Georgia In The Rankings This Week

*The Bulldogs (9-1, 7-1 SEC) are a consensus No. 4 in the Associated Press, US LBM Coaches and FWAA-NFF top 25 polls. The latest CFP ranking will be out Tuesday. Georgia was No. 5 in all the polls last week.

Dominating Between The Hedges

*Under Kirby Smart, Georgia is 55-5 at home since 2016. *Georgia's 2025 Senior Class is 48-5 overall and 24-1 at home. They have won a national title (2022) and two SEC crowns (2022, 2024) in their career. *The Bulldogs are 41-3 against non-conference teams in the Smart era including 24-1 at home. The only non-conference loss at home came in 2016 to Ga. Tech (28-27). The other two came in New Orleans: the 2019 Sugar Bowl (#15 Texas 28-21) and the 2025 CFP quarterfinal at the Sugar Bowl (#5 Notre Dame 23-10).

Fast Facts On The Georgia-Charlotte Game

*Fourth-ranked Georgia (9-1, 7-1 SEC) concludes the regular season with a pair of non-conference games. On Saturday at 12:45 p.m., Georgia plays host to Charlotte (1-9) for the first time. Last Saturday in Athens, the Bulldogs beat No. 10 Texas 35-10 while the 49ers fell 28-7 at home to UTSA. *The 49ers beat Monmouth 42-35 in Charlotte on Sept. 13 but has dropped their past seven games. *The Bulldogs first football season came in 1892, and they rank ninth in FBS history with 901 wins. Charlotte is in its 13th season in school history and its 11th competing at the FBS level.

"Hard To Kill"

*Georgia trailed early and/or late in seven of its eight SEC games this year, and it went 6-1 in those contests. The Bulldogs rallied to beat No. 15 Tennessee and Auburn on the road for their ninth straight victory in those series, outlasted No. 5 Ole Miss in Athens, won their fifth straight over Florida in Jacksonville, erased an early 7-0 deficit at MSU with 38 unanswered points and eventually recorded a 41-21 decision for the program's 900th all-time win. Georgia used a 21-point fourth quarter to dispatch No. 10 Texas 35-10 to close out the SEC regular season. Georgia is now 40-3 in its last 43 SEC regular season games.

*Georgia blanked then No. 17 Alabama and Auburn in the second half while Kentucky's lone second half score came on a 23-yard drive with 1:51 left in the contest and the Bulldogs up 35-7. Trailing 35-26, Georgia outscored No. 5 Ole Miss 17-0 in the 4th quarter in its 43-35 win. Against Florida, Georgia fell behind 20-17 early in the 4th quarter, took the lead for good with 4:36 left and posted a pair of 4th-Down stops including one in the Red Zone as UF came in 22-for-23 there. *The only league contest where Georgia led wire-to-wire was a 35-14 home win over UK while the only comeback that fell short came to then No. 17 UA 24-21 in Athens.

Playing With FPE (Fire, Passion & Energy)

*One of Georgia's main themes in 2025 is to play with "FPE."

*Fifty-four percent of Georgia's roster consists of players in their first or second season here. *Redshirt junior QB Gunner Stockton is in his first season as a starter, and he has accounted for 27 TDs (19 passing, 8 rushing). The school record is 39 by Aaron Murray in 2012. Stockton is a semifinalist for the Maxwell, the Davey O'Brien and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Awards. *Stockton led the Bulldogs to a 44-41 win in overtime against No. 15 Tennessee in front of a crowd of 101,915. Georgia trailed five different times including in OT. At Auburn, he rallied the Bulldogs in the second half to a 20-10 victory. He sparked Georgia's comeback against No. 5 Ole Miss with a perfect second half, going 12-for-12 for 135 yards and 3 TDs in a 43-35 victory. He was brilliant in a 35-10 win over No. 10 Texas, going 24-for-29 for 229 yards and four TDs plus ran for another. *Junior ILB CJ Allen, who ranks 2nd in the SEC in average tackles per game at 7.8, is a semifinalist for the Butkus Award, the Chuck Bednarik Award and Lott IMPACT Trophy.

*Due to injuries, Georgia started six different offensive line units in the first six games. The regular lineup returned for the past four contests. They helped pave the way for 34 first downs and 515 total yards in the win over No. 5 Ole Miss, 361 yards in beating Florida, a season-high 567 yards of total offense including a season-best 303 rushing yards in the road victory over MSU and a 35-10 rout of No. 10 Texas to close out SEC action.

*The Bulldog defense has posted 17 scoreless quarters this season.

SMART Football

*Kirby Smart is in his 10th season at the helm of his alma mater with a 114-20 mark. He is one of only two active coaches (Dabo Swinney, Clemson) with multiple national championships.

*Smart has the most FBS wins by a coach in his first 10 seasons in the modern era. The previous best was Bob Stoops who went 109-24 at Oklahoma from 1999-2008.

*Georgia is the only team in the CFP-era to win back-to-back national titles, doing it in 2021-2022. *The Bulldogs completed the SEC regular season gauntlet with a 7-1 mark. Based on how undefeated Texas A&M (10-0, 7-0 SEC) and Alabama (9-2, 6-1 SEC) finish in league play will determine if the Bulldogs advance to the 2025 SEC Championship Game.

*In 2024, the Bulldogs made their fourth straight appearance in the SEC Championship Game (SECCG) and seventh overall trip under Smart. After a 22-19 overtime win over then No. 2 Texas, the Bulldogs claimed their 15th SEC title in school history and the No. 2 seed in the CFP.

Frazier & Bowens Headline Ground Attack

Georgia is averaging 190.3 rushing yards per game with 23 TDs. *Sophomore Nate Frazier (team-high 647 yards, 3 TDs) has started seven games including the first four contests. He had a team-best 72 rushing yards plus a three-yard TD catch in the win over No. 5 OM. He went for a career-high 181 yards on just 12 carries (15.1 avg.) in a road win over MSU. It was the most yards by a Bulldog since 2018 when D'Andre Swift had 186 in a win at Auburn. Frazier's big day included a career-best 59-yard TD run. He followed that up with a team-best 72 yards against No. 10 Texas. *Redshirt freshman Chauncey Bowens (493 yards, 6 TDs) made his first career start in the win over UK and provided 70 yards on a career-high 15 carries. Against No. 17 UA, he posted a career-best 119 yards on 12 carries (9.9 average). He had a 36-yard scamper for the go-ahead score in the 4th quarter in the win over UF. *Senior Cash Jones, redshirt senior Josh McCray, and sophomore Dwight Phillips Jr., provide various looks too. *The Bulldogs had 55 rushes for 198 yards in the win at No. 15 UT. Frazier had a team-long 21-yard burst on the first play in overtime to set up the game-winning score by McCray who notched a pair of scores in the triumph. *Jones can break tackles, is a solid blocker and wideout. He had a 16-yard TD catch versus UK and recovered an onside kick versus No. 10 Texas.

Branch Setting The Tone For the Wideouts

The Bulldogs are averaging 238.1 receiving yards a game with 20 TDs. *Junior Zachariah Branch (59-for-583 yards, 3 TDs), the SEC leader in average catches a game (5.9), has moved into a tie for third in school history for most catches in a single season. Brice Hunter tallied 76 in 1993 followed by Brock Bowers with 63 in 2022 while Branch is part of a quartet of Bulldogs who have compiled 59 receptions, including Dominic Lovett in 2024.

*With senior Colbie Young (23-for-336 yards, 1 TD) sidelined now with a leg injury (happened in the win over No. 5 OM), Branch and seniors Noah Thomas (12-for-186 yards, 4 TDs), Dillon Bell (20-for-224 yards, 1 TD) and junior London Humphreys (18-for-276 yards, 3 TDs) are the top pass catchers.

*Thomas has the longest catch of the season, a 64-yard TD against MSU. He got his first score as a Bulldog on a 22-yarder against UF for a 17-10 lead. With two TD catches against No. 10 Texas, he has four in the past three games.

*Branch posted a career high 10 receptions for 112 yards in the neutral site victory over UF. He had a team-high eight catches for 71 yards in the win over No. 5 OM. Branch had five catches for 69 yards in the win at No. 15 UT, including a 36-yard TD and the game-tying 2-point conversion with 2:32 left.

*Humphreys had THE catch of the season. Down 38-30 with 2:38 remaining in the game at No. 15 UT, it was 4th-and-6. He hauled in a 28-yard touchdown strike from Gunner Stockton.

For Whom The Bell Totes

Senior Dillon Bell has shown he can catch it, run it and even throw it.

*As a wideout this year, he has 20 catches for 224 yards and one TD. In the win over No. 5 OM, he had two receptions for 57 yards. Bell has 10 career TD receptions. He had four catches for 43 yards and a TD in the win over UF.

*Bell has flashed in the running game too with a 43-yard dash on a reverse against No. 17 UA. He had two scores in the win against UK. Against No. 5 OM, he had two rushes for 19 yards. For the year, he has 86 yards on 11 carries. Bell has five career rushing TDs in 45 attempts.

*In 2023, he threw an 18-yard TD in a road win over Tennessee.

Ready Or Not, It's Go Time

Due to injuries, Georgia used a different starting OL unit in its first six games but have been able to keep the same unit for the past four contests.

*Redshirt senior Micah Morris (LG) and Drew Bobo (C) are the only two linemen to start every game. The Bulldogs have employed three different starting RGs, two different LTs and four different RTs.

*Junior LT Monroe Freeling had the longest the starting streak on the line at 10 games, but he left the UK game in the first quarter with a leg injury and did not return. He didn't start at AU but did earn SEC OL of the Week honors.

*Bobo was named Outland Trophy National Player of the Week for his performance in leading the line in the road win over No. 15 UT.

*True freshman Juan Gaston Jr. has started at RG and RT while true freshman Dontrell Glover has started the last six games at RG.

*RS-junior Earnest Greene III (RT), who has 29 career starts, has been hampered with a back issue during his career. He returned to his starting role in the win over No. 5 OM after missing the previous three games.

*RS-freshmen Bo Hughley saw action at RT in the win at No. 15 UT, made his first career start there against No. 17 UA plus started at LT against AU.

*The Bulldogs did not allow a sack in their first two games before the Vols collected four. Still, when the UT game was on the line, the offensive line came through. In overtime, it was three rushing plays for 25 yards that rallied the No. 6 Bulldogs to victory. Also of note, when Georgia trailed No. 15 UT 21-17 to start the 3rd quarter, the Bulldogs leaned on their running game, going 75 yards for a TD on 14 plays (13 rushes) to take their first lead.

Did You Know?* Gaston joined Andrew Thomas (RT, 2017) as the only true freshman offensive lineman to start a season opener in the Smart era. Thomas went on to be a first round pick (fourth overall selection) in the 2020 NFL draft by the New York Giants. He remains a starter for the Giants.

Tight Ends Always In The Game Plan

Currently, six former Bulldog tight ends are in the NFL, most notably Brock Bowers (Las Vegas). The Bulldogs aim to continue that trend.

*Junior Lawson Luckie (11 rec., 87 yards, 4 TDs) and senior Oscar Delp (17 rec., 235 yards, 1 TD) are playing the lead roles. Redshirt freshmen Jaden Reddell has appeared in every game this year while freshman Elyiss Williams (6 rec., 109 yards, 1 TD) has been targeted of late.

*Williams' lone catch in the win at MSU was a big one, covering 24 yards on a 3rd-and-11 play. He had one catch for 14 yards in the win over UF.

*Against No. 5 OM, Luckie became the first Bulldog with three TD catches in a game since 2008 (Mohamed Massaquoi vs. Ga. Tech).

*Highly-touted freshmen Ethan Barbour went down with a leg injury in game two (Austin Peay) and has been out since September. He joined Delp in the starting lineup in the opener while Williams notched a 23-yard TD on his first career catch. Delp also did that in 2022 against South Carolina.

*In the road win over No. 15 UT, Luckie had three catches for 25 yards while Delp had one for 18 yards. Georgia posted a season-high 502 yards of offense.

*A tight end did not have a catch against Austin Peay, marking the first time that happened since a 2021 win over Arkansas. Georgia was 7-for-11 that day.

Did You Know?* Luckie is a second generation Bulldog. His father Mike (LB) was part of Bulldog triplets from 1996-98 (uncles Dustin-LB and Miles-C).

Defense Looking Better In The Second Half

Georgia has had 55 players drafted over the past five seasons, including 30 on defense and 11 of those defenders have gone in the first round.

*Opponents have scored 188 points this year (18.8 ppg/19th nationally).

*In 2025, opponents have scored 62 points in the 1st quarter (21 of those at #15 UT) and 44 in the 2nd quarter. However, in the 2nd half, the Bulldogs have allowed a total of 79 points (plus 3 points in OT).

*No. 10 Texas averaged 29.6 points/game and managed just 10 points.

*No. 5 OM scored 14 in the 3rd quarter and then were shut out in the 4th quarter.

*Shut out Auburn in the 2nd half after trailing 10-3 at the half in 20-10 win.

*Blanked No. 17 UA in the 2nd half after it scored 24 points in the first half.

*UK had seven points in the 1st half, and it's final TD came courtesy of a 23-yard drive following a turnover with 1:51 left and Georgia up 35-7.

*Georgia had a 38-7 lead at MSU before allowing 14 points in the 2nd half.

Stopping The Run Starts Up Front

Georgia ranks 11th nationally, allowing only 92.5 rushing yards a game. Last Saturday, No. 10 Texas arrived to Sanford Stadium with a 135.3 rushing average and managed just 23 yards on 17 attempts.

*No. 15 Tennessee averaged 252.5 rushing yards and 605 yards of total offense/game and Georgia limited them to 125 rushing yards (34 att.) and 496 yards of total offense. Also of note, No. 5 OM had just 88 rushing yards.

*No. 17 UA was held to 117 yards (38 att.) for a 3.1 average while UK averaged 188 yards and finished with only 45 yards on 22 attempts.

*Redshirt junior Christen Miller and juniors Jordan Hall and Gabe Harris Jr., are the veterans up front with redshirt sophomore Xzavier McLeod now stepping in for the injured Hall the past three games. McLeod made his first career start at MSU and tallied three tackles.

*Miller had two tackles and three QB pressures versus No. 15 UT and five tackles, a half sack and three QB pressurers against MSU.

*Harris Jr., had a career-high five stops at AU and made four in the win at MSU.

*Redshirt freshmen Joseph Jonah-Ajonye, Nnamdi Ogboko, redshirt sophomore Josh Horton (Miami) and freshmen Elijah Griffin and JJ Hanne are in the rotation.

*Jonah-Ajonye posted a career-high three stops versus Austin Peay. Griffin had two tackles each against UK and AU while Horton, who has shown an ability to win one-on-one battles, made three tackles against No. 17 UA. Ogboko got his first career sack versus UK.

Steady Linebacking Trio Sees Next Wave Emerging

Juniors CJ Allen and Raylen Wilson are the tackle leaders with sophomore Quintavius Johnson rounding out the trio that has started every game. They combined for 2.5 of the team's three sacks in the road win over MSU while Johnson and freshman Zayden Walker each had a sack against No. 10 Texas.

*Allen (78 tackles, 7 TFL, 3.5 Sacks) ranks among the SEC leaders with 7.8 tackles per game. He has been the team's leading tackler in seven of 10 games this year with a career-high 13 stops in the win over UF. He notched his first career forced fumble and fumble recovery in the win over UK and then forced a key fumble at the goal line at AU. He made a team-high 10 tackles, a sack, two TFL at AU and followed that with 10 stops versus No. 5 OM. He left the game versus No. 10 Texas in the first half due to a leg injury.

*Also, Allen is a semifinalist for Lott IMPACT Trophy, the Bednarik Award, the Butkus Award and the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year Award.

*Wilson (56 tackles, 5 TFL, 2.5 Sacks) collected a career-best nine stops and three QB pressures in the road win over No. 15 UT and made six tackles plus

GEORGIA BULLDOGS

1.5 sacks and four QB pressures in the road victory over MSU.

*Johnson made a career-best five stops in the win over UK. Johnson forced a fumble at MSU and finished with five stops and 0.5 sacks.

*Sophomore Chris Cole, who has three sacks, saw extensive playing time against No. 10 Texas when Allen left in the first half with an injury. Cole set a career-high with a team-best seven stops in the win over the Longhorns. Cole made six tackles with one sack and two QB pressures against No. 15 Tennessee.

*Sophomore Justin Williams posted a career-high six stops versus UK, collected five tackles at MSU and made four stops against No. 10 Texas.

*Freshman Zayden Walker has come on of late. He made an impact at MSU, tallying a career-high three stops. Then, he picked up his first career sack in the win over No. 10 Texas plus forced a fumble.

A Passing Grade

Georgia's opponents are averaging 214.6 passing yards per game and have thrown for 11 TDs this season. Georgia's been tested the past two weeks. Against No. 10 Texas, the Longhorns had 251 yards on 43 attempts but only one catch was more than 25 yards. The Bulldogs had three sacks against UT who finished 2-for-12 on 3rd Downs and 2-for-3 on 4th Downs.

*Georgia limited MSU to 173 passing yards and no TD catches. MSU was averaging 250.6 passing yards and posted just two explosive plays (20+ yards) with only one of those via the pass and that was late in the 4th quarter.

*The Bulldog defense has five interceptions and generated 14 sacks.

*The top passing attack to date came at No. 15 Tennessee as the Vols were averaging 352 yards, and Joey Aguilar tallied 371 yards in a shootout. Coming in to that game, the Bulldogs had not allowed a passing TD, and the Vols collected four on the day including three big ones that covered 32, 56 and 72 yards.

*Junior Joemel Agüero, who made a career-best seven tackles versus the Vols, and sophomore KJ Bolden came up with interceptions in the road win. This duo was tested in the road win over MSU. Bolden made a career-high 10 stops and recovered a fumble while Agüero tied his career high with seven tackles.

*Ty Simpson and No. 17 UA netted 280 passing yards, completing 25 of 39 attempts plus featured a 68% conversion rate (13-of-19) on 3rd Down.

*Kentucky completed 25-of-41 passes for 225 yards and two scores. Redshirt freshman Ellis Robinson IV had an INT plus a career-high four tackles.

*In Georgia's win at Auburn, the Tigers were 19-for-31 for 137 yards and one sack. Their longest completions was 18 yards. No. 5 Ole Miss threw for 263 yards and one TD (a 75-yard strike to start the 2nd half for a 28-20 lead).

*Senior Daylen Everett, the MVP of the 2024 SEC Championship Game, entered 2025 with a team-best 28 consecutive starts but that was snapped when he missed the opener due to an injury and returned for week two. He made six stops against No. 17 UA and five against AU to lead the secondary.

* Sophomore Kyron Jones, senior JaCorey Thomas, junior Daniel Harris, redshirt freshman Demello Jones and true freshman Rasean Dinkins have seen the most action.

Kyron Jones, who started the first six games and posted a career-high 10 stops at UT, injured his foot the week of the Ole Miss game and has been out. Thomas has started the past four games. Against UF, Zion Branch made six stops while Thomas had five. After missing the MSU game, Demello Jones returned and made four stops and a PBU versus No. 10 Texas.

We're Going For It!

In the Kirby Smart era, the Bulldogs have a 64% success rate on 4th Down Conversion attempts (90-for-141) with 17 TDs.

*In 2025, Georgia is 9-for-12 with 3 TDs on 4th Down to rank T6th nationally at 75% . The latest conversion came against #5 Texas with Georgia leading 14-10 late in the 3rd quarter on a 4th-and-1 at the UGA 36. Gunner Stockton completed a 10-yard pass to Chauncey Bowens. The Bulldogs would later score on the drive and go on to win 35-10.

* The Bulldogs were 2-for-3 on 4th Down in the win at Auburn including a 4th-and-1 at the AU 37 that helped set up the go-ahead 53-yard field goal in the 3rd quarter. Also, there was a 4th-and-3 at the AU 40 with 5:14 left in the contest. It was part of the clinching go-ahead TD drive that lasted a school record-tying eight minutes and 45 seconds.

*Down 38-30 with 2:38 remaining in the game against No. 15 Tennessee in Knoxville, Georgia converted a 4th-and-6 at the UT 28 for a TD (Stockton pass-to-Humphreys). Also that day, Georgia trailed 21-7 in the 1st quarter and converted a 4th-and-3 at the UGA 48.

Did You Know? The only other fourth quarter 4th down conversion featuring a TD pass when Georgia was behind under Smart came in 2016 at Missouri. The Bulldogs trailed 27-21 with 1:31 left in the game and faced a 4th-and-10. Jacob Eason hit Isaiah McKenzie for a 20-yard TD in a 28-27 win.

*In 2024, Georgia led the SEC and ranked 16th nationally in 4th Down Conversions at 67% (18-for-27 with 4 TDs).

G'day Mate! Thorson Returns

With elite distance, hang time, placement and a strong coverage unit, All-America senior punter Brett Thorson and the Bulldogs rank 11th nationally in Net Punting at 42.65. On Nov. 14, Thorson became a three-time semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award, which goes to the nation's top punter. The three finalists for the 2025 award will be announced Nov. 25. He is a two-time finalist.

*Boomed a season-long 66-yarder versus Florida in Jacksonville and 60-yarders versus UK and at AU to give him six of those in his career. Four times in his career, Georgia hasn't had to punt in a game, the most recent time was in the win over No 5. Ole Miss this season.

*Thorson's career average of 45.25 (6,245/138) is very close to the school record held by Jake Camarda (45.81 from 2018-21). Also, Camarda holds the school record for Career Net Average at 41.5, and Thorson could end up with that mark as he stands at 42.7.

*In his first two games in 2025, Thorson was named to the "Ray's 8," the weekly Ray Guy Award group. At #15 Tennessee, he had three punts for a 47.7 average including a long of 52 with two placed inside the 20 and no return yards.

*In the 2024 SEC Championship Game, Thorson's season ended due to a knee injury during a return after a punt. He missed the 2025 opener while still recovering with redshirt freshman Drew Miller serving as the punter. Thorson returned to his starting role in week two versus Austin Peay.

* A native of Melbourne, Australia, Thorson was a 2024 finalist for the Ray Guy Award (47.6 avg. on 42 punts, the second best mark in school history).

* Thorson's social media features a comedic slant about his lack of playing time because the Bulldogs punted a record low 32 times in 2023 (14 games) and 36 punts in 2022 (15 games), the two lowest totals dating to at least 1948.

* Along with Cole Speer, gunners in 2025 have included KJ Bolden, London Humphreys, Daniel Harris, Jeremy Bell and Talyn Taylor.

Geaux Dawgs

Junior All-SEC specialist Peyton Woodring, a native of Lafayette, La., is a two-time Lou Groza Award semifinalist. This year, he has twice been named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week.

*Woodring's Career FG% of 88.52% (54-of-61) is on track for a school record as the current mark belongs to Rodrigo Blankenship who posted an 82.47% from 2016-19, making 80-of-97 attempts. Blankenship holds the Georgia and SEC record for Career PATs, going 200-for-200. Woodring ranks second in school history as he's 159-for-159 in PATs.

*In 2025, he has a team-high 76 points (12-13 on FGs, 40-for-40 on PATs, 61 Kickoffs, 42 Touchbacks, 4 Out of Bounds).

*Successful onside kick against No. 10 Texas when No. 5 Georgia led 21-10 in the 4th quarter on its way to a 35-10 victory, first one recovered since 2013.

*Named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week after Georgia's 41-21 rout of MSU in Starkville, scoring 11 points including a 46- and 49-yard field goals.

*Scored 13 points in 43-35 win over #5 OM, hit a 51-yard FG on opening drive, a 35-yarder to end the first half to cut the deficit to one and nailed a 42-yarder to extend lead to eight with 2:06 left to play.

*Tallied eight points and hit a season-long 53-yard FG in the 20-10 win at AU. Missed a 45-yarder which snapped a streak of 10 straight field goals made.

*Named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week in 44-41 OT road win versus #15 Tennessee, accounted for 12 points including a 48-yard FG plus eight kickoffs, all touchbacks.

*Returns have been rare but Cash Jones, Kyron Jones, Raylen Wilson, Justin Williams and Chris Cole have made special teams tackles.

Did You Know? After missing three of his first seven field goal attempts as a freshman in 2023, he's been good on 50 of his past 54 FG (3 of those misses were from 50+ yards while one was from 45 yards).

Snap Judgment: Gardner Returns In Specialist Role

In 2024, San Francisco native Beau Gardner, a graduate transfer from UCLA, became Georgia's first finalist for the Patrick Mannelly Award (nation's best long snapper). He is back in 2025.

*Snapped on 52 out of 53 PAT/Field Goal attempts plus 34 Punts in 2025.

Back Deep For The Bulldogs

The experienced kickoff returners include USC transfer junior Zachariah Branch (Career: 39-for-752 yards, 1 TD including 10 for 205 yards for UGA) and graduate Cash Jones (4-for-58 yards in 2024; None in 2025). Branch went for a season-high 134 all-purpose yards in the win over No. 10 Texas.

*Branch was named to the Paul Hornung Award Honor Roll for his performance in the road win over No. 15 Tennessee. He had five catches for 69 yards including a 36-yard TD, caught the game-tying two-point conversion with 2:32 left in regulation, had one KOR for 28 yards and one rush for four yards.

*At punt returner, Branch has done this as well during his career with the Trojans and Bulldogs (Career: 38-for-495 yards, 1 TD including 9 for 89 yards for UGA). In 2023, Branch won The Jet Award for the nation's top returner. Also, redshirt-freshman Sacovie White-Helton has two PR for 31 yards.

*In the season opener against Marshall, the Bulldogs did not have any kick returns while Branch had three PR for 24 yards. KJ Bolden blocked a Marshall punt and was credited with a two-yard return.

Did You Know?* Georgia's last punt return for a TD came in 2023 (Mekhi {MUH-kye} Mews vs. Ball State, 69 yards)

Did You Know?* Georgia's last KOR for a TD came in 2016 (Terry Godwin @ South Carolina, 43 yards)

It's Blocked

Under Kirby Smart, the Bulldogs have blocked eight punts and eight field goals. There's two players on the current squad with a block for Georgia.

*In the 2025 season opener against Marshall, KJ Bolden blocked a punt that led to an eventual TD after the Bulldogs recovered it at the MU20. Junior DB Joanel Agüero blocked a Florida punt in 2023 that resulted in a safety.

*Junior transfer OLB Elo MODOZIE blocked field goal attempts by Rice and Notre Dame in 2024 while playing for Army. Senior transfer DB Adrian Maddox blocked a field goal attempt by Prairie View A&M in 2022 while playing for Alabama State.

Did You Know?* Georgia's last blocked field goal came in 2024 by Dan Jackson against Auburn. He is now with the Detroit Lions on IR.

2025 SEC Legends Class Features Randy Johnson

On Oct. 22, the Southeastern Conference announced its 2025 SEC Football Legends class presented by T-Mobile, an assemblage of former football standouts who will be honored at events surrounding the SEC Football Championship Game in Atlanta in December. The 2025 Legends class includes 16 former stars who excelled on the gridiron for their respective school.

Randy Johnson (UGA 1973-75), a native of Rome, Ga., was a standout offensive lineman who earned consensus All-America honors in 1975. He was a two-time First Team All-SEC selection, earned the Jacobs Blocking Award and was named the SEC Lineman of the Year in his career. After playing three seasons in the NFL, he dedicated 30 years to teaching and coaching before retiring. He was inducted into Georgia's Circle of Honor in 2021.

On Deck: Ga. Tech at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Nov. 28

Fourth-ranked Georgia will close out the regular season on Black Friday in Atlanta against Ga. Tech (9-1, 6-1 ACC) at Mercedes-Benz Stadium. Kickoff will be at 3:30 p.m. and be televised by ABC. Georgia has won seven straight in the series including a 44-42 thriller in eight overtimes last year in Athens. Tech was No. 16 in last week's CFP rankings. This past Saturday, they hit a field goal in the final seconds to outlast one-win Boston College 36-34.

On Saturday, they play host to Pittsburgh (7-3, 5-1 ACC) at 7 p.m. on ESPN.

SMART TRIVIA

*Georgia's 114 wins since 2016 trails only Alabama (118) in that span among all FBS teams.

*During his Georgia career as head coach, Kirby Smart has had as many first round NFL draft picks (20) as losses (20). A total of 76 Bulldogs have been drafted in the Smart era, and his coaching record is 109-20.

*During Georgia's 33-game home winning streak from 2019-2025, the Bulldogs beat 10 ranked teams including No. 1 Tennessee in 2022, No. 7 Tennessee in 2024, No. 7 Auburn in 2020, No. 8 Kentucky in 2021 and No. 9 Ole Miss in 2023. Georgia is 50-2 at home since 2017.

*What do Kirby Smart and Knute Rockne have in common? They registered their 100th career win in just 117 games! That ranks as the fifth fastest in NCAA FBS history behind Gil Dobie (108), George Woodruff (109), Bud Wilkinson (111) and Fielding Yost (114).

Academic & Community Service In The Smart Era

* The University of Georgia ranked No. 19 in U.S. News & World Report's 2026 ranking of the best public universities in the nation, marking the 10th consecutive year that UGA has placed in the top 20.

*The 2025 Bulldogs feature 11 players who will wear the "SEC Graduate" patch on their uniform during the regular season: Liam Badger, Dillon Bell, Luke Bennett, Oscar Delp, Elijah Greene III, Cash Jones, Gunner Stockton, Beau Gardner (UCLA), Josh McCray (Illinois), Micah Morris and Brett Thorson.

* A total of 290 players have made the SEC Academic Honor Roll including a high of 48 in 2024.

* Under Smart, Bulldogs have been named National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Society Members 19 times. The society is comprised of football players from all divisions who maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better in their career, were starters or significant contributors and have completed their final year of eligibility. The most recent members were Beau Gardner and Charlie Ham.

* Ladd McConkey, a 2nd round pick of the L.A. Chargers in 2024, became the 15th Bulldog since 1966 to be named a Campbell Trophy finalist and NFF National Scholar-Athlete Award winner. He received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship. Georgia leads the SEC and is tied for sixth nationally with its 15 honorees. Senior Oscar Delp was a 2025 Campbell Trophy semifinalist.

* Members of the football team play in the annual Bulldogs Battling Breast Cancer charity golf tournament in the summer. It has raised more than $2 million since the event began in 2004. This year, former Bulldog and NFL standout Jordan Jenkins is donating $100 per sack that the Bulldogs record in 2025.

* In 2024, Malaki Starks became the 24th Bulldog since 1992 to earn a spot on the AFCA Good Works Team, which honors 22 men annually for their community service. Georgia's 24 recipients leads the nation.

*In October of 2023 and 2024, the team participated in the Chick-fil-A Dawg Bowl. It was led by former Bulldog coach Mark Richt and raised more than $750,000 each year for Parkinson's and Crohn's disease.

* In September of 2020, it was announced that Kirby and Mary Beth Smart contributed $1 million to UGA and the Athletic Association's new social justice program, scholarships for senior athletes whose seasons were affected by the pandemic and the expansion of the football program.

Development Leads Bulldogs To NFL Career

• 76 Bulldogs have been selected in the NFL Draft under Smart including 20 First Round picks.

• 13 Bulldogs were selected in the 2025 NFL draft including three in the first round.

• Georgia's total of 25 players selected in the 2022 & 2023 NFL Draft were the most by a single school in consecutive drafts in the modern era (since 1967).

• Georgia had a record 15 players selected in the 2022 draft including five in the first round starting with the No. 1 overall pick, Travon Walker, DL (Jacksonville). Since the 2022 draft, the Bulldogs have had 46 players selected by NFL teams.

Dooley Field At Sanford Stadium Quick Facts

*Named for the late Dr. S. V. Sanford, former president of the University and Chancellor of the University system.

*An overflow crowd of 30,000 saw the stadium's first game on October 12, 1929, when Yale University made its only trip South. Georgia won the now famous game when a young sophomore end from Macon, Vernon "Catfish" Smith, scored all 15 of the Bulldogs' points. Final score, Georgia 15, Yale 0.

*Through the years, the stadium has experienced various projects including adding lights at field level, double-decking the stands, closing in the West End, building SkySuites on both sides, work to Reed Plaza and renovating the West End Zone.

*Sanford Stadium played host to the medal round of the 1996 Olympic men's and women's soccer, watched by over 3 billion people around the world on television.

*Prior to Georgia's 2019 home opener, the playing field at Sanford Stadium was formally renamed in honor of Vince Dooley, the Bulldogs' all-time winningest head coach. Dooley served as head football coach of the Bulldogs from 1964 through 1988 and director of athletics from 1979 to 2004. As head coach, he won 201 games, one national championship and six SEC championships. While Dooley was athletic director, UGA won 23 national championships and 78 SEC team championships.

*The latest development was completed in 2024 that featured a new press box, additional premium seating, restrooms, concessions and expanded concourse on the 100-level south side. It raised capacity to 93,033.

Mascot Facts And More About Uga XI, a.k.a "Boom"

*Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Ga., since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956. Currently, Uga XI, aka "Boom" is in his third season with a record of 33-5.

*Boom is the 11th solid white English Bulldog to serve as Georgia's mascot since the line began in 1956 courtesy of the Seiler family of Savannah. In the offseason, Boom resides with his family in Savannah.

*Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

*As determined and published by the Pitt Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I-IX are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves.

*For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

*Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

NO. 5 GEORGIA 45, MARSHALL 7

Aug. 30, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team opened its season Saturday afternoon with a 45-7 win over Marshall at Sanford Stadium, extending the nation's longest home winning streak to 32 games. The sellout crowd of 93,033, along with a national television audience on ESPN, saw quarterback Gunner Stockton run for a pair of touchdowns and throw for two more, while the Bulldog defense held the Thundering Herd to just seven first downs.

Georgia outgained Marshall 488-207, with the Bulldogs rushing for 239 and throwing for 249; five different Bulldogs scored touchdowns. Defensively, Georgia held the Herd to just 72 yards of offense through the first three quarters. Linebacker Raylen Wilson paced the defense with seven stops, including two for loss.

Marshall got the ball to start the game and immediately ran into a stout Georgia defense. The Herd lost a yard over three plays and quickly punted. The Bulldog offense then went 70 yards in eight plays, taking a 7-0 lead on Dwight Phillips, Jr.'s 17-yard touchdown run. Stockton found wideout Zachariah Branch for a 25-yard gain on third-and-3 earlier in the drive, and then Stockton ran for 14 yards on fourth-and-2 at the Herd 31. Phillips scored on the next play.

Just like the opening drive, the Bulldogs ran the ball in for their second score. This time, it was Stockton with an effective fake handoff to Chauncey Bowers that gave the quarterback space to run the ball in from the 13 on fourth-and-1, making it 14-0. Stockton and Branch also connected for a big gain on third down on this drive, a 23-yarder on third-and-5.

With 10:15 left in the first half, Georgia got its first big special teams play of the season, a blocked punt by KJ Bolden deep in Marshall territory. A couple of plays later, Stockton ran the ball in for an 11-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead with 9:07 on the clock.

Bulldog kicker Peyton Woodring connected on a 43-yard field goal attempt with 24 seconds remaining in the half, giving Georgia a 24-0 lead.

Georgia's offense got the ball to begin the third quarter and showed some explosiveness with a 47-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to Branch, who took the screen pass to the left and covered all 47 yards after the catch. Stockton's third career touchdown pass made it 31-0 with 13:13 left in the quarter.

A Stockton pass to wideout London Humphreys in the back of the end zone on fourth down at the Marshall 2 made it 38-0 with 3:51 to play in the third quarter. Ryan Puglisi led the Bulldogs to another touchdown, finding tight end Elyiss Williams for a 23-yard score and a 45-0 lead with 14:18 left in the game. Marshall got on the scoreboard with 10:27 to go, with Joshon Barbie scoring on a 1-yard run.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I am happy for these kids. They work year-round. You only get so many games. I was really pleased with our guys coming out with a great attitude, great opening drive, converted some fourth downs. Really big drive to start the second half to kind of put it out of reach. I am proud of the way our team competed."

Elyiss Williams scored his first career touchdown against Marshall.

Worth Noting...

- Georgia is now 102-27-3 in season-openers all-time, including 10-0 under head coach Kirby Smart. The Bulldogs' 32-game home win streak is both a school record and the longest active streak in the FBS. The NCAA record is 58, set by Miami from 1985-94.
- Backup QB Ryan Puglisi found tight end Elyiss Williams for a 23-yard score and a 45-0 lead with 14:18 left in the game. It was the first career touchdown pass for Puglisi, and the first career catch (and score) for Williams.
- Saturday's win was a little different from the only other meeting between the Bulldogs and Thundering Herd. When Marshall visited Georgia in 2004, the Bulldogs got behind 3-0 before winning 13-3.
- The Branch brothers, Zachariah and Zion, made strong debuts for the Bulldogs after transferring from USC. Zachariah led the wideouts with three catches for 98 yards and a 47-yard touchdown, while Zion, a reserve safety, tied for the team lead with seven tackles.
- Safety KJ Bolden's biggest play was on special teams, when he blocked a punt that was recovered by linebacker Terrell Foster at the Marshall 20-yard line.
- The captains for the Marshall game were offensive linemen Earnest Greene, III and Drew Bobo, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive lineman Christen Miller. The Thundering Herd won the toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff.

NO. 4 GEORGIA 28, AUSTIN PEAY 6

Sept. 6, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — After a weather delay of more than two hours, the fourth-ranked Georgia football team knocked off Austin Peay, 28-6, at Sanford Stadium, extending the nation's longest home winning streak to 33 games in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 and a national television audience on ESPN+.

Running backs Chauncey Bowens and Nate Frazier rushed for a pair of touchdowns each to help lift Georgia over the Governors, an FCS program. Quarterback Gunner Stockton was 26 of 34 passing for 227 yards, and Georgia's rushing trio of Frazier, Bowens and Dwight Phillips, Jr., combined for 180 yards on 32 carries.

The Bulldogs were denied by Austin Peay at the 1-yard line on five straight plays to end the first half, keeping the score 14-3. Late in the third quarter and early in the fourth, Georgia's defense denied the Governors on a long series of plays inside the 10, keeping the Bulldog lead at 21-6. Georgia then tied a school record with a 99-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a win-sealing Frazier 1-yard rush.

The kickoff was moved up an hour to 2:30 p.m. because of thunderstorms that were expected to pass through Athens later in the afternoon. Those storms arrived in the region as the first half was ending. Per SEC rules, play was halted for 30 minutes whenever there was a lightning strike within eight miles of the stadium — and the clock reset after each subsequent strike.

Georgia committed its first turnover of the season on its opening drive, a Frazier fumble near midfield that Peay cornerback Ellis Ellis, Jr., recovered. The Bulldog defense quickly forced a punt, so no harm was done, and the Georgia offense got right back to work on its second drive. Bowens put UGA ahead 7-0 with two-yard rush with 5:55 left in the first quarter.

On the ensuing Peay drive, Georgia linebacker Chris Cole got the sophomore's first career sack, for a loss of eight yards. Later, after Peay was forced to punt, Frazier ran the ball in from the 2 for his first touchdown of the season and a 14-0 lead.

The Governors connected on a 44-yard field goal by Carson Smith to cut the lead to 14-3 with 9:08 remaining. After the two-hour delay during halftime, Georgia immediately got a defensive stop, and then the offense drove 60 yards for a touchdown. Bowens' 14-yard rush made it 21-3 lead with 10:54 left in the third.

Georgia's next possession ended with a fumble by wideout London Humphreys, and the Gavs turned that into a 43-yard field goal, making it 21-6 with 5:51 to go in the third. After the Bulldogs' big defensive stop inside the 10 late in the third and early in the fourth, Georgia went 99 yards to put the game away on Frazier's score. Linebackers CJ Allen and Raylen Wilson

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I really thought we came out of the delay with some juice. It was cool out, the music was good, the fans were excited, players were excited, it wasn't near as hot. We came out and got a three-and-out, came down to score, and seized the momentum, so I was really proud of our guys for that."

Worth Noting...

- It was a career day for sophomore running back Chauncey Bowens, who scored the first two touchdowns of his career and ran for a career-high 56 yards on 11 carries. He ran the ball five times on Georgia's 10-play drive that put UGA up 7-0, scoring from the 2-yard line.
- Senior wide receiver Colbie Young was QB Gunner Stockton's top target, catching seven passes for 76 yards. Junior London Humphreys was second with three catches for 29. Stockton completed his first 10 passes in the game, finishing 26 of 34 for 227 yards.
- A marathon touchdown drive of 99 yards, the seventh time a Georgia team has done that, ended with a 1-yard Nate Frazier rush and a 28-6 lead with 5:39 remaining. The 17-play drive lasted 8:43, the second-longest touchdown drive in program history.
- Offensive linemen Jahzare Jackson and Michael Uini made their first career starts, while cornerback Daylen Everette returned to the starting lineup after missing the opener with an injury.
- Punter Brett Thorson, a 2024 All-American, made his 2025 debut against the Governors. After suffering a major knee injury in last season's SEC Championship Game, Thorson missed the College Football Playoffs and was held out of the opener against Marshall. In his first outing, Thorson punted four times, for a 43.8-yard average, and had one downed at the 4-yard line.
- The captains for the Austin Peay game were quarterback Gunner Stockton, wideout Colbie Young, linebacker Raylen Wilson and safety KJ Bolden. Georgia won the toss and elected to receive, something the Bulldogs hadn't done after winning the toss since 2023.

NO. 6 GEORGIA 44, NO. 15 TENNESSEE 41 (OT)

Sept. 13, 2025 • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — At the end of a back-and-forth game Saturday afternoon at Neyland Stadium, Georgia running back Josh McCray scored on a 1-yard run in overtime to lift No. 6 Georgia to a 44-41 win over No. 15 Tennessee in front of a sellout crowd of 101,915, along with a national television audience on ABC.

The SEC opener for both teams featured nearly 1,000 yards of offense, with Georgia gaining 502 and Tennessee 496. Quarterback Gunner Stockton finished 23 of 31 passing for 304 yards and two touchdowns, and the Georgia rushing attack piled up 198 yards on the ground. Defensively, linebacker CJ Allen had a team-high 11 tackles, and defensive backs Joneel Agüero and KJ Bolden each had interceptions.

Tennessee quarterback Joey Aguilar capped the Vols' opening drive with a 4-yard touchdown run. The Bulldogs answered with their own impressive drive, beginning with a 45-yard completion from Stockton to Colbie Young. Stockton later hit Zachariah Branch for 10 yards, and capped the drive with a 6-yard touchdown run.

The Vols' next drive ended after two plays, on a 72-yard touchdown pass from Aguilar to Chris Brazzell II. Tennessee later took a 21-7 lead on Aguilar's 14-yard touchdown pass to Brazzell with 3:37 left in the first.

Georgia responded with a nine-play, 72-yard drive that included a Stockton pass to Branch for a first down on fourth-and-3 at the Bulldog 48. Later, Stockton threw a screen pass to Branch that the wideout turned into a 36-yard touchdown, cutting the UT lead to 21-14. Late in the first half, the Bulldogs drove down to the Tennessee 2-yard line before having to settle for a Peyton Woodring 20-yard field goal.

Georgia opened the second half with a 14-play drive to take a 24-21 lead, scoring on a 1-yard McCray touchdown. Late in the third, Georgia's defense produced another interception, this time by Bolden. Woodring's 48-yard field goal made it 27-21 Bulldogs.

The Vols answered with a 56-yard touchdown pass from Aguilar to Brazzell, putting Tennessee back in front. Woodring's 24-yard field goal gave Georgia the lead, 30-28, with 12:20 remaining in the game.

Tennessee regained lead on a 32-yard pass from Aguilar to Braylon Staley with 11:01 to play. The Volunteers then stripped Stockton, recovering the ball at the Georgia 34. Tennessee turned the turnover into 3 points on Gilbert's 48-yard field goal, pushing its lead to 38-30.

Georgia tied the game with 2:32 to go when, facing fourth-and-6, Stockton hit Humphreys for a 28-yard touchdown. On the 2-point conversion attempt, Stockton found Branch on the left side, making it 38-38. Tennessee had time to drive down to the Georgia 25 and set Gilbert up for the game-winning score, but he missed from 43 yards out.

Tennessee got the ball first in OT and was held to a 42-yard Gilbert field goal. Nate Frazier ran left for 21 yards down to the 4 on the Bulldogs' first play of overtime, and McCray score the game-winner.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was a great college football game. I'm really proud of our guys; we talked about coming in here to conquer this place, which is not easy to do, and when you do something like that, you have to make your own way."

Nate Frazier had a 21-yard run on Georgia's first play of overtime.

- The win was Georgia's ninth in a row over Tennessee and fifth in a row in Knoxville. Georgia is now 30-23-2 all-time against the Volunteers, a series that goes all the way back to 1899. The Bulldogs are now 10-0 in SEC openers in the Kirby Smart era.
- Georgia is now 11-7 all-time in overtime games, including 5-2 on the road and 4-2 under Smart. It was the first OT game in the series since 2013, when the Bulldogs won 34-31 in Knoxville.
- London Humphreys' 28-yard touchdown catch with 2:32 to play came on fourth-and-6. Georgia was 2-for-2 on fourth downs in the game and is 5-for-5 this season, with three touchdowns.
- The captains for the linebacker CJ Allen, defensive lineman Christen Miller, tight end Oscar Delp and center Drew Bobo. The Bulldogs won the toss and elected to defer to the second half.

NO. 17 ALABAMA 24, NO. 5 GEORGIA 21

Sept. 27, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — In front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 Saturday night at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ABC, No. 17 Alabama handed fifth-ranked Georgia its first home loss since 2019, 24-21, snapping the longest win streak in the FBS at 33 games.

Alabama stopped the Bulldogs on fourth down at the Crimson Tide 8 with 13:20 remaining in the game to preserve the three-point lead. Georgia got 227 yards on the ground, including the first career 100-yard game from Chauncey Bowens, who ran for 119, and quarterback Gunner Stockton was 13 of 20 passing for 130 yards and a touchdown.

A year ago, Alabama snapped Georgia's record 28-game SEC regular-season game win streak with a victory in Tuscaloosa. On Saturday, the Bulldogs had few answers for Alabama's offense early in the game, and then couldn't quite make enough plays to tie or take the lead after cutting the Tide lead to 24-21 with 6:30 left in the third quarter.

Georgia's last home loss came on Oct. 12, 2019, a 20-17 double-overtime defeat against South Carolina. This time around, the Bulldogs never led. Alabama out-gained the Bulldogs 397-357, though Georgia averaged 6.7 yards per play to 5.2 for Bama.

The Tide took a 7-0 lead by capping a 14-play drive with a 6-yard touchdown pass from Ty Simpson to wide receiver Germie Bernard. Alabama later went up 14-0 on a 6-yard Simpson pass to Isaiah Horton.

Georgia's offense needed to make something happen, and it did. Stockton hit wide receiver Colbie Young wide open on the right side for a 38-yard touchdown, cutting the lead to 14-7 with 12:48 to go in the half.

After recovering a fumble at the Georgia 11, Alabama pushed its lead to 17-7 with a 24-yard field goal with 8:30 on the clock. Georgia answered with a touchdown drive that ended with a 2-yard Bowens run to the left side, cutting Alabama's lead to 17-14 with 2:08 remaining in the half. Earlier in the 11-play drive, Bowens broke free for a career-long 43-yard rush to the 10.

Simpson ran the ball in from the 2 for a 24-14 Tide lead with 34 seconds left in the half. At the break, Alabama had a 262-196 lead in total offense and an 18:35-11:25 lead in time of possession.

The Tide got the ball to start the second half and came away empty on the drive after Conor Talty missed a 43-yard field-goal attempt. Georgia took over at its 26-yard line and got a 43-yard reverse run from wideout Dillon Bell to get down to the Tide 25. The Bulldogs later scored on Josh McCray's 1-yard rush, cutting the lead to 24-21 with 6:30 left in the third.

Early in the fourth quarter, on fourth-and-1 at the Tide 8, Cash Jones was stopped for a loss of 3. Georgia's offense later got the ball back, but it wasn't able to get into field-goal range. Alabama the ball back at its 12 with 3:19 remaining and was able to run out the clock and hand the Bulldogs a rare home loss.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"The environment was incredible. It was probably the best environment I've ever been a part of here. The crowd did their part, that's for sure. The crowd was incredible and created a home field advantage that should have been enough for us to win, but we didn't play real well and they did."

Chauncey Bowens rushed for a career-high 119 yards.

- Georgia's ground game paced the offense with 227 yards on 33 carries, and Chauncey Bowens had the best game of his career. The sophomore finished with 12 carries for 119 yards and a 2-yard touchdown, including a career-long 43-yard rush, and caught a career-high four passes for 22 yards.
- Alabama was able to control the ball and the clock, running 77 plays to Georgia's 53 and ending with a 35:36-24:24 advantage in time of possession. The Crimson Tide held the ball for 12:28 of the opening quarter.
- The Bulldogs trailed 24-14 at the half and shut the Crimson Tide out over the final two quarters. Junior inebacker CJ Allen led the defense with eight tackles and redshirt sophomore safety Kyrion Jones had seven. Six Bulldogs had at least five tackles, including linebacker Chris Cole, who had Georgia's only sack.
- Georgia saw its 33-game home winning streak come to an end. During the streak, the Bulldogs posted 10 wins over ranked teams. Georgia is now 52-5 at home in the Kirby Smart era, including 49-2 since 2019.
- The captains for the game were offensive lineman Micah Morris, wide receiver Zachariah Branch, defensive lineman Jordan Hall and defensive end Gabe Harris, Jr. Alabama won the toss and elected to defer to the second half.

NO. 12 GEORGIA 35, KENTUCKY 14

Oct. 4, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton rushed for a pair of touchdowns and threw for one more in the No. 12-ranked Bulldogs' 35-14 win over Kentucky on Saturday afternoon. It was a dominating performance in front of a Homecoming crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ABC.

Stockton and wide receiver Dillon Bell each had a pair of rushing touchdowns, and the Bulldog offense piled up 425 yards of offense. Stockton, who sat out the fourth quarter, finished 15 of 23 passing for 196 yards and ran for 48 yards on six attempts.

The Bulldogs converted nine of their first 10 third-down attempts and finished with a 33:38-26:22 advantage in time of possession. The defense held the Wildcats to 270 yards — about a quarter of them coming after Georgia went up 35-7 and started sitting its starters — and forced two turnovers. Linebacker CJ Allen had six tackles, including a sack and two for loss; he also forced and recovered a fumble in the third quarter.

After getting behind early in its previous two games, the Bulldogs got the ball to start the game against Kentucky and Stockton put the Bulldogs ahead with a 7-yard scramble and score.

Georgia began its next drive at its 4-yard line. A Stockton pass to London Humphreys for 18 yards moved the ball to the 22, and that was later followed by a 11-yard pass play to Nate Frazier. A 19-yard Stockton run on third-and-2 moved the ball to the Kentucky 29, and on the next play, the quarterback hit Humphreys for 17 yards plus a penalty on Kentucky. Two plays later, Stockton ran the ball in untouched for a 14-0 lead.

The Wildcats went 75 yards in four plays and scored on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Cutter Boley to tight end Josh Kattus to cut the Georgia lead to 14-7. Kentucky got the ball back soon after on an interception, but the Georgia defense forced a three-and-out to avoid any damage.

Georgia's next drive ended with a 60-yard Brett Thorson punt that Humphreys downed at the Kentucky 1-yard line. The Bulldog defense then forced their third three-and-out of the half. Bell then wrapped up the ensuing drive with a 3-yard score. His rush was Georgia's 23rd of the half, for 134 yards and three scores.

Allen forced and recovered a fumble on Kentucky's drive to open the second half, giving the Bulldog offense the ball at the Wildcat 38. Two plays later, Stockton hit tight end Oscar Delp for 36 yards down to the 5. On third down from the 3, Bell again ran the ball in untouched, pushing Georgia's lead to 28-7 with 10:54 left in the third.

The Bulldogs added to their lead later in the third with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to running back Cash Jones, making it 35-7 with 4:23 to play in the quarter.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It feels great. It's hard to win in the SEC, and you don't realize that until you're in it. It's hard to go on the road and win, and our guys came out with good juice today. I think we scored the first two or three drives — that was big, setting the tone; getting off the field some on defense was huge. I think that's a big success and a big step in the right direction for us."

Dillon Bell scored on both of his rushing attempts against Kentucky.

Worth Noting...

- Wide receiver Dillon Bell had two carries for 6 yards, which doesn't sound like much. But both of his rushing attempts went for 3-yard touchdowns. Bell was also Georgia's leading receiver with four catches for 68 yards, highlighted by a one-handed grab with a defender all over him along the left sideline.
- Linebacker CJ Allen has made a ton of big plays in his three seasons with the Bulldogs, but Saturday's forced fumble and subsequent recovery were career firsts. The play was also the Georgia defense's first takeaway via fumble of the season. Allen and Justin Williams led the defense with six stops each; Allen also had a pair of tackles for loss, including a sack.
- Georgia's first two drives took the long route to the end zone. The first was a 12-play, 75-yard drive that ended with Gunner Stockton's 7-yard run into the end zone. The second covered 96 yards in 13 plays and also ended with a Stockton rush, this time from the 6-yard line. The Bulldogs got the job done on third down throughout the game, finishing 8 of 12.
- With the win, the Bulldogs improved to 57-6 since 2021, the best record in the FBS. Georgia is now 53-5 at Sanford Stadium under coach Kirby Smart. This was the program's ninth straight win on Homecoming.
- The captains for the game were cornerback Daylen Everette, linebacker Quintavious Johnson, tight end Lawson Luckie and left tackle Monroe Freeling. Kentucky won the toss and elected to defer to the second half, so the Bulldogs received the opening kickoff.

NO. 10 GEORGIA 20, AUBURN 10

Oct. 11, 2025 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. — It wasn't easy — it seldom is against Auburn — but the No. 10-ranked Georgia football team scratched and clawed its way back from a 10-0 deficit to knock off the Tigers, 20-10, Saturday night at Jordan-Hare Stadium, in front of a sellout crowd of 88,043 and a national television audience on ABC.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton's 10-yard run for a touchdown with 1:53 to play sealed the Bulldogs' ninth straight win over the Tigers in the 130th edition of the Deep South's oldest rivalry. Georgia's win streak ties the longest ever in the series, set by the Bulldogs from 1923-31.

Stockton completed 24 of 37 passes for 217 yards and also led Georgia in rushing with nine carries for 26 yards. Zachariah Branch finished with nine receptions for 57 yards.

Auburn had a 237-78 advantage in total offense and a 21:48-8:12 advantage in time of possession at the half, and by the end, Georgia finished with 296 yards to Auburn's 277, and a 30:19-29:41 advantage possession. Georgia's defense held Auburn to 40 second-half yards; linebacker CJ Allen led the defense with 10 tackles, including two for loss and an 8-yard sack.

Auburn drove 75 yards in 14 plays to start the game, taking a 7-0 lead on quarterback Jackson Arnold's 2-yard run. Early in the second quarter, Georgia was able to hold Auburn to a 25-yard Alex McPherson field goal, pushing the Tiger lead to 10-0.

With less than two minutes to play in the half, Arnold dove over the pile from the 1 for the potential touchdown. But Georgia linebacker Raylen Wilson punched the ball out and safety Kyron Jones recovered the fumble at the 2, earning the Bulldogs a huge stop with 1:32 left in the half.

Georgia got a lot of help from three Auburn penalties on the ensuing 12-play drive, including two 15-yarders. Peyton Woodring got the Bulldogs on the scoreboard with a 29-yard field goal, cutting the Tiger lead to 10-3.

Georgia's offense began its second drive of the third quarter with a 21-yard Stockton completion to wideout Colbie Young. Later, Stockton hit receiver Noah Thomas down the middle for 30 yards to the 2. On the next play, running back Chauncey Bowens ran the ball in for Georgia's first touchdown, tying the game 10-10 with 7:23 remaining in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs took a 13-10 lead on Woodring's 53-yard field goal with 1:22 left in the quarter. In the fourth, after a third straight Auburn three-and-out, Georgia got the ball back at its 22. On third-and-8 from the 24, Stockton hit wideout London Humphreys for 17 yards to the 41. Completions of 9 and 10 yards to Branch moved the ball into Auburn territory, and on fourth-and-3 at the 40, Stockton found Humphreys again, this time for 8 yards.

Later in the drive, Georgia converted a third-and-1 at the 23 when Stockton found Frazier for a 6-yard completion to the 17. Three plays later, Stockton ran it in from the 10 to make it 20-10 with 1:53 to play.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was a tale of two halves. Our kids never quit. I'm proud of our kids. I'm as proud of this team as probably any team ever for the performance. We did not come out and start fast, play well. They outplayed us. They played with momentum, tempo, run game, stopped us running the ball in the first half. Frustrating, but the kids never quit."

Linebacker CJ Allen led the Georgia defense with 10 tackles.

Worth Noting...

- This was the 130th meeting between Georgia and Auburn, a series that began back in 1892 with a 10-0 Auburn win in Atlanta; the first 10 times the teams met, they played in Atlanta. The first game played in Athens was in 1912, a 12-6 Bulldog win. Auburn didn't host Georgia until 1960, when the Tigers eked out a 9-6 win.
- Linebacker CJ Allen had team-highs in solo stops (6) and total tackles (10), with two tackles for loss including an 8-yard sack. Linebacker Raylen Wilson had six tackles and forced the game-changing fumble at the goal line at the end of the first half.
- In the first quarter, Auburn out-gained Georgia 141-14. In the second, Auburn had a 96-64 yardage advantage. Over the final two quarters, Georgia out-gained the Tigers 218-40. Auburn went 0-for-6 on third down in the second half after converting 8 of 11 in the first two quarters.
- On Georgia's final scoring drive, which last 16 plays, covered 78 yards and tied a school record by lasting 8:45, quarterback Gunner Stockton completed 7 of 8 passes for 63 yards before running the ball in for a 10-yard touchdown.
- Georgia's defense shut the Tigers out in the second half, limiting the Tigers to 40 yards on 23 plays and just three first downs.
- Six Bulldogs had at least two receptions, led by Zachariah Branch's nine for 57 yards, with 51 of those yards coming after the catch.
- The captains for the Bulldogs were center Drew Bobo, wide receiver Colbie Young, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive lineman Christen Miller. Georgia won the toss and deferred to the second half.

NO. 9 GEORGIA 43, NO. 5 OLE MISS 35

Oct. 18, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — In an offense-heavy matchup of top-10 teams Saturday afternoon in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium, and a national television audience on ABC, it was No. 9 Georgia's defense that came through in the fourth quarter against No. 5 Ole Miss. The Rebels scored touchdowns on their first five possessions in the game, but the Bulldogs shut them down in the fourth quarter and pulled out a 43-35 win.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton's fourth touchdown pass of the game, and third to tight end Lawson Luckie, a 7-yarder with 7:29 remaining, gave Georgia the lead for good. It came after the Bulldog defense got its first stop of the game, a three-and-out it had to have. Georgia later added a 42-yard Peyton Woodring field goal with 2:06 to play, and then stopped the Rebels for the third straight drive to seal the win.

Stockton finished 26 of 31 passing for 289 yards and a career-high four touchdowns, while the Bulldogs also rushed for 221 yards on 49 attempts. Georgia out-gained the Rebels 510-351 and had a 15-minute advantage in time of possession: 37:39-22:21.

A 51-yard Woodring field goal gave Georgia a 3-0 lead, but it didn't last long. Ole Miss answered with a 7-yard Trinidad Chambliss run for a touchdown. Georgia followed that with its own scoring drive. After making a great catch for 13 yards on a ball thrown behind him earlier in the drive, Luckie caught an 11-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter, putting the Bulldogs back in front.

The Rebels regained the lead, 14-10, on Kewan Lacy's 1-yard touchdown run. The back-and-forth continued on the next drive, with Stockton running the ball in from the 22, his longest rush of the season, for a 17-14 lead with 7:13 on the clock.

Ole Miss regained the lead, 21-17, on Lacy's 1-yard rush for a touchdown. On the final play of the half, Woodring made a 35-yard field goal to cut the Rebel lead to 21-20.

The Rebels only needed two plays to find the end zone on the first possession of the second half, with Chambliss connecting with De'Zhaun Stribling for a 75-yard score to push the Rebels' lead to 28-21.

Georgia once again responded with its own scoring drive, this one ending with a 3-yard touchdown pass from Stockton to Luckie. The Bulldogs' 2-point conversion attempt failed, allowing the Rebels to hold onto the lead, 28-26, with 10:02 remaining in the third. Ole Miss extended its lead soon after, going up 35-26 on Chambliss' 2-yard touchdown run.

Georgia's offense continued its very productive day, marching 75 yards in 12 plays and scoring on Stockton's 3-yard touchdown pass to Frazier on the left side. That cut the Rebel lead to 35-33 with 12:56 to go.

The Georgia defense got a three-and-out on Ole Miss' next drive, forcing the game's first punt. The Bulldogs made the most of the stop, taking a 40-35 lead with 7:29 remaining on Stockton's third pass to Luckie, this one covering 7 yards. The defense got two more stops to seal the victory.

Cochair Kirby Smart said...

"I credit this win to culture. I say it all the time: a culture win is as good as any win in your program. The culture of this team and the toughness and the physicality, it took over the game."

Lawson Luckie caught three touchdown passes against Ole Miss.

Worth Noting...

- With the win, Georgia improved to 8-0 in home games against top-10 teams under coach Kirby Smart. The Bulldogs are 54-5 overall at Sanford Stadium under Smart.
- The Rebels scored four rushing touchdowns against a Georgia defense that had allowed just four all season before Saturday. But the Bulldogs shut Ole Miss down in the fourth quarter, holding it to 13 yards and one first down over three drives in the final period.
- Georgia's rushing attack piled up 221 yards on 49 attempts, with three Bulldogs —running backs Nate Frazier and Chauncey Bowens and quarterback Gunner Stockton — combining for 192 yards on 37 rushes. Stockton, who threw four touchdown passes, also ran for a 22-yard TD.
- Nine Bulldogs had at least three tackles in the game, led by linebacker CJ Allen's 10 and defensive back Joanel Aguerro's six.
- The captains for the game were linebacker Quintavious Johnson, cornerback Daylen Everette, tight end Oscar Delp and wide receiver London Humphreys. The Rebels won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.

NO. 5 GEORGIA 24, FLORIDA 20

Nov. 1, 2025 • EverBank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team got a 36-yard touchdown run from Chauncey Bowens with 4:36 to play in the game to rally past Florida, 24-20, Saturday at EverBank Stadium. The sell-out crowd of 76,770, along with a national television audience on ABC, saw the Bulldogs overcome a second-half deficit and survive for the fourth time in SEC play this season.

Georgia trailed 20-17 midway through the final period when its defense got a big stop on fourth-and-1 at the UGA 18-yard line, and the offense responded by driving for the go-ahead score. Quarterback Gunner Stockton was 20-for-29 passing for 223 yards and two touchdowns, and wide receiver Zachariah Branch had a big day with 10 catches for 112 yards. Linebacker CJ Allen led the defense with 13 tackles.

Georgia got the ball to start the game and moved the 75 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead. A 12-yard pass from Stockton to wide receiver Dillon Bell on third-and-7 at the UGA 28-yard line kept the drive going, and the two connected again later to end the drive. On second-and-7 at the Florida 8, Stockton hit Bell in the end zone on a quick slant to put the Bulldogs in front early.

Florida tied the game with 6:32 left in the first quarter on a one-play drive, completing a 40-yard touchdown pass from DJ Lagway to Eugene Wilson III. The Gators got the ball back soon after, when a Stockton pass was intercepted by defensive back Devin Moore, giving Florida the ball at the Georgia 38. The Gators took a 10-7 lead on Trey Smack's 22-yard field goal with 3:02 to go in the quarter. The Bulldogs tied the game 10-10 with 12 seconds remaining in the first half on Peyton Woodring's 39-yard field goal.

After Georgia's defense forced a three-and-out to open the second half, the Bulldog offense went 74 yards in five plays and took a 17-10 lead on Stockton's 22-yard touchdown pass to Noah Thomas. Earlier in the drive, on third-and-5 at the UGA 31, Stockton hit Branch down the middle for a 42-yard gain.

The Gators tied the game on the ensuing drive, scoring on a 2-yard Jadan Baugh run with 3:37 to play in the third quarter. Florida took a 20-17 lead with 14:52 left in the game on a 54-yard Smack field goal.

Midway through the fourth, Florida had the ball at the Georgia 18 and went for it on fourth-and-1. The Bulldogs' Raylen Wilson and Elijah Griffin stopped the run short of the first down, and the offense took the field down three with 7:54 remaining.

Georgia made the most of the stop, regaining the lead, 24-20, on Bowens' touchdown run up the middle. Stockton and Branch connected for completions of 18 and 13 yards on the drive. The Bulldog defense stopped the Gators again on fourth down on the next drive, with defensive back Ellis Robinson IV breaking up a pass on fourth-and-4 at the Florida 31 with 3:13 to play. Georgia was then able to run out the clock and secure the win.

Coch Kirby Smart said...

"Our kids were very resilient. Another night in the SEC. I don't know what else is going on around the country, but when you play in this league, every game comes down to the last few possessions. I thought we managed that well. Played the game, obviously in the fourth, had fourth downs where we were able to get a stop. That made the difference in the game."

Chauncey Bowens ran for a 36-yard TD to put Georgia ahead late.

- Against Georgia, Florida was facing its fifth top-10 opponent, and fourth in the top five, through eight games. Things won't get any easier for the Gators, who still have three games against teams in the top 15. Georgia, meanwhile, has played three games against ranked teams, and still has No. 20 Texas at Sanford Stadium on Nov. 15 and No. 8 Georgia Tech at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Nov. 28, among its final four regular-season games.
- Wide receiver Zachariah Branch had a career-high 10 catches for 112 yards. It was the USC transfer's first 100-yard game with the Bulldogs and the second of his college career. His brother Zion, a safety, had six tackles.
- Linebacker CJ Allen paced the defense with a career-high 13 tackles, and linebacker Raylen Wilson had eight, including the key fourth-and-1 stop on the UGA 18 (along with defensive lineman Elijah Griffin) in the fourth quarter. Twelve Bulldogs had at least two tackles.
- The quintet of Monroe Freeling, Micah Morris, Drew Bobo, Dontrell Glover and Earnest Greene III started on the offensive line for the third time this season. Due to injuries, Georgia has had to use six different starting fives on the line this season.
- The captains for the game were quarterback Gunner Stockton, wide receiver Dillon Bell, linebacker Raylen Wilson and defensive lineman Jordan Hall. Florida won the coin toss and deferred to the second half.

NO. 5 GEORGIA 41, MISS. STATE 21

Nov. 8, 2025 • Davis Wade Stadium • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team used a dominant second quarter to pull ahead of Mississippi State and then rolled to a 41-21 win Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 53,017 at Davis Wade Stadium and a national television audience on ESPN. Quarterback Gunner Stockton and running back Nate Frazier led an explosive day for the offense, which produced a season-high 567 yards.

Down 7-3 after the opening quarter, Georgia scored 21 straight points in the second to take control and earn its sixth straight win over MSU. It was the 900th win in program history.

Stockton was 18 of 29 passing for 264 yards and the three touchdowns; Frazier needed just 12 carries to reach 181 yards, highlighted by a 59-yard touchdown run in the third quarter and a 33-yarder in the fourth. The Bulldogs as a team piled up 303 yards on the ground.

Safety KJ Bolden led the Georgia defense with 10 tackles, defensive back Joanel Agüero added seven, and linebackers Raylen Wilson and CJ Allen had six each; Wilson also had 1.5 sacks.

State got the ball first and took a 7-0 lead on quarterback Kamario Taylor's 4-yard touchdown run. Georgia got on the scoreboard on the ensuing drive with Peyton Woodring's 49-yard field goal; Stockton and wideout London Humphreys connected on a 36-yard pass to set up the field goal.

Georgia drove all the way down to the State 2-yard line on its next possession, but came up empty after Dillon Bell was stripped and MSU recovered. Georgia got the ball back a few plays later when linebacker Quintavius Johnson knocked the ball out of quarterback Blake Shapen's hands and Bolden recovered the fumble at the State 27. Running back Chauncey Bowers scored on a 4-yard rush to put Georgia ahead 10-7 with 14:04 left in the half.

The Bulldogs went up 17-7 when Stockton hit tight end Oscar Delp for an 8-yard touchdown with 5:09 on the clock. Earlier in the drive, Delp hauled in a 29-yard pass to the State 40. Georgia got a defensive stop on fourth-and-5 at the UGA 23 to get the ball back with 2:25 left in the half. The Bulldogs took a 24-7 lead with 11 seconds left on Stockton's screen pass to the left that Zachariah Branch ran in for a 19-yard touchdown.

Georgia got the ball to start the second half and quickly added to its lead. On second-and-7 at the UGA 41, Frazier got free on the right side and outran everyone for a career-long 59-yard touchdown, making it 31-7. The long run put Frazier over 100 yards in a game for the first time this season and the second time in the sophomore's career.

On UGA's next drive, Stockton found Noah Thomas near the 50 and the receiver did the rest, scoring a 64-yard touchdown to push the Bulldog lead to 38-7 with 9:58 to play in the third. Georgia's final points came on a 46-yard Woodring field goal early in the fourth quarter.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We had good leadership this week. Our players believe in the way we practice, and that conditioning level was huge today. It was hot. It was way hotter than we expected. ... I thought we were well conditioned. And we ran the ball and we stopped the run, so that was two big things. I'm proud of our guys."

Nate Frazier ran for a career-high 181 yards against MSU.

- The victory was the 900th all-time for Georgia, which is one of nine FBS programs to ever reach the milestone. The Bulldogs' all-time record is 900-433-54.
- Sophomore running back Nate Frazier ran the ball 12 times for a career-high 181 yards and a touchdown. His TD run in the third quarter was a career-long rush of 59 yards — and he added a 33-yard run in the fourth despite losing his right shoe near the line of scrimmage.
- Georgia and MSU traded fumbles in the first quarter, but it was Georgia that made the most of its takeaway. State forced and recovered its fumble at its 2 line to kill a UGA threat, and Georgia got the ball back soon after when linebacker Quintavius Johnson knocked the ball loose and safety KJ Bolden recovered at the State 27. A few plays later, Georgia took the lead on a 4-yard Chauncey Bowers TD run.
- Georgia came into the game with eight sacks through its first eight games. At MSU, the Bulldogs got three. Linebacker Raylen Wilson had 1.5 sacks, and the rest were half-sacks split among Johnson, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive linemen Christen Miller.
- The captains for Georgia were wide receiver Zachariah Branch, offensive lineman Monroe Freeling, cornerback Daylen Everette and linebacker CJ Allen. Mississippi State won the toss and received the opening kickoff.

NO. 5 GEORGIA 35, NO. 10 TEXAS 10

Nov. 15, 2025 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team played to win again and again against No. 10 Texas on Saturday night at Sanford Stadium. The Bulldogs were aggressive on fourth down, even in their territory, and they even tried and converted a surprise onside kick after scoring early in the fourth quarter. The sellout crowd of 93,033, along with a national television audience on ABC, saw that aggression pay off in a 35-10 win.

Georgia quarterback Gunner Stockton tied a career high with four touchdown passes, wide receiver Noah Thomas caught two of them, and the Bulldogs scored touchdowns on their first two drives to go ahead 14-3, and then finished strong with three more in the fourth quarter.

Stockton, who also ran for a touchdown, finished 24 of 29 passing for 229 yards, and Georgia out-gained Texas 357-274. Texas quarterback Arch Manning was held to 251 yards, with a touchdown and an interception, on 27-for-43 passing; he was also sacked three times. Georgia's defense held Texas to 23 yards rushing on 17 attempts. Linebacker Chris Cole led the defense with seven tackles, including one of UGA's seven tackles for loss.

Texas got the ball to start the game, and took a 3-0 lead on a 33-yard Mason Shipley field goal. Georgia answered with its own good drive, and it ended with Stockton throwing a 17-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Noah Thomas for a 7-3 Bulldog lead. The ending of Georgia's second drive was the same as the first, with Stockton hitting Thomas in the end zone, this time from the 4, to make it 14-3 Bulldogs.

In the third quarter, Texas' defense picked off a Stockton pass at the Bulldog 36-yard line, and the Longhorns later turned the turnover into a touchdown. Manning hit Ryan Wingo for a 7-yard score with 5:27 to go in the third quarter, cutting Georgia's lead to 14-10. It was the first score for either team since the Bulldogs' touchdown with 12:49 to go in the first half, a span of 11 drives.

Georgia made it two scoring drives in a row by getting aggressive. After converting a fourth-and-1 on its own 36 with a pass from Stockton to running back Chauncey Bowers for 10 yards, Georgia drove down to the UT 30. On first down, Stockton threw over the top to London Humphreys for a 30-yard score and a 21-10 lead with 14:20 to play in the game.

Georgia's aggressiveness continued on the kickoff, with the Bulldogs converting an onside kick that running back Cash Jones recovered at the UGA 47. It was Georgia's first successful onside kick since 2013, and it led to a touchdown. The Bulldogs went 53 yards in nine plays, taking a 28-10 lead with 8:53 to go on Stockton's fourth touchdown pass of the night. This one, a 6-yarder, went to tight end Lawson Luckie on the right side of the end zone.

Georgia pushed its lead to 35-10 with 4:43 to play on Stockton's four-rush for a touchdown.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Our offense, it's like a big, strong anaconda just squeezing you. You get squeezed, and you finally catch a little air, and then they're back trying to suffocate you (after the onside kick). So it was a big momentum play, and it would have been, every one of y'all would have thought I was an idiot if it didn't work. So that's okay, too, that's part of football."

Noah Thomas caught two touchdown passes against Texas.

- The Bulldogs, who beat the Longhorns twice in 2024, once in Austin and again in the SEC Championship Game, had never hosted Texas in Athens before Saturday. Their only in-state meeting before last season was in Atlanta in 1957. Saturday's win evened the all-time series at 4-4.
- Georgia's defense sacked Arch Manning three times and had seven tackles for loss. Defensive end Gabe Harris, Jr. had a sack and 1.5 TFLs; linebackers Quintavius Johnson and Zayden Walker each had a sack. Safety KJ Bolden had Georgia's only takeaway with an interception in the second quarter.
- The Bulldogs improved to 9-0 against top-10 teams under Kirby Smart, and are now 55-5 at home overall. Georgia finished its SEC schedule 7-1 despite falling behind in seven of the eight games.
- In his last two games against top-10 teams, against then-No. 5 Ole Miss on Oct. 18 and Saturday against Texas, quarterback Gunner Stockton has thrown four touchdown passes and run for a score in each. In the two games he's a combined 50 of 60 passing for 518 yards.
- Wide receiver Zachariah Branch had a busy game, catching six passes for 41 yards, returning three punts for 30 yards, and returning two kick-offs for 63 yards.
- Three Bulldogs caught TD passes: Noah Thomas (2), London Humphreys and Lawson Luckie.
- The captains for the Bulldogs were wide receiver Dillon Bell, center Drew Bobo, linebacker CJ Allen and defensive end Gabe Harris, Jr. Georgia won the toss and deferred to the second half.
