000 square feet of new and improved space.

These developments include a new home locker room for the Bulldogs, a space to host and entertain prospects on game day, improvements to restroom and concession areas below the bridge, and a new scoreboard and upper plaza.

The $63-million project spanned approximately 17 months to complete.

SANFORD STADIUM INFORMATION

WELCOME TO BULLDOG GAMEDAY

ARTIFICIAL NOISEMAKERS
Any artificial noisemakers (air horns, cowbells, etc.) are not permitted in Sanford Stadium. Be considerate and allow your neighbor to enjoy the game. Please keep portable radios at a low volume.

ATMS
With the addition of credit/bank card capabilities at all stadium points of sale, ATMs are no longer available inside Sanford Stadium. For guests needing access to an ATM on gameday, available machines are located outside the stadium in the Tate Center plaza. Spectators inside the stadium will not be able to leave the stadium to use an ATM and then re-enter the stadium.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES
In case of an emergency, the public address announcer will notify fans of developing situations in order to make informed decisions concerning their well-being. Please familiarize yourself with the nearest exit points of the stadium.

GENERAL INFORMATION EMERGENCIES
- Monitor the weather prior to the game. Take the necessary precautions to protect your family and friends should severe weather be encountered before, during or after the game.
- In the event of an emergency inside the stadium, remain calm at all times, assist others and, if necessary, leave in an orderly fashion.
- During any emergency inside the stadium, follow the directions of the announcer, event staff and emergency responders. Assist individuals who may not be able to hear the emergency announcements.
- Always designate a pre-determined location both inside and outside the stadium to meet friends and family in case you get separated or in the event of an emergency.
- Upon arriving at your seat location, first find the nearest exit/emergency exit and then locate an alternate exit in case of an emergency.
- Specific emergency instructions are provided for the guests in the sky suites and other private areas. Patrons at those locations should read and be familiar with the emergency evacuation instructions located there.
- Do not use elevators in the event of a fire evacuation or power failure.
- Listen to AM 1650 for gameday traffic updates.
- If you see or become aware of any activity that is unusual, suspicious or causes you concern, please report the activity to the nearest police officer or event personnel.
- Remember, text messaging may be an option when voice phone calls do not work.

FACULTY GATES
Faculty members are encouraged to use Gates 6, 7, 8 and 9. Each person is required to show proper UGA identification along with faculty season tickets.

FAN TEXT MESSAGE SYSTEM
The Athletic Association has implemented a text messaging system that allows fans to communicate directly with the stadium's command post if assistance is needed in dealing with any special needs inside the stadium.

Should fans need assistance while inside the stadium, they will be able to contact event management staff by sending a text message from their phone. Simply text "DAWGS <space> the Issue and Location of incident" to 69050. Please note that standard SMS rates apply.

Be sure to include the problem and location of the incident, including section row and seat number (if applicable) in the message.

FIRST AID INFORMATION
First Aid Room Locations:
- Section 119
- Section 202 (Club Level)
- Section 229 (Club Level)
- West Endzone

Paramedics, nurses and physicians are stationed in all First Aid Rooms. Red Cross volunteers also are located throughout the concourses. A Red Cross station is located at Gate 7 of the 300 Level.

If assistance is needed with a health emergency, please report the situation immediately to any of the stadium ushers, Red Cross volunteers or uniformed police officers. Red Cross volunteers wear white shirts with the Red Cross emblem on the shoulder.

GAME PROGRAM
Game programs will be sold inside Sanford Stadium as well as numerous locations outside the stadium for $5.

GATE INFORMATION
All gates open two hours prior to kickoff.

HELP
Spectators are urged to arrive at their seats well in advance of kickoff. Excessive movement on the part of spectators during the game is a common complaint to our Game Administration officials.

As a courtesy to other patrons, please remain in your seat until the play has ended.

INFORMATION STATIONS
Look for the Bulldog Information Stations outside and throughout Sanford Stadium for event, stadium and public information. Located at Gates 2, 4, 6, 7 and 9, these customer service stands are the best source to answer your gameday questions.

For additional information on gameday, please call our Gameday Helpline at 706-425-3052.

PATRON SERVICES
Event service personnel are authorized to conduct an inspection of patrons upon entering the stadium for the sole purpose of eliminating hard objects and containers of any type from entering the stadium. Crowd control officers and stadium ushers are available to handle any inconveniences you may experience in the stadium.

GEORGIA TRADITIONS

HISTORY OF THE HEDGES

THE BULLDOGS

Many oldtimers say Georgia acquired the nickname, "Bulldogs," because of the strong ties with Yale, whose nickname is Bulldogs. Georgia's first president, Abraham Baldwin, was a Yale man and the early buildings on campus were designed from blueprints of the same building at Yale. But on Nov. 3, 1920, Morgan Blake of the Atlanta Journal wrote about school nicknames and said "The Georgia 'Bulldogs' would sound good because there is a certain dignity about a bulldog, as well as ferocity." After a 0-0 tie with Virginia in Charlottesville on Nov. 6, 1920, Atlanta Constitution writer Cliff Wheatley used the name "Bulldogs" in his story five times. The name has been used ever since.

SILVER BRITCHES

Silver Britches were an innovation of coach Wally Butts, who took over as head coach in 1939. The handsome pants, complimented by a bright red jersey, made for a striking uniform. Through the years, fans referred to the Bulldogs' silver britches in their chants and on banners, but the phrase really caught on in the early '50s with a cheer, banners and colorful vests that proclaimed "Go, You Silver Britches." Coach Vince Dooley redesigned the uniform when he came in 1964 and used white pants; however, he re-instituted the silver britches in 1980 just prior to what turned out to be Georgia's national championship season.

BETWEEN THE HEDGES

A reference to Sanford Stadium that dates back to the early 1930s. The famous English privet hedges that surround Sanford's playing field were only one foot high when the stadium was dedicated in 1929 and were protected by a wooden fence. It was natural for a clever sports writer, referring to an upcoming home game, to observe "that the Bulldogs will have their opponent 'between the hedges.'" At least one old-timer says the phrase was first coined by the legendary Atlanta sportswriter Grantland Rice.

HOW 'BOUT THEM DOGS

This is a slogan of recent vintage, but one that has become a battle cry of Bulldog fans probably because of its obvious grammatical slur. It first surfaced during the mid to late 1970s especially during the 1978 season when the Bulldogs posted several remarkable, come-from-behind victories. It gained national attention and exposure when Georgia won the national championship in 1980. A major wire-service used the phrase in its story of Georgia's victory over Notre Dame and many newspapers picked it up in glaring headlines across the country proclaiming "How 'Bout Them Dogs!"

You can find UGA X, a white English bulldog, patrolling the sidelines or in his air-conditioned dog house at Sanford Stadium on game days.

GAME DAY TRADITIONS ON CAMPUS

"LONE TRUMPETER"

Seven minutes to kickoff in Sanford Stadium, the Bulldog Nation directs its attention to a lone trumpeter standing in the upper deck of the southwest corner of the stadium. The soloist is recognized and begins to play the first 14 notes of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The Battle Hymn solo was originally composed in 1987 as a student project by Jeff Simmons and became a part of the pre-game tradition in 2000. Each year, 25-30 members of the Redcoat Band audition for one of the four or five soloist positions.

THE CHAPEL BELL

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore. In the 1890s, the playing field was located only yards from the Chapel and first-year students were compelled to ring the bell until midnight in celebration of a Bulldog victory. Today, students, alumni and townspeople still rush to the Chapel to ring the bell after a gridiron victory.

THE ARCH

Serving as the official symbol of the University of Georgia, the Arch was built in the 1850s and originally served as part of a larger iron fence securing the campus. Daniel Redfearn (BL 1909, BS 1910) is credited with making the Arch the sacred symbol of UGA. Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice, and moderation.

GLORY, GLORY

Among the University's oldest and most lasting traditions is the school fight song, "Glory, Glory" which is sung to the tune of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." It was sung at games as early as the 1890s, but arranged in its present form by Georgia's immortal musician-composer Hugh Hodgson in 1915. There have been many Bulldog songs through the years and at least two collections dating back to 1909 have been published, but none have enjoyed more acceptance than "Glory, Glory."

THE DAWG WALK

About two hours and 15 minutes before each home game, the Bulldogs are greeted and fired up by thousands of Georgia fans and the Redcoat Marching Band as they unload on Lumpkin Street, walk through the Tate Center Parking lot and in to Sanford Stadium.

REDCOAT MARCHING BAND

NOTHING FINER IN THE LAND

The University of Georgia Redcoat Band is considered by many to be the "heart" of the Bulldog Spirit. The 440-member component of the Hugh Hodgson School of Music was the first SEC band to receive the prestigious Sudler Trophy for long-term musical and visual excellence in 2000.

Dr. Michael C. Robinson is the Director of Athletic Bands and the Director of the 114th edition of the Redcoat Band. Other band directors in the School of Music include Director of Bands Dr. Cynthia Johnston-Turner, Associate Director of Bands Dr. Jaclyn Hartenberger, and Redcoat Band Associate Directors, Dr. Brett Bawcum and Rob Akridge.

An extensive staff is vital to the operation of the Redcoat Band. UGA alumnus Tom Wallace prepares the band's musical arrangements while alumnus John Cypert oversees the scoring and instruction for the UGA Drumline. The auxiliary units of the band (Georgettes, Majorettes, Flagline, and Feature Twirler) are under the leadership of Coordinators Ashley Clark and Cassie Moates, both alumnae of UGA. Dr. Tom Jackson is the voice of the Redcoat Band whileTracy Coker, Redcoat Band Administrative Assistant, oversees all office matters. The Properties Crew Chief, Emily Whittier, is responsible for the band's logistical concerns. Kappa Kappa Psi, a band service fraternity, undertakes many projects serving the entire band program. Graduate teaching assistants and other staff include Mia Athanas, Brad Barnes, Andrew Blair, Molly Blair, Taylor Brown, Brian Chaplow, Emily Eng, Cameron Figueroa, Amanda Foley, Kristina Howell, Tyler Jones, Nathan Lawrence, Cathy Marszalik, John Moates, Heather and Rhett Parker, Jon Poquette, David Stanley, and Ben Vasko.

The talented students of the Redcoat Band are the key to the organization's success. Being a Redcoat requires an academic background of significant accomplishment and a great deal of talent and preparation in one's area of performance specialty. Redcoats commit themselves to six to eight hours of rehearsal per academic week while maintaining some of the highest grade-point averages at UGA. Though some 25 percent of its members are music majors, most are pursuing degrees from many of the other academic disciplines at the university.

The uniquely diverse student population that makes up the Redcoat Band contributes to an organization of which Georgia supporters can be justifiably proud. Its colorful presence, limitless school spirit, and exciting music and motion are a part of what makes college football so special to Bulldog fans.

KEEP YOUR SEATS, EVERYONE. THE REDCOATS ARE COMING!

SPIRIT SONGS

GLORY

Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
G-E-O-R-G-I-A.
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
Glory, glory to old Georgia!
G-E-O-R-G-I-A.

HAIL TO GEORGIA

Hail to Georgia, down in Dixie!
A college honored fair and true,
The Red and Black is her standard, proudly it waves.
Streaming today and the ages through,
She's the fairest in the Southland,
We'll pledge our love to her for aye,
To that college dear we'll ring a cheer,
All hail to dear old UGA!
Hail, our Varsity of Georgia!
Thy sons will e'er thy glory sing;
To thee we'll ever be faithful, loyal and true;
Ever and aye will thy praises ring.
Grand old time of ours at Georgia
The happiest days they'll be always;
Alma mater, fair beyond compare,
All hail to dear old U-G-A!

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA ALMA MATER

From the hills of Georgia's northland
Beams thy noble brow,
And the sons of Georgia rising
Pledge with sacred vow.

'Neath the pine trees' stately shadow
Spread thy riches rare.
And thy sons, dear Alma Mater,
Will thy treasures share.

And thy daughters proudly join thee,
Take their rightful place,
Side by side into the future,
Equal dreams embrace.

Through the ages, Alma Mater,
Men will look to thee;
Thou the fairest of the Southland,
Georgia's Varsity.

(Chorus)
Alma Mater, thee we'll honor,
True and loyal be,
Ever crowned with praise and glory,
Georgia, hail to thee.

UGA CHEERLEADING HISTORY

Cheerleading at UGA, as at other institutions, just happened. It was spontaneous. When teams challenged each other, spectators showed up and naturally cheered their favorites.

Historic records show that intercollegiate sports began on the University of Georgia campus in the early 1890s. Baseball was first and football followed soon after in 1892.

Mercer was the first gridiron opponent. Georgia won that game in Athens and then took on Auburn in Atlanta in what has become the oldest continuing series in the South.

An account of that first game in the college yearbook for 1892 refers to the yelling and chanting of the spectators and identifies Bob Gantt as a leader in urging the fans to support the team. The article claims, "the college yells did almost as much to win the game as the fine playing of the team."

The report says Gantt came to the game with a mascot — a goat with red and black ribbons. Gantt, from Athens, was a member of the class of 1893. He is the first documented cheerleader for UGA.

Soon, cheerleaders were selected by the student body in special elections. Women were added to the spirit squads after their admittance in the '20s. This method of selection continued until the late '40s when a system of try-outs was introduced.

Candidates were invited to public try-outs where special judges narrowed the number of candidates to a smaller number from which the final cheerleaders were named. Judges were enlisted from a pool of professors, campus leaders, coaches, and former cheerleaders.

In the early days, cheers were submitted by classes, clubs, and students. Popular cheers survived the years along with chants and songs. In 1943, a book of these old cheers was published by the University of Georgia Press called "Georgia Songs and Yells."

Through the years the cheerleading program was overseen by a coach or athletic staff member appointed by the football coach or athletics director. Two notable cheerleader "coaches" were Dan Magill in the '40s and '50s, who was followed by Mike Castronis, who served until his health failed in the mid '80s.

A Cheerleaders Alumni Association was organized in 1970 and former spirit leaders were invited back to campus for Homecoming and invited to cheer during the game. The alumni group has officers and is supportive of the current program, which is now headed up by a spirit coordinator who oversees each aspect of cheerleading.

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

The BIRTHPLACE of PUBLIC HIGHER EDUCATION IN AMERICA

Chartered by the state of Georgia in 1785, the University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in America — launching our nation's great tradition of world-class public education. What began as a commitment to inspire the next generation grows stronger today through global research, hands-on learning and extensive outreach. A top value in public higher education, Georgia's flagship university thrives in a community that combines a culture-rich college town with a strong economic center.

JERE W. MOREHEAD

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESIDENT

JERE W. MOREHEAD
President

When Jere W. Morehead became the University of Georgia's 22nd President, he set forth a bold vision to elevate the birthplace of public higher education in America to new heights of excellence. Today, that vision is becoming a reality through hands-on student learning, expanded global research, and extensive public service and outreach.

President Morehead, an accomplished legal scholar and award-winning professor, has spearheaded efforts to strengthen undergraduate education and enhance student success. Under his tenure, UGA has become the largest public institution in the country to implement a campus-wide experiential learning initiative and has launched a number of capital projects to transform the learning environment — from the Business Learning Community and the Science Learning Center on the Athens campus to Delta Hall in the nation's capital.

UGA, which consistently ranks among the top 20 public universities in America, is known nationally for providing an outstanding value to students and their families. The academic quality of UGA's student body continues to grow stronger every year, and the University's retention and graduation rates are among the highest in the nation — a clear sign of academic excellence.

Under President Morehead's leadership, UGA's research enterprise continues to evolve to address the most pressing challenges facing Georgia, the nation, and the world. Annual research and development expenditures—a key measure of productivity — have increased by nearly 30 percent over the past five years, defying national trends. UGA is recruiting world-leading scientists to expand research capacity in fields such as infectious diseases and informatics, while also elevating graduate education to train future scholars.

As the reach of the University becomes more global, UGA remains dedicated to its land-grant mission to promote prosperity across Georgia by training the state's leaders, helping to solve pressing challenges, and promoting economic development. The latest estimate puts the University's economic impact on Georgia at $5.7B, reflecting a growing investment in the future of this state.

The University is currently in the midst of its most ambitious fundraising campaign ever, the Commit to Georgia Campaign, with a goal of raising $1.2B to amplify the positive impact of UGA faculty, staff, and students on the world. Alumni and friends are supporting the campaign at unprecedented levels. In 2018, for the fifth consecutive year, the University set a new record in annual fundraising, with donors contributing $242M in new gifts and pledges — doubling the amount raised in FY13, the year before President Morehead took office.

President Morehead is deeply engaged in discussions about the value of public higher education and the role of athletics in universities. He is a member of the Committee of Research Intensive Public Universities under the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities as well as the Council on Competitiveness. He also serves as a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Presidential Forum, the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Executive Committee, and the SEC Working Group on Student-Athlete Conduct. He formerly chaired the SEC Working Group on Compliance, Enforcement, and Governance.

President Morehead is a graduate of the University of Georgia, earning a juris doctor degree from the School of Law in 1980. After graduation, he served as an Assistant United States Attorney with the Department of Justice from 1980 to 1986, when he joined the faculty of UGA's Terry College of Business. President Morehead is serving in his sixth year as the President of the University of Georgia, having previously served in a number of key administrative roles at UGA, including Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost, Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, and Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program.

GREG McGARITY

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

GREG McGARITY
J. Reid Parker
Director of Athletics

Athens native and University of Georgia graduate Greg McGarity was named Director of Athletics at UGA on August 13, 2010, after serving 18 years in the athletic department at the University of Florida. Since then, McGarity has emphasized exploring new ideas and initiatives designed to move the organization forward in all areas: competition, academics, service, and exceptional experiences for student-athletes and supporters.

McGarity oversees a 21-sport athletics program supported by a budget of $143 million. Since he became Director of Athletics, UGA teams have won national championships in women's swimming and diving (2013, '14, '16), equestrian (2014), men's outdoor track and field (2018) and women's indoor track and field (2018) and SEC championships in football (2017), men's tennis (2011, '13, '14, '15, '16, '17) men's tennis SEC Tournament (2012, '13, '17), women's tennis (2013), women's tennis SEC Tournament (2014), women's swimming and diving (2011, '12, '13, '14, and '15), equestrian (2015, '17, and '18), and three SEC eastern division titles in football (2011, '12 and '17). The 2017 football team was also the 2018 Rose Bowl champion and College Football Playoff national runnerup. During McGarity's tenure as AD, 18 different Georgia teams have been ranked in the nation's top 20 and 10 in the top 10. Georgia's finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup, which annually measures athletic teams success in NCAA championships, has been in the top 20 every year during his tenure and as high as eighth in the 2017-18 edition.

McGarity has also been a standard bearer for academic achievement. Since his arrival, Georgia student-athletes have been the recipients of 18 NCAA Post Graduate Scholarships, 30 CoSIDA Academic All-American awards, three NCAA Top Ten honors, three SEC Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year winners, and numerous other SEC honors.

In addition, McGarity has been at the forefront of facility expansion and renovation which has totaled over $115 million. Construction projects during his tenure have included the $30 million William Porter Payne and Porter Otis Payne Indoor Athletic Facility, $63 million Sanford Stadium west end addition which features a new home locker room and recruiting facility, $7 million in improvements to Stegeman Coliseum and the Boyd Golf Center expansion, $12 million Foley Field (baseball) facility renovation and new scoreboards/video boards at baseball, softball and soccer.

Under McGarity's leadership fundraising has reached unprecedented heights. For the 2018 fiscal year, The Georgia Bulldog Club raised a record $80 million in cash and pledges to support UGA Athletics. In September of 2015 a new philanthropic arm was created, The Magill Society, which currently has over 850 members that have contributed more than $86 million to support facility projects. The Scholarship Endowment has grown to over $41 million, and five coaching and administrative positions have been endowed.

He has served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee and the NCAA National Letter of Intent Football Recruiting Group, and is currently serving on the SEC Fan Experience Working Group and the U.S. Tennis Association Athletic Director's Advisory Group.

At UF, he served as Executive Associate Athletic Director after serving as an Associate and Senior Associate AD. His duties included assisting with daily operations, assisting in preparation and approval of the annual budget, and extensive involvement in long-term planning, contracts, competition scheduling and employment searches.

McGarity was a letterman on the Bulldog tennis team and after graduation began his professional career at UGA holding positions as assistant sports information director, head women's tennis coach, and Assistant AD for facilities and event management.

McGarity is married to the former Sheryl Holland, who graduated from UGA in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science degree in education. They have one son, Alex, a graduate of the University of Florida and the University of Georgia.

ACADEMICS & COMMUNITY SERVICE

UGA STUDENT-ATHLETES SUCCEED OFF THE FIELD

The University of Georgia enjoys a long and rich tradition of academic achievement among its athletic programs. The $7.5 million Rankin M. Smith Student Athlete Academic Center provides cutting-edge resources for UGA's student-athletes to achieve their academic goals. UGA has long experienced excellence on the playing field and in the classroom.

- Georgia ranks among the top five nationally in NCAA postgraduate scholarship recipients.
- Georgia ranks in the top 10 in National Football Foundation postgraduate scholarship winners.

Through its office of Student Services, the Georgia Athletic Association has established a commitment to providing not only quality direction in its academics for student-athletes, but also involvement in community service. Numerous programs have been implemented to achieve this goal and Bulldog student-athletes are participating daily in service projects of all descriptions.

BILL HARTMAN AWARD

Highest Honor for Former UGA Student-Athletes

The Bill Hartman Award proudly recognizes the Georgia student-athletes who have distinguished themselves as alumni. Only those who were varsity athletes and who have received a bachelor's degree from UGA are to be considered for this award. The individual must have demonstrated excellence in his or her profession and/or in service to others by 20 or more years of superior performance after graduation.

The award, which is presented by the Georgia Athletic Association, was established in 1992 and is the highest honor that a former UGA student-athlete can achieve. The Bill Hartman Award is presented when a former Bulldog student-athlete with truly outstanding credentials is identified. Nomination forms may be obtained by an individual through the Georgia Athletic Association, P.O. Box 1472, Athens, Ga. 30613.

CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Fans everywhere remember freshman sensation Herschel Walker leading the 1980 Georgia Bulldogs to a perfect 12-0 record and the undisputed national championship. However, most don't realize that over the more than 100-year history of Georgia football, five Bulldog teams have actually been declared national champions at season's end by at least one of the national polls recognized by the National College Football Hall of Fame and included in the official NCAA Football Record Book.

Two of those, 1980 and 1942, were consensus selections being chosen by at least half of the recognized polls. Three other Georgia teams — 1927, 1946, and 1968, were recognized by polls such as the Williamson, based on a power ratings system, and the Litkenhous, a difference-by-score formula.

Rose Bowl Win Clinches Title

In 1942, James Wallace Butts of Milledgeville, Georgia, molded what was regarded as the Bulldogs' most powerful team in the first fifty years of Georgia football. Georgia was led by All-Americans Frank Sinkwich, who would win the Heisman Trophy following the season, and end George Poschner, along with a young back named Charley Trippi, who would years later be called perhaps the greatest all-around athlete ever to play for the Bulldogs.

Georgia knocked off nine consecutive opponents and ranked No. 1 in the nation. But Auburn ambushed the 'Dogs in Columbus, 27-13. Georgia, however, came back to win a Rose Bowl bid by blanking previously unbeaten Georgia Tech in Athens, 34-0, in the regular season finale. Georgia then edged UCLA, 9-0, in the Rose Bowl to finish the season 11-1. In the final polls, Georgia was declared national champion in six polls recognized by the NCAA — DeVold, Houlgate, Litkenhous, Williamson, Poling and Berryman.

1980 GEORGIA BULLDOGS. The Bulldogs were perfect that season under legendary head coach VINCE DOOLEY (in the center of the front row), and a win in the Sugar Bowl over Notre Dame sealed the championship claim.

1980

Undisputed Champions

Vince Dooley's 1980 national championship team was the most compelling after recording a perfect 12-0 mark including a 17-10 victory over Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl. Freshman sensation Herschel Walker helped move the Bulldogs up the poll ladder after being virtually unranked prior to the season.

Georgia had moved up to number two after defeating South Carolina, 13-10, in a battle of top 10 teams in the season's eighth game. The following week, it appeared Georgia's run was over when Florida led the 'Dogs, 21-20, with a minute and a half to play and UGA set for a final possession on its own 7-yard line. But quarterback Buck Belue, on third down and 10, hit receiver Lindsay Scott on a 93-yard TD pass with 1:04 to play to lift the 'Dogs to a 26-21 victory. The next day, Georgia was elevated to number one in the polls.

After victories over Auburn and Georgia Tech in the final two regular season games, Georgia met perhaps the most storied school in college football history — Notre Dame — in the Sugar Bowl. Led by Walker's two touchdowns, Georgia defeated the Irish, 17-10, to lay claim to its undisputed national crown. Virtually every major poll declared the Bulldogs No. 1 following a season in which Georgia was the only undefeated, untied Division 1-A team in the country.

1927

"Dream and Wonder" Team

Georgia's famous "dream and wonder team" of coach George "Kid" Woodruff won its first nine games, including the Bulldogs' first win ever over Yale, a college football power of the 1920s, in New Haven, Connecticut. It ranked No. 1 in the nation with one regular season game remaining. However, Georgia Tech spoiled the perfect season by upsetting the 'Dogs in the rain, 12-0, in Atlanta. But the '27 'Dogs were still voted number one in two final recognized polls — Boand and Poling. This team marked the culmination of five year's work by Woodruff, who had brought in several Knute Rockne protégés to install the Notre Dame box formation: line coach Harry Mehre; Jim Crowley, one of the four horsemen; and Frank Thomas. All later became great head coaches (Mehre at Georgia and Ole Miss, Crowley at Fordham and Thomas at Alabama).

Coaches HARRY MEHRE, FRANK THOMAS and KID WOODRUFF coached the Bulldogs to a No. 1 ranking in 1927.

War Heroes Return

The 1942 juggernaut was dismantled by the events of World War II. But Charley Trippi and several of his Rose Bowl teammates returned to school in 1946 and led Georgia to a perfect 10-0 regular season and 20-10 victory over North Carolina in the Sugar Bowl. But despite Georgia's perfect record, Notre Dame was declared national champion by the majority of the polls; however, the Bulldogs were voted No. 1 in the final Williamson poll.

CHARLEY TRIPPI came back to lead the Bulldogs to a No. 1 ranking again in 1946, after World War II.

1968

Dooley's 'Dogs Do It Again

In 1968, another of Vince Dooley's teams went through the regular season undefeated, but tied twice, finishing 8-0-2 and earning an invitation to the Sugar Bowl. Despite suffering a 16-2 loss in the bowl game to Arkansas, Georgia was still voted No. 1 in the Litkenhous poll.

1968 GEORGIA BULLDOGS earned a No. 1 ranking under head coach Vince Dooley, finishing 8-0-2.

GEORGIA BOWL HISTORY

54 APPEARANCES IN PROGRAM HISTORY

The Georgia Bulldogs rank second nationally with 54 bowl appearances and have been to a record 22 straight bowl games in all. Georgia's bowl tradition began on Jan. 1, 1942, defeating TCU in the Orange Bowl, 40-26. UGA set a school record with its 13th win of the season, beating Florida State, 26-13, in the 2003 Nokia Sugar Bowl.

Georgia's dramatic, 28-25, overtime win over Purdue in the 2000 Outback Bowl at the time marked the biggest comeback in bowl history (Georgia trailed 25-0), eclipsing the 22-point deficit that Notre Dame overcame in its 1979 bowl game and BYU in its 1980 bowl game.

Georgia claimed consensus national championships in 1942 and 1980 following impressive bowl wins, beating UCLA, 9-0, in the Rose Bowl and Notre Dame 17-10 in the Sugar Bowl in those respective years.

In 2017, Georgia captured the SEC title and a earned a spot in the 2018 College Football Playoff. The Bulldogs played a pair of overtime thrillers, defeating Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game and then advancing to Atlanta for the national championship game versus Alabama.

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

THE STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE

The Southeastern Conference begins its 86th season of play in 2018. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools — Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record. Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season. On July 1, 2012, the University of Missouri and Texas A&M University became members of the SEC.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992 at Legion Field in Birmingham, Alabama.

Since 2006, THE SEC has had 65 teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll, which is 21 more than any other conference.

SEC FOOTBALL: SECOND TO NONE

During the last 12 years (2006-17), Southeastern Conference football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and in the history of college football. During this tenure, the SEC's achievements have been demonstrated by:

- Triumphs in major bowl games, including the National Championship Game
- Non-conference success in regular season and bowl games
- Defeating highly-ranked non-conference teams
- Success in the polls and rankings
- Individual awards and All-America Teams
- Academic and Community Service Standouts
- Continued accomplishments of former SEC student-athletes in the NFL and NFL Draft

SEC IN THE CFP/BCS ERA

- The SEC has won nine of the last 12 national championships, 11 of the 20 BCS/CFP-era National Championships, four runner-up finishes and 25 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll). The SEC has appeared in 11 of the last 12 National Championship Games and in 10 of the 16 BCS Championship Games, winning nine.

Tennessee	7	(1993t-97-98-2001-03t-04-07t)
Missouri	2	(2013-14)
South Carolina	1	(2010)

WESTERN DIVISION

Alabama	12	(1992-93-94-96t-99-2008-09-12-13t-14-15-16)
Auburn	9	(1997t-2000-01t-02t-04-05t-10-13t-17)
LSU	8	(1996t-97t-2001t-02t-03t-05t-07-11)
Arkansas	4	(1995-98t-2002t-06)
Mississippi State	1	(1998t)
Ole Miss	1	(2003t)

- Four different SEC schools won the BCS or College Football Playoff National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2015, 2017; Florida, 2006, 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) have also won the former BCS crown. Auburn appeared in the 2013 BCS Championship Game, as did LSU in 2011. A team from the SEC Western Division had advanced to five consecutive national title games prior to the 2014 season, when Alabama lost in the CFP semifinals.
- Since 2006, over half of the slots in the National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (14 of 26). The Big Ten has three, while the Big 12, Pac-12 and ACC have two each.

SEC IN OVERALL BOWL GAMES

- Since 2006, the SEC has accrued more bowl wins (76) and appearances (121) than any other conference. The conference's .628 bowl winning percentage is first among FBS leagues during that time.

SEC IN FINAL RANKINGS

- Since 2006, the SEC has had the most teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. The conference has had 65 teams ranked in the final USA Today rankings, 21 more than the Big Ten (44) and 24 more than the Big 12 (41).

SEC FOOTBALL ACADEMIC & COMMUNITY SERVICE STANDOUTS

- Thirty-three SEC football student-athletes have won 36 national academic and community service awards since 2006. The SEC has had four of the last ten CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americas of the Year in football, two recipients of the William V. Campbell Trophy (known as the "Academic Heisman"), 17 CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-America first team recipients, seven National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes and 23 representatives on the AFCA Good Works Team, including Aaron Davis of Georgia.

SEC IN THE NFL

- The SEC has had more of its former players on NFL rosters in the last 11 seasons than any other conference. On NFL opening weekend of 2017, an all-time high of 368 former SEC players were on NFL rosters.

COMPLIANCE GUIDELINES

HOW TO COMPLY WITH THE NCAA AND SEC

The University of Georgia enjoys a rich tradition of success both on and off the fields of competition. This success would not be possible without the support of our loyal alumni and fans.

As an alumnus and supporter, it is important to understand the general NCAA and SEC guidelines. As representatives of the University of Georgia's athletic interests, alumni and fans are held to the same standards as our coaches and athletic administrators. When a violation occurs, whether intentional or unintentional, the University of Georgia is held responsible. In the case of an NCAA infraction involving alumni or fans, there is a possibility the University may have to disassociate itself with the involved individuals.

In regards to a high school athlete who may be considering UGA, DO NOT attempt to contact that prospect, their coach, parents, relatives or high school administrators. Similarly, it is important to be careful when dealing with enrolled student-athletes as NCAA rules restrict certain activities you may engage in. In both instances, please call our Compliance Office before you have any type of contact. The telephone number is (706) 542-9103.

Please help us continue our winning tradition. I thank you in advance for your cooperation.

FAN EDUCATION

NCAA rules specify that only countable coaches identified by UGA may contact (telephone, written or in-person) prospective student-athletes, parents or legal guardians on or off UGA's campus. As a "booster" to our athletic program you are prohibited from:

- Providing or arranging benefits for student-athletes.
- Telephoning, writing or contacting a prospective student-athlete (PSA), parent or legal guardian.
- Contacting a PSA via social media or otherwise.
- Approaching or speaking to a prospective student-athlete.
- Visiting a PSA's high school.
- Attending the college announcement of a PSA.

NCAA rules do allow you to:

- Receive (not make or return) telephone calls from prospective student-athletes in a very limited capacity. The prospective student-athlete must initiate the call and the call must not be for recruiting purposes.
- Answer questions about UGA in general (i.e. academics); however, it is not permissible to answer any questions about the sports program or athletics in general.

Any questions about a specific sport or the athletics program must be referred to the UGA coaching staff. Thank you, and we appreciate your support of UGA and remember to "Ask Before You Act!" Follow us on twitter @UGACompliance and on Facebook at Facebook.com/UGACompliance.

MAGILL SOCIETY

CREATING GEORGIA EXCELLENCE

The Magill Society is the new leadership giving arm of The Georgia Bulldog Club. This organization is philanthropic in nature with its members invested in the success of Georgia Athletics.

Established in 2015, the Magill Society recognizes those that make commitments of $25,000 and above, separate from their priority funds, to the University of Georgia Athletic Association.

In recognition of their generous support, members of the Magill Society gain access to some exclusive stewardship opportunities. Commitments to the Magill Society will be used to fund our current facility projects; the Indoor Athletics Facility, enhancements to Stegeman Coliseum, Jack Turner Soccer Stadium renovation, and the Sanford Stadium west end zone project. Through their generosity and support, Magill Society members will help catapult Georgia athletic facilities exponentially. We are very grateful to all those that have stepped up and joined the Magill Society.

GEORGIA BULLDOGS SPORTS MARKETING

SALES, MARKETING & NEW MEDIA

Georgia Bulldogs Sports Marketing, a joint venture between IMG College and JMI Sports, is the exclusive multimedia rights holder for the University of Georgia Athletic Association.

Georgia Bulldogs Sports Marketing produces and markets a variety of sponsorship opportunities supporting UGA Athletics, including live radio play-by-play and the weekly Bulldogs Live coaches' shows on the Georgia Bulldogs Sports Network; television coaches' shows, including Inside Georgia Football with Coach Kirby Smart and Inside Georgia Basketball with Coach Tom Crean, on local/ regional television; advertisement in athletics publications; on the official athletics website (www.georgiadogs.com) and mobile app, signage and retail promotions at university athletic events and oversight of intellectual property rights. Georgia Bulldogs Sports Marketing is led by Chief Revenue Officer, Ryan Gribble, and Chief Operating Officer, Tom McDonald.

IMG College is the leading multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company in America and represents more than 200 of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 89 championships, most of the major conferences, and many of the nation's most prestigious colleges and universities.

JMI Sports is a full-service collegiate marketing firm providing the highest quality management of athletics multimedia rights and breaking new ground in the creation of campus-wide sponsorship programs, maximizing the economic potential of universities. JMI Sports is also a highly regarded project manager for the development of collegiate and professional sports facilities.

GEORGIA BULLDOGS SPORTS NETWORK

RADIO AFFILIATES

Bulldog fans can follow their favorite team throughout the 2018 season on the Georgia Bulldogs Sports Network, which will feature one of the nation's best-known flagship stations, an affiliate list that ranks among the country's largest, and production supplied by the premier college sports marketing and radio production company in America.

IMG provides radio network production for more than 50 major college athletic programs in the SEC and other prominent conferences.

Day-to-day management of the network will be overseen through a joint partnership between IMG College, which has handled the sales and marketing of Bulldog sports for the past nine years, and JMI Sports.

The network flagship is Atlanta's News/Talk 750 WSB and 95.5 FM. Additionally, every SEC football game will be carried live on Sirius XM Radio as part of a broadcast & marketing agreement between the SEC and the satellite radio provider.

The voice of Scott Howard has become synonymous with Georgia athletics. He returns for his 25th season behind the microphone at both Georgia football and basketball games. One of Georgia's greatest quarterbacks ever, Eric Zeier, begins his 11th season as a color analyst on the network. A native of Wrightsville, Georgia, Loran Smith continues his long association with the Georgia Network as co-host of the popular pre-game "Tailgate Show." A UGA graduate and veteran of more than 36 years of sports broadcasting in Georgia, Neil Williamson co-hosts the Network's "Tailgate Show" with Smith and also hosts halftime and postgame programs. Longtime TV sports anchor Chuck Dowdle serves not only as the in-game sideline reporter, but also as host of the postgame "Locker Room Show." Entering his 14th year as a member of the UGA Football radio crew, Tony Schiavone is the on-air engineer/producer. Longtime UGA broadcaster Jeff Dantzler and Bulldog All-America kicker Kevin Butler appear on the airwaves multiple times during each football weekend.

THE 2018 GEORGIA BULLDOGS SPORTS NETWORK CREW
